"Our ability to reach unity in diversity will be the beauty and the test of our civilization."

Mahatma Gandhi, "Young India", Jan. 8, 1925.

"Non-violence leads to the highest ethics, which is the goal of all evolution. Until we stop harming all other living beings, we are still savages." Thomas A. Edison

"One individual can begin a movement that turns the tide of history. Martin Luther King in the civil rights movement, Mohandas Gandhi in India, Nelson Mandela in South Africa are examples of people standing up with courage and non-violence to bring about needed changes."

Welcome dear reader to your Horoscopes for 2017. Astrology is the ancient science that observes the influence of the cycles of the planets in our 'Solar SYSTEM', and how these create our personal & global EVOLUTION. It is not fortune telling as it doesn't tell us what will happen!

Rather we use Astrology for objectively outlining the influences of the planets in their 'areas of activity', so we can be in the right place at the right time to take advantage of the cycles as they unfold through our lifetimes. This saves us lots of time & energy so we can go with the flow and take advantage of the unfolding influences rather than swim against the current.

I also add some psychological tools to help us use our innate qualities for our highest good so we get better and better at being who we really are as authentic individuals!

Think of the Solar SYSTEM as an Atom with the Sun in the CENTER powering the System and the planets as ELECTRONS. So our Horoscope is our personal ATOM, and our atom is part of the collective system of humanity. The more conscious we become of our ATOMIC influence the more we can contribute to empowering the collective ATOM...HUMANITY.

SO when I mention planets at work in your life they are the 'magnetic ingredients' that are impelling your growth and evolution. Each planet has its cycle each year.

- The Sun is the 1 year cycle
- The New Moon has a 28 day cycle and moves through the Zodiac signs month by month
- Mercury has a 1 year cycle and retrogrades (goes backwards) three times a year
- Venus has a 1 year cycle – so moves through all 12 signs
- Mars has a 2 year cycle – moves through 8 signs in 2017
- Jupiter has a 12 year cycle – currently in Libra for a year
- Saturn has a 28 year cycle – currently in Sagittarius until the end of 2017
- Uranus has an 84 year cycle – currently in Aries
- Neptune has a 164 year cycle – currently in Pisces
- Pluto has a 246 year cycle!! – currently in Capricorn

Here's a visual model of the 12 signs so you can see the SYSTEM and how each sign is an ingredient for each of us. These ingredients become highlighted when we have the Sun or Moon or Ascendant sign in any of them.

So make sure to read your Sun sign AND Moon sign AND Ascendant sign and if you don't know these book a session to find out your Moon and Rising sign!

I'm including your Horoscopes ahead of the Global Report because let's face it we are all keen to know what's happening in OUR world!

Once you've read these I encourage you to read on to my "big picture" overview and details of the very significant and powerful forces on the way in 2017 as we step into the new ONE YEAR in our global evolution.

Aries Horoscope 2017

The Aries Principle - our capacity for independent action, courage & bravery

♈ Ruled By ♂ Mars

Element is FIRE Quality is CARDINAL

Keyword '1 AM'

Symbol THE RAM

Physically Rules Head Brain Red blood cells

Permission "I am brave & courageous"

Action Stations

As I welcome you dear Ram people to the crazy times on offer in 2017 it is with great excitement. Never have the stars had your name all over them in such a major fashion as from January right through until September 2017.

So as change and re-invention are the key themes for the year, you kids are in the front line as the natural pioneers of the Zodiac whose job is to 'start up' the engines of progress as the entrepreneurs who are brave enough to take risks and go for it, as after all you love and need a challenge!

Revolutionary Uranus has been passing through your sign since 2011 so he's the dude who has been stirring up the freedom liberation buzz, and many of you have already felt his 'charge' if you are born between March 21st and April 14th as you have already had Uranus on your Sun and still alive to tell the tale.

Chances are you are not the same Ram as you were however, as the urge to free up into your 'authentic self' will have already taken you into new territory.

So for those born April 15th to 20th it's now your turn! And in your case there are a few bells and whistles involved in your progress, as we have such a rare alignment of planets at work this year and they are all over you in particular.

Thus as I now spell out the territory on offer be aware that it still applies to all Aries folks...and Aries Moon and Ascendant also, as these big energies are also general to your sign. OK here goes!

Expanding Your World

Jupiter is the guy known as the King of the Gods whose 12 year cycle triggers expansion and growth and the opening of fresh vision and purpose. He's been in Libra since Sept 2016 bringing relationships of all kinds have come into sharp focus as Libra is all about those we connect with both professionally and personally.

As 2017 opens he has reached an exact opposition to change agent Uranus and does so twice more – in early March and late September. Put them together and we get all kinds of options one of which involves sudden and/or unexpected openings and new developments to do with 'relating' in your life.

For some of you this may mean sudden departures of old partners and business situations if they have outlived their time and it can also mean the launching or initiating of fab new partnerships that are in synch with your new life goals.

Libra is also a business sign and Uranus in Aries has brought us the massive wave of recent inventions and technologies, so here's another option if you've been developing something new as this has big potential for sales/marketing and PR. Best launch dates are late Feb/early March plus late Aug and late September.

Aries great life lesson requires healing old immature impulsiveness and tendencies to 'it's all about me' and learning co-operation with others! So if you haven't learnt this yet you sure are about to! Yes you are a self-reliant independent being who loves running your own show.

But Jupiter in Libra will open so many great new doors if you are willing to create co-operative agreements and agendas so everyone in your world can WIN WIN in this exiting ground breaking year.

You'll be attracting clever & inventive people & ideas to feed and stimulate your evolution. Indeed the wackier & more original the better as it's all about the clever new inventions & ingredients that are creating the future on offer this year.

The bottom line of our global evolution concerns making conscious decisions and inviting conscious people to join you, to support and promote you to bring in new technologies and models to take our world forward!

Just be aware that these are uncertain changeable times as the God of Chaos Uranus liberates us from the past so keep this in mind as you stay flexible and dynamic and open to new possibilities as the year unfolds.

Steady Sustainable Growth and Development

The other big player is Saturn in Sagittarius who is also lining up with Jupiter and Uranus in the 2017 offerings. He's the builder goal setting guy and he offers a very creative feature into the mix.

He's been in your 9th house offering a study or teaching phase and a general call to seek and open new territory both mentally and physically since Jan 2015, and leaves in December this year.

So you've already been in a big learning phase for 2 years with one more to go. But this year he steps up into prominence offering major goodies that can bring the 'big break' or stepping onto centre stage if you have the courage to strike out into new levels of enterprise and daring to shine.

As Saturn is known as the taskmaster who helps us build and construct our lives the message is you must also be prepared to do some work and be a pretty responsible Ram. This ingredient also asks you to review and maybe make some changes to your core beliefs if they are too rigid or don't allow for acceptance and allowing of other peoples view of the world.

Saturn's connections this year bring a strong call to deliver your knowledge or expertise with possible international options...think of yourself as ready to export yourself and your brilliant new enterprises. Passports and planes figure strongly here!

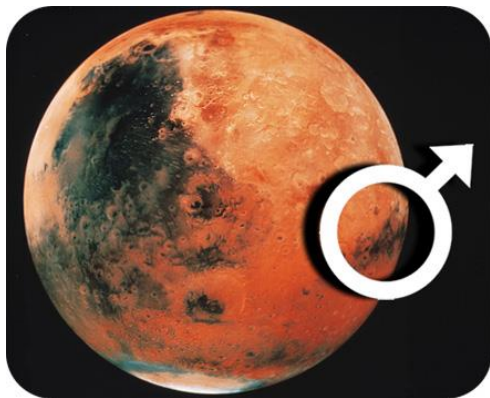

Saturn makes three great aspects with change agent Uranus this year as he completes his time in Sagittarius before he moves into Capricorn in 2018. This offers the 'steady sustainable growth' of the innovative stuff previously mentioned, and for you this is fab as it allows you to be steadier than typical for impulsive Aries.

Saturn/Uranus allows you to access a good rhythm in your creative development as you integrate the old with the new, as you take the best of your past experience and bring new ingredients into play. Best dates here are in early January, late May and all of November.

Managing Your Resources

Another new phase arises from October 11th when Jupiter enters your 'shared resources' zone creating fresh opportunities to grow your finances and investments. This is a money house – not necessarily how you earn it but how you invest and use it.

This can bring legacies and inheritances, and/or we may invite investment from and with a new partner to contribute to our goals and dreams. But the more significant goodies on offer here involve the growth of your power! The 'hidden resources' are to be found in your increasing understanding of how your beliefs about how 'secure' you really are have direct outcomes in your ability to feel safe.

Your ruling planet Mars

...who is the 'take action' guy who loves to be in fire and air signs and not such a mover and shaker when he's in earth and water signs.

It's great to know what sign he is activating during the year so you know how best to use your mojo with conscious intention, especially when you are not meant to do anything!!

♂ Jan 1st to 28th

– Pisces - sensitive energy so don't be dismayed if you're not raring to go use your imagination and intuition to download insights and guidance

- ♂ Jan 29th to Mar 11th – Aries - beginning of action stations for your year! – initiate new projects be bold and daring to your heart’s content
- ♂ Mar 12th to Apr 21st – Taurus – get practical and work steadily – deal with finances needed to mobilize projects & recognize you value
- ♂ Apr 22nd to June 3rd – Gemini – very active mentally & travel wise – networking and gathering knowledge & IT tools to grow your projects
- ♂ June 4th to July 19th – Cancer – invest in family time & deal with home maintenance – energize your “I am safe to succeed” core beliefs
- ♂ July 20th to Sept 4th – Leo – passion joy and fun time with friends & kids – very creative period & you may need to lead or activate others
- ♂ Sept 5th to Oct 21st – Virgo – deal with details and planning systems as precursor to PR action in Libra time – health checks & house clean ups
- ♂ Oct 22nd to Dec 8th – Libra – sales & marketing phase for projects – very sociable and personal and business partnerships on front burner
- ♂ Dec 9th to Dec 31st – Scorpio – time for intimacy & closeness with friends & lovers – great for researching & behind the scenes development of your power

Taurus Horoscope 2017

Taurus Principle	Our self-worth & values that create prosperity consciousness
♉ Ruled By	♀ Venus
Element EARTH	Quality FIXED
Keyword	'I NEED'
Symbol	THE BULL
Physically Rules	THROAT and NECK
Permission	"I am valuable and prosperous"

The Freedom Machine in Your World

Yes dear Bull people you are not immune from the implications of the massive shifts and changes on the way this year, and in your case it's all about a whole new level of freedom to express yourself and expand your daily work and service arena and this suits you perfectly as it aligns with your earthy nature just fine.

The big players calling the shots are Jupiter in Libra...the lord of all things opportunistic and expansive AND revolutionary change agent Uranus in Aries, as they 'oppose' each other in these signs for the first time since 1934! Yes that's right these are epic energies have historical precedents that echo the current financial stresses and control systems in our world.

Together these two boys launch brave new adventures that bring innovation to our world, so how are you meant to take advantage of this in your daily working world?

Inviting New Members to Your Team

Jupiter demands room to move and greater freedom and autonomy to set your own schedules and move beyond out dated agendas, and Uranus is all about innovation. So you're probably already been feeling like a restless bull for a few months now, and by new-year you'll be feeling bold and audacious and raring to go.

Just be aware that your growth this year isn't about short term plays for freedom. You're actually creating a whole new life path by getting smarter about how you use resources...be these dollars or things or people...to grow your career opportunities.

As Libra brings partners into the picture, part of your expansion involves bringing new folks on board as you either outsource for skills you need or take on partners to help things grow, so make sure they are in their own power and not feeding off yours!

You may also need to do some culling of those who've done their time, as with Uranus at work you need really innovative folks to activate ideas and new solutions.

You may receive a promotion or be off to training courses as powerful new info & ideas are a major feature of your growth through 2017.

Important Focus on Your Health until October

Jupiter in Libra in your 6th house is also fab for health improvement as wherever he is travelling he brings opportunity to do something better! Taurus is famous for your love of food and all things yummy and you have a bit of a reputation for not knowing when to put your spoon down! Yours is a sign of 'accumulation' hence the tendency to holding weight.

So learning all about healthy food full of organic wellness is not only a great idea, but you'll be surprised to find not only do you feel better physically you'll also enjoy feeling better about your whole food philosophy! Times are changing my friends. While Jupiter was in Virgo in 2016 we were exposed to all kinds of info about sugar and chemicals in processed food.

As you guys are the farmers and gardeners and food producers of the Zodiac it's also totally important to upgrade your knowledge and skills if this is actually what you do for a living! So many people are now shopping locally and organically as they reject toxic processes and if you aren't already onto this stuff then this is your grand opportunity!

It's also time to expand your knowledge & understanding of your psycho/emotional health. Our thoughts and feelings and unconscious beliefs create our reality on every level. Core issues for Taurus involve your fears of not being valuable or good enough...sound familiar? You process this emotional stuff through your kidneys as Libra rules the kidneys...where we store fear.

Yes a good kidney detox and saying you mantra "I am valuable and worthwhile and prosperous" as often as you think to do this and you'll be amazed at your increasing self-worth and prosperity!!

You bull people also tend to hold onto old 'stuff'...you know grudges & rigid positions and all that stuff, and this can also make you sick! So a great phase for letting go and turning toward the future with clean energy and positive thoughts...got it?

It's All About the Money

Another big player in your evolution since early 2015 years is good old Saturn who has been deep your 8th house of doing his thing to help you re-define and redesign your power. He's not an easy guy to spend time with as his tendency to seriousness and constraint doesn't make for fun and frivolity. He's hard work!

But he is the 'great teacher' once we get what he's trying to teach us and his lesson is all about power and the classic expressions of power...namely money, sex and control. The money bit means you've been dealing with how and where you're tangled up in other people's finances so you can restructure your set up.

Sometimes this involves paying the tax man or divorce settlements and wrangling over inheritances, and if you keep a spirit of karmic debts being fulfilled this can help manage your urge for retribution if you've been controlled or manipulated! Don't forget jail time for murder is a long time...lol.

But this year a new ally is on the way as liberating Uranus arrives to free up stuck issues and allow constructive empowering change. This begins in early January, then again in late May and finally in November. This can also bring sudden unexpected windfalls...yep cash...or changes in fortune as the result of lots of hard work and maybe selling an asset or attracting investors to your cause! The big message is to get out of the debt machine as much as possible!

How we are powerful is so often associated with money isn't it? You Bulls also like to accumulate this too as it helps make you feel secure. But how often do we hear of people with lots of moolah who never feel secure!

True power is an inner state that arises from our deepest core once we feel safe and secure! Saturn is teaching you to let go of trying so hard to keep everything and everyone under control, because once we stop controlling and manipulating we can invite warmth and closeness with others. And then they will support us and we'll feel valued and then we'll feel powerful...got it?

Where Are You Meant to be a Change Agent?

You are the builders and preservers of the Zodiac system with tremendous power at your disposal to be agents of change toward healthy green places and the environment in its marvellous diversity.

Or if you work in investment and banking sectors your job is to become part of and the new money systems that are arising as positive alternate scenarios, to replace the old broken global banking nonsense that controls and enslaves people. So learning the truth about these areas and researching the many revolutionary options is essential to empower and equip yourself so you don't get left behind in the chaos of the past!

Time to Reflect and Gestate

Your ruler Venus does her once in 18-month retrograde between 4th March and 19th May in the sign of Aries in the area of chart that's all about our inner psychological landscape. This calls you to some retreat time away from the madding crowd so you can incubate and concentrate your psychic focus for downloads and guidance for next moves.

The Aries bit is about confidence and courage, so your job is to re-program any old patterns that limit your ability to take action into fresh enterprise once Venus moves into Taurus on 7th June. It's like you're working out your resistance to freedom issues as Bulls tend to want to stay in 'stasis' or security so it takes a red rag to get 'em moving!

So you're building the energy behind the scenes for major progress from June, with the really big innovative force arriving as Uranus enters Taurus in 2018.

Relationship Upgrade

2017 is a year of revolutionary change that will upset the old models just in time for Jupiter to step into Scorpio from October 10th so he can do his expanding thing to begin global financial upgrades.

This offers the next growth spurt in your world as he'll be in your 'partnership' zone so you can attract the people you need to grow both within and outside. The Law of Attraction comes into play here as we are magnetic, so who comes in is a direct reflection of who we are and what we need to learn.

Traditionally this is a great placement for love and marriage and successful alliances and partnerships!

Your ruling planet is Venus

...in her guise of 'Fertile Prosperous Empress'. Keeping track of her movement through the signs over the year is very helpful to support knowing where to send your 'desire nature' so you can manifest growth in the affairs of the sign she is passing through!

Jan to Feb 3 rd	Pisces - highly imaginative and tapping into intuition big time
Feb 4 th to June 6 th	Aries – yes 4 months in Aries as she goes retrograde – feeling confident in relating to others without conflict or having anything to prove
June 7 th to July 5 th	Taurus – fertile steady development – prosperous finances

A Creative Year

Welcome to 2017 dear twin people as we all step forward into a whole new phase courtesy of the new ONE year in numerology PLUS the exciting link up between Jupiter and Uranus.

Jupiter is the guy with the 12 year cycle and he's currently in Libra through to October 2017. His job is to expand and grow our lives and his frequency amplifies and enlarges whatever he touches...after all he is the biggest dude in the solar system.

So as he's now in your creativity sector you'll be feeling the impulse to talk and write and spread your wings big time, and this is indeed what you are meant to do my friends. This is a fab placement for you kids as his optimism and enthusiasm feed you with a sense of anything being possible.

After the last year of home and family focus it's now time to have some fun and enjoy yourself as when he passes through the 5th house we get to play and party and go to the theatre and free up our 'inner child' to release spontaneous joy!

Yes you don't mind a bit of a chat at the best of times we know but there's so much more on offer here as you are now able to define your words and create a whole new life script with a vision and purpose way beyond the old story that has been running your life until now!

That's also Jupiter's job you see as he's the visionary dreamer who inspires us beyond the ordinary and mundane in pursuit of mythical quests and noble ideals. And never has the time been more ripe for this in 2017 as our world is shifting from the past to the future!

Fun and Play With New Partners

Jupiter in Libra brings us great new partnering options and in your 'house of love affairs' the very best once in 12 year timing for romance! And with Uranus involved here things can arrive suddenly and unexpectedly and spin us into a whole new dimension as someone or something that stimulates us with new ideas or options.

The thing is that these encounters may be short lived so not necessarily meant to take us to the wedding planner, but in these unpredictable times who knows? The point is these new creative liaisons will enhance our lives and open us to fresh possibilities. Timings here are early January and early March and late September.

Meanwhile you've have good old task master Saturn in your actual 'partnership' sector since January 2015 helping you make some decisions about exactly who you need in your life to take forward from here. Just be aware that sometimes partners & others who appear to block or limit our lives are actually offering us a mirror or excuse for why we're not getting on with being fabulous. The message here is don't project your fears onto others and make them the problem, and then you may allow them to help and support you to your goals.

Saturn can bring important alliances and long term partners, but if you're in a seriously not good relationship then it can be goodbye and good luck time.

New Levels of Leadership

Jupiter in the 5th house is also a marvellous opening for fresh levels of your leadership possibilities! No you don't necessarily have to get up on podiums although some of you may find yourself having to do exactly this, but you will be called to motivate and inspire others, which is after all the job of a leader.

With change agent Uranus also a big player in your unfolding scenario you need to open new options in your teams and group activities. Uranus in your 'community sector' asks us to participate in larger concerns to improve or innovate existing social conditions.

This is a humanitarian placement so you'll be attracted to finding purpose in a cause or helping bring much needed changes in whatever area matters to you. So when we put this together we get community leadership!

Enjoying Your Kids

Another feature on offer involves your own kids and if you don't have any then watch out as Jupiter passing through the 5th can announce a pregnancy. Obvious precautions here if you'd rather not!!

The fun and play stuff I've mentioned is fab for expanding your relationship with your treasures and helping stimulate their self-worth or finding new ways to make learning fun for them. All kids need recognition and approval to help them grow and flourish so make sure you're giving plenty of this to not only your children but all the people you know and work with.

If you're reading this and realizing that maybe you didn't get enough of this when you were young from your parents then it's time to start giving this to you self!!

Liberating Your Mind & Mouth

Saturn also comes into the picture here as he's been in your opposite sign of Sagittarius since January 2015 for his once in 28 year visit. Yep this is a long cycle and Saturn is a pretty serious kind of dude who offers great gifts to us if we're willing to step up into his maturing vibe and take responsibility for our lives.

This is not necessarily such an easy thing for you busy kids as your light & breezy style would often rather leave it to others to deal with the boring bits and really apply yourself to long term plans and results...yes?

Ok so that needs to change now so you can take advantage of some fab outcomes in your fields of learning & teaching & networking ideas and information. If you've had dreams of being a writer or got that manuscript stashed in a draw then this is the year to publish.

With Sagittarius also ruling international activity you may need to travel to distant shores to realize your goals...goodie! Saturn can also take you into authority positions so maybe it's time to teach, and for some you may commit to a learning curve to enhance your skills.

Another important mention here involves Saturn helping you release any old limiting patterns you may still carry that your ideas and opinions are not valued or that you are not 'clever or smart enough'.

Saturn forces us to face our fears and do the work to use our greatest fears as fuel so they can become our greatest assets. Learning to discipline and train your mind & mouth is a very cool process for you, so you can learn that thoughts and words have power so you need to be very careful what you think and say!! Your mantra is "I am now heard and understood".

Daily Work & Health Upgrade

Your next growth spurt comes in from October 11th when expansive Jupiter heads into your 'daily work and health' sector opening a new 12 year cycle here until November 2018. Jupiter demands room to move and greater freedom and autonomy to set your own schedules and expand your ideas and possibilities. You may get a promotion or need to travel for your work.

This is also a great phase for learning about your psycho-emotional health and how your feelings and thoughts create your health outcomes, and including new exercise and healthy food options.

Your Ruling Planet is Mercury

'The Winged Messenger' is your best friend and mentor and he's an extraordinarily clever fellow with his quick silver adaptable qualities ensuring you of the constant stimulus you love so much. Ah an idea for you...find a little statue of him and keep him on your altar and ask him for guidance each day! So his movement through the signs is very important for you each year, especially when he does his retrograde three times each year.

In January he is indeed retrograde until the 8th and then spends until February 7th in Capricorn. So great for planning and being practical and methodical with strategies toward your goals for the year.

Then Feb 7th until Feb 26th he's in Aquarius – great for startling dynamic new ideas and connections. Think way out of the box

Then Feb 26th to March 14th he's in Pisces – great for inspiration and tapping into your psychic powers and imagination

Then March 14th to April 1st he's in Aries – great for assertive thinking and speaking up with pioneering words and ideas

Then April 1st he's in Taurus – great for practical thoughts and financial plans to build steadily toward goals. He also goes retrograde here until May 3rd and it's not until June 7th that he flies into Gemini so lots of time for this practical thinking stuff!

Then June 7th when he's in Gemini you're in ultra-busy mode catching planes and networking big time – also great for integrating IT features to help things grow

Then June 21st he heads into Cancer – you'll be thinking and talking family matters

Then July 6th he's in Leo – this is a very creative time with passion investing your words and ideas

Then July 26th he steps into Virgo – time to review and micromanage plans and systems. He also retrogrades here until 5th Sept and it's not until 30th Sept that he flies into Libra so lots of time for planning and systems upgrades.

Then 30th September he's in Libra – fab for socializing and partnerships and PR and marketing time

Then 17th September he heads into Scorpio – great for research and financial planning and having deep and intimate conversations

Then 6th November he launches into Sagittarius – big time expanding your connections and publishing or sharing your information. He spends the rest of the year in Sagittarius as he retrogrades here on 3rd December – then goes direct on 23rd December. So November and December are busy travel and networking months with possible international connections.

Expanding Times on the Home Front

Doesn't everybody know that the generous loving sign of Cancer is absolutely all about home and family? It's one of the most well-known associations in the Zodiac system I've found as we all identify with this key component in our lives.

Yep this is your essential driving feature dear crabs as you build your safe shell of protection for yourself and others, and sometimes this is also for the 'family not connected by blood'! So you'll be happy to hear that 2017 offers the most amazing growth filled phase to your family goodies in 12 years!! So think back to 2005 for echoes of the last cycle.

Jupiter is the lord of luck and good-fortune who expands the territory he graces for a 12 month period, and he's already been in your home/family sector since September 2016 and remains here until October this year. Implications here have you building or buying or renovating property and things can get pretty full on when he's on the scene.

So you may be tempted to bight off big projects or take on a tad too much on this one and the obvious caution is to keep things realistic and manageable despite your urge to build the Taj Mahal. As Jupiter is in Libra the sign of style and design and loves harmony and balance this becomes an essential ingredient to inspire your choices.

Other options involve the revolving front door with people arriving and departing the family scene and lots of extra mouths to feed. So for some you're bidding farewell to kids as they fly the coop to travel or adventure or build their own family.

The Libran feature here brings this fresh relationship energy into the mix so you may be welcoming new family members and in some cases these are foreign or fabulous exotic new crabs. Generally there's a sense of optimism on the home front no matter how nuts things get!

And then maybe it's you flying the coop for international postings or in some cases this can trigger a period of gypsy time and being free to make your home wherever you lay your swag. Stay cool on this one as it can be very liberating to let go and be unattached to possessing things and people to feel safe!

Liberating Your Career

Change agent Uranus in Aries has been in your goals and career zone since 2011, thus you've already been in a fresh career phase for 6 years now BUT this year takes things to a whole new level.

This is because he now gets a big kick in the behind from Mr Jupiter when they oppose each other from early January, then again in early March and for the last time in late September. When they connect, their pioneering adventurous impulse triggers the urge to re-invent things in a whole new way.

So ask yourself what new technologies, or inventive ideas and ingredients, or smart new people to add to the team do I need now? Then go and find them or invent them or bring in the people you need to do this!

Uranus is the wildcard feature we see writ large in our current global story. He can bring a touch of chaos to stir things along, so if you find that suddenly people want things to be different or just depart the scene unexpectedly this is a gift to you to force the shifts that are needed this year.

Support from Saturn

So even though the career stuff I've outlined can feel a little unstable the good news is Saturn in Sagittarius in a wonderful supporting role to offer fresh and enduring and significant change.

He's been in your daily work and service sector for his once in 28-year visit since January 2015. So you've been in a pretty hard working phase for 2 years now, and sure this can feel very ho hum on some levels as you're peddling the bike hard to grow your life. 2017 is the year all your efforts will be totally worthwhile as you set up fab new structures and systems that underpin your outcomes for many years to come.

The trick here is to not buy into the belief that this has to be too hard and relentless, as you'll see improvements as the year goes by that will lighten up your attitude and help you to flow rather than push...go it?

These 'improvements' arrive as Saturn forms a wonderful aspect with Uranus in your career zone. This is another major 2017 feature as these two lords connect very positively in their 45 year cycle! They do this three times starting right at the beginning of the year in January! Then twice more - in late May and right through November.

This great alignment allows for constructive change with a creative balance between the old and the new in your life, and offers a sense of stability and wisdom; kind of like you've finally mastered your creative process and there doesn't have to be drama and struggle anymore.

It's a combination of busting your rut at the same time as working steadily toward your goals. You will however, not be thrilled about rut type stuff (or people) so best to outsource the boring stuff once you have systems in place, so you can keep having awesome ideas and meeting great new partners to support your life.

As Saturn is in your 6th house of health it is also an important phase to do some major health reviews and enhance your life with organic food and exercise, and if you are a Crab with eating issues then your mantra is "It's not safe to let myself be nourished on every level."

But again with the supportive connection to innovative Uranus you'll be able to make healthy changes and program any old 'I'm not safe' belief systems with ease this year!

A Fresh Creative Spurt

...arrives from October 11th as expansive Jupiter leaps into our 5th house announcing a terrific year until November 2018, beyond your recent growth focus on the home front. Traditionally this is the zone known as "creativity and procreativity" and is associated with Leo.

You will enjoy feeling your 'inner child' wanting to come out to play as you access the fresh and spontaneous energies. This is a time for fun and parties and generally a sense of optimism and enthusiasm. This is also about investment of your time and energy to enhance your connection to your own kids.

As Leo is about 'leadership' you'll notice the urge to lead the way in your own field to motivate inspire others with your creative visions.

Let's talk About Pluto and Feelings

You folks are meant to be nurturing souls who use their feelings positively to tune into your world through sensitivity and intuition. This is the goal dear crabs...for all of you!

A totally massive feature of these evolutionary times is the process we must pass through to allow us to get in touch with and then release any old toxic feelings and stored emotions.

This has been happening big time since 2008 when transformer Pluto entered Capricorn...your opposite sign. The process has two wonderful outcomes.

By allowing ourselves to trust our 'feeling body' so we can use our intuitive feelings powerfully AND believing that it is OK to have needs and learn how to meet them for ourselves, we become 'emotionally safe' and can step into our power!!

So you Crab kids have been doing this since 2008 depending on your birthday!

Those born 21st and 22nd and 23rd June in 2008/9

Those born 25th and 26th and 27th in 2010/11

Those born 28th and 29th and 30th June in 2012/3

Those born 1st and 2nd and 3rd July in 2013/14

Those born 4th and 5th and 6th July in 2014/15

Those born 7th and 8th and 9th July in 2016/7

Those born 10th and 11th and 12th July 2017/8

So if you're born 10th and 11th July it is now your turn to pass through the 'zap zone' of transformer Pluto as you pass through your death/re-birth journey to transform your life and take you to a higher level of your conscious power.

Now this ain't the easiest of energies to manage as all kinds of old stored feelings can pop up on this one so you can let go of them...this allows you to empty the old glass of toxic stuff so you can begin to fill the glass with nice fresh water. This big evolutionary process require that we release old unconscious limiting emotional patterns, and in some cases people.

Brave Heart and Powerful Growth

You are one of the lucky kids who are about to receive the awesome uplifting goodies on offer from electric planets coming into play this year! I am so excited for you...and me!!

If life is not charged with fresh passion and adventure it's pretty ordinary for you isn't it? And yes it has been pretty ordinary over the past year; indeed it's been testing in so many ways!

So as you do your meditation on NY Eve @ midnight you're not only sending the power of your big Leo heart toward 'peace for us all' in these highly unstable times. You're also saying YES to your own fabulous future where you're free to finally shine your light for all to see.

The potent feature of 2017 that will bring such startling change and renewal to our world involves the unique combo of expansive Jupiter opposing innovative Uranus. This unleashes the big shifts that allow substantive growth and development of stuff we've been working to develop for a very long time.

And you are ready aren't you!! As Jupiter has been firing up your communication sector since September 2016 you've already been feeling the urge to expand your life with fresh new knowledge that opens a whole new world view and attitude.

It's like you can already look back and see how you allowed your old concepts and self-limiting attitudes to hold you back, so you are now free to unleash your creativity at a much higher level. So let's find out how and what you need to bring into play to make this happen?

Partnerships Are the Key!

If you've been hankering for meaningful connections that bring a whole new level of relationship into your life you are in luck! Jupiter in Libra lights up your world from January so you may attract these fresh new people and business partnerships. But you will need to move out your current safe zones to do this. There's an old saying "If you want to meet someone new you need to leave the house".

Leos love to love! So what do you love and what are you passionate about? Once you answer this question you'll be free to attract the quality people you need to love and who love you. This is not ordinary love though. It's love of the highest order beyond the superficial sex thing for simple gratification.

Sometimes our new lovers are not meant for sex. They are meant for passionate sharing of ideals and knowledge. It's about the love of shared vision and purpose and working with these enlightened souls we are now ready to attract to enhance our goals.

Sure, with Jupiter in Libra in your travel zones for the next 9 months you may indeed manifest a lover in time and space and possibly while you're out and about travelling & networking to make you feel good. But only if there is this shared vision will it last and become part of building a shared future.

What Are You Meant To Say?

Jupiter opens and expands us to new horizons and in Libra this involves connecting with others...and the world around us for this to occur. As he's now in your 'mind & mouth' sector then obviously you have something to say. He hasn't been here since 2005 so look back for themes then to support your understanding of now.

OK so we all do 'creativity' differently so we all have something different to say. Are you a words and ideas person? Or do you convey your messages through other mediums such as art or film or through your work or...whatever?

So this is a once in ages opportunity to use your 'medium' to teach or educate others about these revolutionary times and the fact that we all need to make a difference in some way. Jupiter here can also take you into a study period to enhance your goals and generally you are hungry for fresh stimulus.

The caution is in knowing when to speak and to who, as you have strong opinions now and must select your audience on this one, as Jupiter can also happily stir up a hornets nest as he blithely sends his opinions to everyone without filtering the situation. Avoid this!!

So the message is be diplomatic, clear and inviting to others to share their ideas and that you will actually listen...got it! The greatest gift from Jupiter here is to know that "I am heard and understood" so here is your current mantra. So we need to actually hear and understand others...right?

Once you've this sorted then wow you can set up some big power plays in communications and relationship options and you will be welcomed and heard! Mind you you'll be impatient with people who linger in the past and refuse to move beyond the constraints of the old paradigm mentality. Boring!! Evict them if they are taking up space in your energy field.

Yes you are famous for your drama king/queen antics but this has been shifting over the past few years hasn't it? You now know these are the features of unconscious Lions who just want to play narcissistic agendas to make themselves feel important...right? Yay...you have evolved!!

Jupiter here wants ideas and growth and hot chemistry so you feel energized by every exchange! You want to hang out with interesting cool people who are part of the revolutionary innovative Zeitgeist and it's time to say YES to them. We love that these days this can happen through the e-waves as well as physically so set up connections with your 'like-minded others'.

Ah yes and let's not forget Jupiter is in international travel mode right through until October calling you to far horizons...time for a new suit case? Best dates on this are February, late April/early May and September.

Staying Grounded!

Yes I know this all sounds exciting and with Uranus in full swing it is. You're about to step beyond your old Paradigm into uncharted territory and this can feel a bit edgy at times. So to support this feeling to morph into a more comfortable experience Saturn in Sagittarius is on your side.

He's been in Sagittarius since January 2015 for his once in 28 year sojourn so you are already pretty familiar with him. He's been in your higher learning zone enhancing your growth by bringing you a new study phase OR helping you get serious about your message and the work needed to build form to express it. Saturn demands that we make sure our goals are grounded in reality and not just pie in the sky fantasies.

His big lesson in Sagittarius is tolerance and acceptance of other people's beliefs as we also review our own 'beliefs' and how these underpin our results. Do you believe you deserve to 'make it' and be successful and prosperous? The wisdom of Sagittarius is to tell the truth and give up extreme positions by practicing moderation and objectivity.

So after two long years of striving and growing under his influence as you've faced your fears of being fabulous in your chosen field, he's finally all set to deliver the goods!

He now forms three excellent alignments with Mr Revolution himself...Uranus. These guys come together for an excellent outcome of strategic change in a measured and easy fashion. They connect three times from the beginning of 2017 in January with another pass in late May and the final time in November.

As Saturn is in your travel and international sector don't shy away from invitations that require a travel kit that includes both pleasure and business wardrobes. Our global re-invention agenda has brought us some major wild card energies in late 2016 and these hint at the out of the box wildly original energies you have to tap into in 2017.

Yes the future is uncertain and pretty crazy in terms of the old measured societal norms. But it's also loaded with the freedom beyond your old life as long as you're willing to step into the unknown and trust that all will be wonderful...because you deserve it.

Home and Family

On October 11th Jupiter enters your 4th house for a year until November 2018 so your expansive focus shifts to this most essential ingredient in your world. His urge to expand and enhance may have you moving or renovating your house and/or welcoming new members to the tribe.

Your ruling Planet is The Sun – and he’s not a planet either he’s a SUN! The King of the Jungle.

Thus keeping track of the Sun’s passage through the signs each month is essential for you to take advantage of your creative force in 12 different phases over the months.

Expanding Your Financial World

Once every 12 years Jupiter visits each sign to open a new 12 year cycle and in 2015 it was your turn to step into this new phase while he was in your sign of Virgo. As he is the Karmic Lord of fresh horizons and opportunity I'm trusting you took advantage of his positive vibes and did indeed step up and out toward your potential.

Yes I know 2016 was also a pretty tough year for many people with lots of challenges, but within this you did grow and get better at being you...yes?!

OK so now Mr Jupiter is in Libra taking you forward into the next ingredient you need to add to your growth as he heads through your 2nd house of money! This encompasses how you earn your bucks but it is so much more than this, as it is the essence of your self-worth and value, and if we don't believe we are worthwhile and valuable then we don't get far in life do we?

So yes the classic reading for Jupiter here is lucky stars around money...good fortune...winning things and all that stuff...yay! And you have some cool timings here right at the beginning of January, then early March and lastly in late September.

This is when Uranus lines up with Jupiter for a rare connection that's going to be a major feature in global affairs this year. Together they bring sudden and unexpected shifts, hence in your case sudden windfalls or important new ingredients into your financial planning.

OK so the point here is if you don't win the lottery on these dates you still need to be alert to incoming ideas and info that make you smarter about money in general and what to do to help your material world grow from here.

Sometimes we need to invest in our projects and spend a few bucks for outcomes in four or eight years' time. And as Jupiter is in Libra it can be about inviting a new partner to support your growth with their 'unusual' or progressive ideas and ingredients. Just remember things can come about very suddenly so stay alert for signals and offers.

Jupiter likes to do things BIG and when he's in your money house be aware you'll be tempted to spend BIG! Lock up your credit card until October!! Another scenario is other people hitting you up to spend on them...lol!

Ultimately the gift from Jupiter is to expand your belief that you are worthy of everything you totally deserve. Health wealth and happiness! "I am valuable and worthwhile and prosperous" is your daily mantra!

Next Comes Expanding Your Networks

On October 11th Jupiter then steps into Scorpio and your communication sector until November 2018. So first you opened a new 12 year cycle for growth in 2016, then grew your value and financial arena up to October 2017, so next comes expanding your networks and connections with others to enhance your growth. Get the idea of the Zodiac process now?

This brings travel and learning and interesting people and knowledge onto the scene as you indulge your natural love of researching the wondrous mysteries of life!

As you kids are the team who are the health and healing leaders this will be your 'moment' to share your knowledge and 'be heard'! Just back to 2016 for a moment here as I remind you that there was a huge explosion of awareness hitting home for so many people that food is the key to health and wellbeing.

It's also your job to bring the new 'energy technologies into main stream practice as people finally begin to realize that we have the power to heal ourselves through correct alignment of our mind & body.

Shifts on the Home-front

Ok the other major player in 2017 is Saturn in Sagittarius doing his once in 28 year cycle through your home/family sector. He's already been here for 2 years creating new foundations on all sorts of levels.

Saturn highlights responsibility themes so this may have you having to go the extra yards to support family members, so if things get a bit heavy or tedious just remember 'this too will pass grasshopper' and be a steady force for your family group.

Re-structuring both your physical & emotional foundations is the key here, so there's the obvious possibility of changes of residence, or building and renovation options also apply. Sometimes it's about downscaling as your needs change and sometimes a self-contained flat to rent space and make extra money.

Part of the family re-structuring may also involve allowing others to take responsibility for their own lives when they need to...i.e. beyond the age of 24! If you've still got adult kids at home it can be very empowering for you and them to give them the '4 Permissions' from Family Therapy...they are great for us all as sometimes it is us who needs to leave home!

1. You can go
2. We have faith in you
- 3 we'll miss you
- 4But we'll be OK!

When Saturn is at the base of our chart we are deep in personal territory and worldly outcomes are not our primary focus. So the most important outcome from this once in 28 year phase is your chance to create new 'safe inner foundations' upon which you can build future goals and dreams to be reaped in 14 years when he arrives at the top of the pile...your career outcomes.

And finally...it will help you enormously to re-program any old issues you may have that you don't deserve support from others! So your mantra is "It is safe for me to now find the balance between support and being supported".

The big difference between the last 2 years of Saturn doing his re-structuring thing and this year is the arrival of freedom machine Uranus onto the scene. He is the guy who frees up old stale stuff and gets things moving, and as he joins Saturn there's a sense of release into new conditions without too much stress and relative ease.

It's like we finally get what we need to let go of and where we need to invite innovation. It's a time of stability and creative balance between the old and the new in your life. Timings here are right from the beginning of January, then again in late May and lastly in November!

Your Ruling Planet is Mercury

'The Winged Messenger' is your best friend and mentor and he's an extraordinarily clever fellow with his quick silver adaptable qualities ensuring you of the constant stimulus you love so much. Ah an idea for you...find a little statue of him and keep him on your altar and ask him for guidance each day!

Thus his movement through the signs is very important for you each year and especially when he does his retrograde (appearing to go backwards) three times each year.

In January he is indeed retrograde until the 8th and then spends until February 7th in Capricorn. So great for planning and being practical and methodical with strategies toward your goals for the year.

Then Feb 7th until Feb 26th he's in Aquarius – great for startling dynamic new ideas and connections. Think way out of the box

Then Feb 26th to March 14th he's in Pisces – great for inspiration and tapping into your psychic powers and imagination

Then March 14th to April 1st he's in Aries – great for assertive thinking and speaking up with pioneering words and ideas

Then April 1st he's in Taurus – great for practical thoughts and financial plans to build steadily toward goals. He also goes retrograde here until May 3rd and it's not until June 7th that he flies into Gemini so lots of time for this practical thinking stuff!

Then June 7th when he's in Gemini you're in ultra-busy mode catching planes and networking big time – also great for integrating IT features to help things grow

Then June 21st he heads into Cancer – you'll be thinking and talking family matters

Then July 6th he's in Leo – this is a very creative time with passion investing your words and ideas

Then July 26th he steps into Virgo – time to review and micromanage plans and systems. He also retrogrades here until 5th Sept and it's not until 30th Sept that he flies into Libra so lots of time for planning and systems upgrades.

Then 30th September he's in Libra – fab for socializing and partnerships and PR and marketing time

Then 17th September he heads into Scorpio – great for research and financial planning and having deep and intimate conversations

Then 6th November he launches into Sagittarius – big time expanding your connections and publishing or sharing your information. He spends the rest of the year in Sagittarius as he retrogrades here on 3rd December – then goes direct on 23rd December. So November and December are busy travel and networking months with possible international connections.

The Best of Times!

Your new best friend is a guy called Jupiter! Get a picture of him and put it on the fridge and pay homage every day as he's the guy who is currently uplifting you to a whole new plateau of optimism and enthusiasm for life no matter how weird things are 'out there'.

He comes to your house every 12 years so it's been a while! Think back to 2005 for insights of what happened last time and sure enough it will be a time of opening new territory and generally advancing your dear Libran self.

This is a birth point in your life so think in terms of a new baby who isn't quite ready to run yet as there are a few more processes to develop over the next 6 years before you get to reap what you are sowing this year. So you need lots of self-nurture over the next year to really start believing that you deserve the fabulous future opening now.

Jupiter is the guy who expands our possibilities and helps us grow in confidence and courage so we can strike forward beyond the past. You've just done a 'behind the scenes' year where your efforts to make things happen may have felt frustrating, but what's really been happening is a gestation period as you've allowed fresh dreams to grow.

So now it's time to go for it right through until October this year. Librans are the peace makers and diplomats and social advocates who strive to bring social justice and fairness for all. If you relate to this then you are inspired by the Goddess Athena as your muse and you'll fight for other people's rights and often find yourself saying "that's not fair"!

It is also the sign of all things beautiful as the Goddess Aphrodite inspires you to architecture and design and fashion and style. And then there's the business side of Libra as you folks are so good at sales and promotions of anything you are passionate about.

So whichever of these fields is your gig be aware you're on a roll in 2017!

Expect the Unexpected!

OK so you need to know about a wildcard element that also features large in your story right from early January, and his name is Uranus. His keywords are freedom and liberation and innovation and change. His line-up with Jupiter this year will create the dynamic disruption of the old systems on our planets, which is why so many are a tad nervous right now!

But this will only affect us personally if we are stuck or rigid in any way, or in need of a 'zap' to help us free up areas of our life where we have become too crystalized. After all that's how life works. We activate the new, then we build structures and outcomes, then we need to free them up so we can invite the new and start the cycle again!

So in your life process Uranus is in your relationship sector so goodie you're set to revolutionize how you do them, and any old unconscious patterns you're still playing that keep you co-dependant or out of your power. This won't be a problem if your current partners are already cool about you doing your own thing and being free to be who you really are.

But it may be a problem if you're still doing the 'please them – put up with them – be resentful of them' thing. Your urge for freedom can be pretty intense as the year goes by up to October so it's a great idea to simply say "YES I'm ready to be more independent AND have healthy supportive relationships".

Learning to say NO is an obvious call here! Yes you like people to be happy and are very accommodating of other people's needs. You're really good at this, but when this tendency is 'dis-functional' it creates passive rage when they don't value you or take you for granted.

No more!! Learning to speak up and assert yourself for your needs and goals is the big evolutionary upgrade now. This may be a bit of a shock to folks who are used to you complying without question so just explain why and what you're practising and they'll be fine. Gulp.

So this is where Uranus comes in as he is firing up your individuation process. He's not a subtle guy and is famous for upsetting existing situations so we can bring in the new ingredients he's offering us. So in your case yes again its relationships and this is very exciting! You want to be around stimulating interesting types who think and act right outside the norm!

So put a big welcome sign up on your chest to invite them in so they can bring the innovative mojo you need to drive your goals to fruition. With your new found confidence being such a magnetic force you'll be very attractive so no surprise when fab new partners make their appearance.

Uranus' favourite saying is 'expect the unexpected'! So stay loose with plans as you adapt to the unstable energies flying around with a clear intention that you're ready for change...without chaos!

The Power of Your Mind

'The Lord of Structure & Form' is Saturn who has been travelling through your 'mind & mouth' sector since Jan 2015 and you're now in the home stretch as he leaves by the end of 2017. His process offers you a marvellous opportunity to refine both of these strategic bits of who you are!

You must learn some cool new tools for understanding how to use the power of your mind & mouth to create your reality. Start with giving up old negative self-talk and repetitive unhelpful thoughts & words...I mean it's obvious that if we say the word 'worry' a lot we're going to be anxious...right?

Next comes using our mind to receive insights via our imagination and visualizing our goals every day, and only using positive words about ourselves and others. It's easy really...it just takes daily 'mindfulness' for life changing outcomes.

You may also have been in a study phase in either a school setting or through self- learning so just one more year and this big 29 year phase of mental and knowledge upgrade will be complete. The other connection here involves using Saturn to create important social network connections that bring you rad new ideas and solutions to support your growth.

Some great news here as Saturn now gets some positive support from change agent Uranus this year allowing easy supportive change to finally resolve areas where you may have felt stuck or frustrated. You can expect these shifts from early January, then late May and finally November.

So if you have been working to develop a new bizz idea or been toiling away at a writing project or creating new networks, pay day and forward motion is on the way around these dates...yay!

In terms of your old unconscious patterns you'll be very aware of your 'inner critic' doing overtime in the past few years as Saturn brings up our fears of being not good enough or 'this is never going to happen'.

Needless to say you must have a word with this stern inner voice and tell him/her to give it up as you are actually fabulous and ready to manifest your goals with ease and support!

Your local neighbourhood also comes into focus during this period so welcome the opportunity to get involved in community activities where you can help make a difference.

Pluto Transformation

If you are born between 10th-11th October it is now your turn to pass through the 'zap zone' of transformer Pluto. Now his ain't the easiest of energies to manage as his evolutionary process requires that we release old unconscious limiting emotional patterns, and in some cases people.

This is a death/rebirth process that will transform your life so you can move ahead from here in your true power. Lots of old stored feelings can pop up on this one so you can let go of them. This is an empty the old glass of toxic stuff so you can begin to fill the glass with nice fresh water.

If you'd like some support on how this all works and cool tools and insights book a session as this is my special therapeutic territory.

Your ruling planet is Venus

...in her guise as “Aphrodite & Athena”. Keeping track of her movement through the signs over the year is very helpful to support knowing where to send your ‘desire nature’ so you can manifest growth in the affairs of the sign she is passing through!

Scorpio Principle Our power, ability to share resources, depth & intimacy

♏ Ruled By ♃ Pluto (and Mars)

Element is WATER Quality is FIXED

Symbol THE SCORPION & EAGLE

Physically Rules Large Intestine & Bowel, Reproductive organs,

Permission "It's safe for me to be powerful"

Power from Within

Greetings dear 'Eagle People' as you step into the 2017 evolutionary upgrade! Your Scorpio essence is all about power. You guys are 'the transformers' of the Zodiac whose job it is to regenerate and empower the world, and never has your purpose been greater than now!

There's quite the gathering of planetary influences at work in 2017 as we face the prospect of changes unlike any in modern history...yep no kidding! And it's interesting when we look at where your planets are placed as your contribution to this isn't necessarily about bells and whistles in the external world this year.

This is because your growth, at least up until October, comes from expansive Jupiter hanging out in your 12th house, which is about your psychological life and how this underpins how you actually create your reality. It's time for "inner transformation".

Jupiter's job is to open fresh territory so we can learn how to use it. He is the 'lucky' planet whose rays uplift us to new possibilities and ask us to seek and learn so we can expand our lives. So when he's in this house/sector you are called to expand your 'inner spaces' so this is great for studying psycho/emotional models and practices.

As you kids are the shamans and healers of the Zodiac this is actually fab stuff that falls right into your natural love and calling to mastery of how energy systems work. Yes I know you are not all called to 'healer transformation' vocations so I'll cover other options in a minute. But even if you are the financial Eagles who work with resource management it's still all about your innate intuitive knowing of timing and signals.

So here is the point as Jupiter's positive gift now is about developing your relationship to 'Intuition' and the wondrous realm of the mysteries that underpin the creative process of life. That's why you love research and 'the occult', which simply means the 'hidden knowledge'... and they hide it away because it is powerful!

So this is great timing to enrol in psyche study and intuition training, but not just the old models based on rats and stats and left brain empirical thinking. We are in a revolutionary time as we open new levels of our human potential way beyond that! We are now fusing, or synthesizing, left and right brain links that offer incredible options of mind and feeling power!

Make the most of this phase of quantum leaps of discovery about new energy systems both internally and in the world, as this holds the key to the future from here.

Jupiter can attract you to an important spiritual or mind/body teacher/s this year, so needless to say be alert to incoming synchronicity here. Jupiter in the 12th is said to attract ‘Divine Protection’ and connection to very high planes of energy.

So don’t be shocked if/when you start tuning in and channelling messages with the ‘other side’ or put your hands on someone and ‘feel’ where they are blocked. That’s why it’s great to do some major learning about this territory so you can also back it up with “Ah your liver is blocked so maybe you have some anger you need to process”. Get the idea? Also great to keep a journal this year so you can pick up your pen after you’ve tuned in and had a ‘download’.

Another gift from Jupiter passing through your ‘spiritual’ zone is real lessons around compassion. Compassion is not the same as sympathy and getting sucked into people’s need to be rescued. Indeed that’s when we end up becoming ‘their victim’, as our resentment rises when they keep expecting us to do it for them...lol.

So you are now to see where your own ‘victim’ positions are part of your script and give them up! Compassionate service is wonderful when we are clear about it, but not when it’s just coming from our own need to enmesh as co-dependant victims ourselves.

On that note it’s often the case that we do need to be there for someone who is ill or passing over in this cycle. This connects with the Scorpio feature of midwives and palliative carers as you are the ones who have the energy to support transitions...both on the way in...and the way out!

Re-birth Just Around the Corner

Jupiter in your 12th house is also a gestative phase so you can prepare for your new life re-birth on October 11th 2017 as Jupiter enters your sign for the first time in 12 years! From this point you’ll be out and about in ‘the world’ once more freshly empowered to step into a brand new life phase.

Confidence and optimism will infuse your purpose because you are finally able to be powerful from the deepest level of your being. I’ve often found Scorps are amazed when I tell them that their greatest power lives in their softness and capacity for deep insight and closeness with others.

Big Shifts in Your Daily Work

OK so now we need to add the next fab planet of the year to the story and he is Uranus ‘God of Liberation & Revolution’. His opposition to Jupiter in Libra from early January sets the stage for the totally unpredictable energies on the way in 2017.

He's been passing through your 'daily work and health' sector since 2011/2 so you're already familiar with his urge to re-invent this part of your world. But now as he lines up with Jupiter, as already outlined, we need to figure how you are meant to use this?

Well I'm getting that you're going to be able to send your powerful new intuitive insights and guidance straight over into how and where you can innovate and enliven your service path!

So if you aren't already aware that something needs to kick into new territory at work then you soon will, as this connection is active from early January, then again in early March and late September.

Sometimes it 'happens to us' as colleagues or situations suddenly morph and we're left to figure out what to do. So even if this happens remember it is actually your own psyche at work generating the conditions to make something shift.

Using this consciously means we need to say "yep I'm ready to innovate so being me the ingredients." Uranus is a technology guy so maybe you need to add something here. He's also a 'groups and teams' kind of guy so empowering your team with invitations to contribute is also wise so you can get the best out of their gifts and skills.

Scorpio is the sign of resourcefulness hence the love of re-cycling and making beautiful new things from old things. So a really powerful outcome for Scorpio when you no longer feel threatened by other people's power or believe they are trying to control you!

Then you can tap into other people's gifts with a win win philosophy as you get the best out of them and they get to grow and prosper too. Fabulous. Welcome to a little piece of enlightenment!

Re-formatting your Security

Meanwhile back to our old friend Saturn, always a major player in our growth cycles as he's the dude who helps us build form and substance around our endeavours. He's been in Sagittarius for the last two years, playing around in 'worth and value' zone...so we need to talk about money!

Traditionally Saturn here is considered a restrictive force purely in the sense that he makes us very pragmatic and brings reality checks as to how prosperous we believe we have the right to be. This process is meant to offer us a chance to re-fine and re-structure existing earning sources, clean up debt and live within our means.

This is actually a general call for our whole global financial system which is tenuous to say the least. The other feature is pragmatic investment of resources toward the development of your goals so if you need to invest in equipment then do so. The caution is not to buy into risky speculative get rich quick schemes...because you won't. So make like a clever eagle in the year ahead and you'll be sitting pretty!

He offers another major gift here so we may re-structure and re-program any old unconscious beliefs that are blocking your 'prosperity consciousness'. Who would you be if you were financially prosperous?

Or if you have already this sorted and you're very prosperous then what are you meant to do with your wealth? How do you use your resources to uplift and transform your world in some way?

Saturn in your money house can also be a 3 year period where you are consolidating toward successfully achieving your financial goals. As he now forms good connection with Uranus in 2017 they offer a release into success OR show you where you need to innovate or let go of an old investment or financial mindset so you can change it.

Your Ruling Planets are Pluto and Mars

...Lord of the Underworld. He is the planet of transformation, regeneration and birth /death and has a 246 year cycle around the Sun. He's been in Capricorn since 2008 and leaves in 2024.

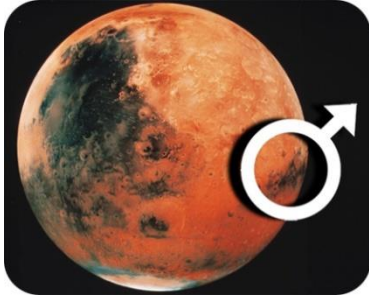

Pluto is the 'modern ruler' of Scorpio as he was only discovered in 1930 and after observing his cycle Astrologers decided his birth/death/transformational force sure did go with Scorpio.

But Pluto moves very slowly through the signs over his 240 year cycle. He only travels 2 degrees per year so not much action in that sense. He's been in Capricorn since 2008 breaking down and revealing the rot in the corporate and government systems that run our planet.

Bottom line here is your urge for expanding your power beyond past limitations so the powerful messages & knowledge you have to share are welcomed and received.

He only moves a few degrees each year and his main territory over recent years has been his square to revolutionary Uranus. This explains why we're in such crazy breakdown/through times! His main aspect in 2017 is:

Jupiter square Pluto - first time was Nov 16, the next is late March and August 2017. This combo challenges our ambition to be affective and powerful and offers achievement – also can arouse power plays with others who attempt to control or limit this so watch out for this.

And Mars

...who is the traditional ruler. He is the 'take action' guy who loves to be in fire and air signs and not such a mover and shaker when he's in earth and water signs.

It's great to know what sign he is activating during the year so you know how best to use your mojo with conscious intention, especially when you are not meant to do anything!!

- ♂ Jan 1st to 28th – Pisces - sensitive energy so don't be dismayed if you're not raring to go use your imagination and intuition to download insights and guidance
- ♂ Jan 29th to Mar 11th – Aries - beginning of action stations for your year! – initiate new projects be bold and daring to your heart's content
- ♂ Mar 12th to Apr 21st – Taurus – get practical and work steadily – deal with finances needed to mobilize projects & recognize your value
- ♂ Apr 22nd to June 3rd – Gemini – very active mentally & travel wise – networking and gathering knowledge & IT tools to grow your projects
- ♂ June 4th to July 19th – Cancer – invest in family time & deal with home maintenance – energize your "I am safe to succeed" core beliefs
- ♂ July 20th to Sept 4th – Leo – passion joy and fun time with friends & kids – very creative period & you may need to lead or activate others
- ♂ Sept 5th to Oct 21st – Virgo – deal with details and planning systems as precursor to PR action in Libra time – health checks & house clean ups
- ♂ Oct 22nd to Dec 8th – Libra – sales & marketing phase for projects – very sociable and personal and business partnerships on front burner
- ♂ Dec 9th to Dec 31st – Scorpio – time for intimacy & closeness with friends & lovers – great for researching & behind the scenes development of your power

Sagittarius Horoscope 2017

Sag Principle	Ideals & beliefs, quests, higher learning, teaching & writing
♈ Ruled By	♃ Jupiter
Element is FIRE	Quality is MUTABLE
Keyword	'I SEEK'
Symbol	THE ARCHER
Physically Rules	Liver, Hips & thighs

Results at Last!

Ahhh dear Archers I'm so happy to be report that after these past few years of commitment and dedication to your pursuing your goals the tide is finally about to turn! Yours is one of the signs who will be especially triggered with the awesome shifts on the way in 2017.

You may already be aware that hard working Saturn has been in your sign since early 2015 & I'm sure you've been feeling it! He's only here once every 28 years and this major life cycle helps us define and re-define who we are and where we're going next.

So only one more year kids and you're done with Saturn and he's here to take you to lofty heights in your chosen field if you're willing to do the work. Saturn in your sign offers you a major phase of evolution where you must grow up and stand up for what you really believe in.

He urges you to accept responsibility and apply yourself as never before to build your life and not blame anyone else for bits of us that aren't functional. Saggie's natural inclination is to wander the world in search of fabulous possibilities but not necessarily to apply yourself to anything for too long...not all of you but many of you!

His gift is the realization that you like 'making it' and being successful and taken seriously, and realizing outcomes from your goals and ambitions, and that the very freedom you seek lies in your commitment.

As you guys are the writers, journalists, teachers and philosophers of the Zodiac you've been laying foundations for this next phase in your life, where you are meant to step into your authority in your chosen field.

Ah must not forget to mention that Sag. also rules athletes and sporty archers so if you're one of these you've also been striving and training as never before!

We all know that knowledge is power and if you want to keep people under control then deprive them of a good education and limit their free media. This is what the old guard model has done in ever greater measure over the past few years, so Saturn says your job is to commit to your involvement in spreading healthy new ideas and information to enable the awakening and revolution of Uranus.

Sag. is also the sign of 'belief' thus religions and preaching fall into your domain. Saturn here has also amped up the holy war of our time as terrorism continues to be 'sponsored' by the powers that be, as a great excuse for the wars they love to have.

You are now called to really walk your talk as a tolerant dude/gal who honours all races and creeds and practices what you preach, and under no circumstances are you to ram your beliefs down anybody's throats.

Saturn will help you learn to speak when appropriate and only if you know what you're talking about, and to not promise more than you can deliver or do your pattern of 'all or nothing'...i.e. extremes! If you have any fears and insecurities about your 'right to be a visionary teacher' then it's time to re-program your old unconscious 'hard drive'.

Ah must not forget to mention that Sag. also rules athletes and sporty archers so if you're one of these you've also been striving and training as never before!

So the big breaks are on the way this year as your ruler Jupiter is ramped up to maximum strength by aspects to Saturn and freedom machine Uranus. More about Jupiter soon. For now let's talk about the Uranus factor and the theme is change and it's all good.

His connection with Saturn allows easy constructive change to unfold and the release of any old sticky stuff that's been holding you back in moving forward. So if you've been waiting for someone/thing to give you the nod on a job offer or house move or whatever has been delayed it could be as soon as early January for incoming news.

There's two more 'passes' of this contact in late May & November so you'll notice an easy gradual passage as the year unfolds between the past and the future, and be feeling more relaxed than in a while.

This is also big time creative juice that takes you to new levels of expression! As the story tellers of the Zodiac your own script is oh so essential as the stories we tell ourselves make our life happen. So if you're not happy with your current script write a new one in January!!

Uranus can also bring something rad into play way beyond expectations with sudden departures and arrivals in your passport or offers that appear 'lucky' but are actually the result of this past few years of hanging in there. Great stuff on offer here my friends.

Your Social World Takes Off

OK so here's the best news in your 2017 story in the form of expansive horizon widening Jupiter having a fine time in your 11th house of groups and society. This is a once in 12-year visit – the last one was 2005 so reflect on this for themes and insights for this time.

As he is your ruling planet his placement each year underpins where you're growing your life and he loves being in Libra! He can socialize to his heart's content, meeting splendid new people and being exposed to a whole uplift in his role in community.

Obviously this favours working in teams or groups toward a common goal perhaps in a teacher/mentor kind of role as you guys like to do this, or whatever the vision that motivates you is it's time to open up BIG time and get involved in the revolutionary shifts coming through.

As lucky Jupiter passes through this zone he now begins to connect with Uranus sitting opposite him in your 5th house of creativity and leadership. And Uranus 'rules' the zone where Jupiter is hanging out this is a double dose of the revolutionary impulse.

This happens from early January, then again in early March and for the last time in September, and brings zappy breakthroughs into new partnerships and situations involving some of the cool new people who are on the way...or maybe you already know them.

So the time is finally right to activate a series of innovations or launch your new life. You'll be amazed and delighted by generous offers of friendship and invitations to be part of 'humanitarian' projects or be attracted to a social cause where you can your skills to bring reform and improvement.

You won't be interested in the same old scenarios and people stuck in old paradigm scripts. In fact you'll be impatient with them and may find you need to let go of some people, which you will with good grace and best wishes!

The big word is 'sudden' so stay very fluid and open to all kinds of options as they present themselves as generally this phase and timing up until October 11th is ab fab!

Levelling Off Vibes by Later in 2017

As your ruler Jupiter changes sign into Scorpio on 11th October the mood and flavour of your growth shifts into much softer quieter mode as he heads into your 12th house for a year. This is the 'gestative' zone where you take stock of your life and prepare for a new 12-year cycle from late 2018.

As Jupiter's job is to open new territory and expand our life and he's in the zone of all things psychic and intuitive, it's a great investment to developing your relationship to 'Intuition' and the wondrous realm of the mysteries that underpin the creative process of life.

So this is great timing to enrol in psyche study and intuition training, but not just the old models based on rats and stats and left brain empirical thinking. We are in a revolutionary time as we open new levels of our human potential way beyond that!

Another gift from Jupiter passing through your 'spiritual' zone is real lessons around compassion. Compassion is not the same as sympathy and getting sucked into people's need to be rescued. Indeed that's when we end up becoming 'their victim', as our resentment rises when they keep expecting us to do it for them...lol.

Your Ruling Planet is Jupiter

...the King of The Gods! This big guy is also known as one of the Lords of Karma – the other being Saturn. Jupiter's vibration impels us to risk the safe and sound and he Heroic in our quest to keep growing and becoming more of who we are!

He has a 12 year cycle so spends 1 year in each sign and is currently in Libra from September 2016 until October 11th 2017. He then moves into Scorpio until November 2018. So he doesn't make lots of aspects in a year in the same way as Mercury and Venus and Mars. Let's check what they are in 2017.

Jupiter opposition Uranus - early Jan and early March and late September. This offers sudden unexpected opportunities and makes them BIG – also reflects a chaotic periods in the global story with people very polarized and holding extreme positions – stay out of conflict and strive to find harmony within conflict

Jupiter sextile Saturn - first time was late Dec and right through January and then late August and early September. This allows expansion and growth with care and deliberation and is a highly creative link between vision and reality.

Jupiter square Pluto - first time was Nov 16, the next is late March and August 2017. This combo challenges our ambition to be affective and powerful and offers achievement – also can arouse power plays with others who attempt to control or limit this so watch out for this.

Mars in Aries opposite Jupiter – 28th and 29th Feb. This can be very lucky but care needed to curb rash or impulsive actions that may arise from impatience with others.

Mars in Gemini trine Jupiter - 13th & 14th May. High energy for words and ideas and networking with others – great for team building and travel

“The Times They Are A Changing”

Well well well things sure are hotting up on planet Earth aren't they? If you've been following my work or any socially aware commentators over recent years you're already aware that our political and bureaucratic systems have been melting down since 2008, as the urgent need for change and re-invention are bubbling up on so many levels.

This is because transformer Pluto has been in Capricorn forming major connection with revolutionary Uranus...the signature of the 2010s as the epic cycles of human culture take us from an old world view to a much more enlightened one!

As 2017 opens two brand new features are coming into play that contain very positive, albeit rather risky forces that will move this whole process along a great big notch, and offer you personally major advancements toward your big new life potential this year!

Great Career Growth in 2017

OK so one of these fabulous 'features' comes from expansive Jupiter, now in residence in your 10th house of brilliant career and social standing. He's the big guy with the 12-year cycle so think back to 2005 to see what happened then for clues as to what he's offering now, and it will have launched a new career phase then...and is again now!

He charged into the sign of Libra back in September 2016 and remains here until October 11th this year. This is why your world work always involves 'people' in some form as Libra is the sign of 'socialization' in its many forms.

So no surprise if you find yourself in high octane social mode as 2017 opens with all kinds of strange surprises and genius rapport contributing to your feeling of being much more positive and in expectation of 2017 being a whole lot more interesting than in ages.

Jupiter offers a number of options for career and professional advancement. Generally you'll be very keen to move ahead in your chosen field or in some cases ready to make some big decisions to re-orient into a new vocation if you're not thrilled with where you are at.

If you've been building your business or profession over the past several years then Jupiter will bring recognition and outcomes and as he likes to do things BIG then you have the opportunity to really reap what you have sewn. If you're moving on to new fields then obviously this is not the case, but still brings a sense of positive choices to build upon.

Either way you must strive to expand and enliven your situation and bring fresh meaning and purpose to your endeavours. This is such a great phase for really getting in touch with what you do and why you do it so ponder this as the year opens and write the answer to these questions.

There's a fab model that says we must know WHY we want to act and once we know this we can define HOW to create the plans we need to do this.

Jupiter is also an international kind of dude and loves to travel and expand his horizons both internally and externally. We'll get to the 'internal' tuff shortly.

The important message here is that you're set to open new options in your professional world and they can be lots of fun with lots of travelling or connecting with international peeps to help grow your life. Love and partners now come onto the front burner as you are set to enrich your relationships beyond belief. Or draw in a whole new love interest!

One thing is for sure you're going to be busy!

Sometimes Jupiter here can have you on a learning curve to gather new knowledge to support your growth, and sometimes it is actually you in teacher mode as you train others to take on tasks, and this then alleviates your need to keep everything under control.

So how good are you at delegation? Do you trust others to get it right and be in their power? Ummm. Give this some thought and if the answer is no then you need to step out of 'nobody ever gets it right' beliefs and relax and get patient so you can allow people to shine.

OK so just a word of caution for Jupiter energies here, as he can incline you to take on big projects and tasks and end up promising more than you can deliver so keep things real and manageable. Another risk is becoming a 'bit too big for your boots' and alienating the very people you need to help support your growth...but you won't do this right?

Changes on the Home Front

The other 'feature' previously mentioned comes from the innovative and electric charge of Uranus. He is the guy now coming into play as he opposes Jupiter during 2017, setting the stage for the weird and unexpected shifts and changes on the way.

He's been in your home and family sector since 2011, and as he connects with Jupiter this year you're set for significant adjustments and in some cases a brand new phase at home. This comes into effect from early January, the next time in early March and finally in late September.

He's the 'expect the unexpected' character who sometimes brings a touch of chaos or disruption as his means of getting us moving, so the message is you need to stay loose and not attached to plans as sure as eggs these will change.

Options here include family members flying the coop or being ready to be released so they can individuate and start taking responsibility for themselves. Obviously this means you may need to let go of any over-protective features in your own nature. Yes you can!

Meanwhile Behind the Scenes

Your ruling planet is dear old 'Saturn the Lord of Karma and Time' which makes sense of why you do take life/things rather seriously! He has the 28 year major life cycle that underpins the steady development of aspects of our nature as he passes through the 12 signs and houses of our chart.

He has been in the sign of Sagittarius since 2015 and this is a very interesting zone for you as it resides in your 12th House of inner psychic spaces and your spiritual life. Thus on one level your journey over the past few years has taken you 'off the boil' from major worldly outcomes so you can enter into communion with your psyche and intuition.

As a practical soul you may think this sounds a bit airy fairy but believe me it is not. Without a proper relationship with our intuitive guidance systems, meditative practices and mind management we are not a whole person. So make like a guru and start reading up on 'energy psychology' so you can empower yourself through greater self-awareness and mindfulness.

Learn how to master your mind and anxieties and generally become a calmer more useful goat to yourself and others. This phase is also for receiving inspiration so you can gestate and prepare for the major life re-launch that comes in when Saturn enters your sign in 2018.

This is actually very exciting when you realize that you are building inner resources to ultimately empower your life. As you link your practical mind with your intuitive mind you step into the creative zone where you're empowered to achieve the balance or synthesis that is the goal of the new consciousness. You could call this an artistic/spiritual renaissance!

We create our reality from the inside out. If we don't know how to connect to our Higher Self intuition then how can we access our guidance for direction and ideas for future progress? And then how can we use our inner visualization tools to create images to manifest this? And then how can we use our inner psychic power to attract the people and ingredients we need to bring this all into manifestation?

OK so there's the formula! So you only have one more year to go with Saturn here so you can learn how to get really powerful from the inside out...make the best of it.

More About Uranus and Freedom

Another fab connection this year also involves this revolutionary ingredient known as Uranus. From early January he moves into a positive harmonious connection with your boy Saturn in their 45 year cycle.

This is why we need to know that despite the anxiety and fear playing out for many people about these maverick ingredients right now, the big unfolding changes this year will actually come about with a positive sense of “Ah at last it’s time for new stuff”.

Saturn = structures. Uranus = innovation. So when they come together in a supportive ease connection we have the potential for meaningful constructive change. This is your mantra for 2017!! So this connection for you creates freedom from the past and all the ways you limited yourself in your psyche/beliefs.

Their timings also provide some easy shifts between the past and the future so stay in your centre as you ‘know’ that the ingredients you need to attract are on the way. Dates here are from early January, then next in late May and finally in November. So many significant shifts will have occurred by the time you reach the end of 2017!

Never has the time been more ripe for you to give up your old belief that “Life is hard”! Your 2017 mantra is “it’s so easy for me to manifest the reality that I deserve”!

Your Evolutionary Process

A totally massive feature of these evolutionary times is the process we must pass through to allow us to get in touch with and then release any old toxic feelings and stored emotions. This has been happening big time since 2008 when transformer Pluto entered Capricorn...your opposite sign. The process has two wonderful outcomes.

By allowing ourselves to trust our ‘feeling body’ so we can use our intuitive feelings powerfully AND believing that it is OK to have needs and learn how to meet them for ourselves, we become ‘emotionally safe’ and can step into our power!!

So you Goat kids have been doing this since 2008 depending on your birthday!

Those born 21st and 22nd and 23rd June in 2008/9

Those born 25th and 26th and 27th in 2010/11

Those born 28th and 29th and 30th June in 2012/3

Those born 1st and 2nd and 3rd July in 2013/14

Those born 4th and 5th and 6th July in 2014/15

Those born 7th and 8th and 9th July in 2016/7

Those born 10th and 11th and 12th July 2017/8

So if you're born 10th and 11th July it is now your turn to pass through the 'zap zone' of transformer Pluto as you pass through your death/re-birth journey to transform your life and take you to a higher level of your conscious power.

Now this ain't the easiest of energies to manage as all kinds of old stored feelings can pop up on this one so you can let go of them...this allows you to empty the old glass of toxic stuff so you can begin to fill the glass with nice fresh water. This big evolutionary process require that we release old unconscious limiting emotional patterns, and in some cases people.

Your Ruling Planet is Saturn

...Lord of Time. He is 'the ring pass not' that keeps us limited by our fears and insecurities. Once we confront our fears he becomes our best friend, as we begin to use his diligence and commitment as essential qualities so we can express our highest purpose!

He has a 28/29 year cycle around the Sun so spends around 3 years in each sign – allowing for retrogrades. He has been in Sagittarius since 2015 and will enter Capricorn in December 2017. This will take his role into a new 28 year phase to re-structure corporate and political governance on our planet.

So he doesn't make lots of aspects in a year in the same way as Mercury and Venus and Mars. Let's check what they are in 2017.

Saturn sextile Jupiter - first time was late Dec and right through January and then late August and early September. This allows expansion and growth with care and deliberation & is a highly creative link between vision and reality.

Saturn trine Uranus - first time also late Dec and early January, then late May and finally in November. This supports constructive change linking the past and future – building form around your innovations with ease.

Aquarius Horoscope 2017

Aqua Principle	Connection to humanity/society, change & re-invention
♆ Ruled By	♆ Uranus (and Saturn)
Element is AIR	Quality is FIXED
Keyword	'I UNDERSTAND'
Symbol	THE WATER BEARER (waters of Knowledge)
Physically Rules	Electrical nervous system, ankles
Permission	"I belong in society which welcomes my inventive ideas"

Your Exciting 2017!

Being an 'Aqua person' is probably one of the toughest gigs of them all in the Zodiac system, as you go about the business of being generally strange in terms of status quo normal, and have this annoying habit of breaking the rules and daring to be different. Ha!

You are the visionary 'seed planters' who dare to be ahead of your time with your clever eclectic minds that apprehend and deliver the ideas and inventions that bring progress to our world. So yep most of the time they 'don' get you' and reject you and generally treat you like a weirdo!

The thing is that eventually your crazy ideas and progressive social conscience actually start catching on! As the old rigid structures of our world are now cracking open we are witnessing and experiencing a kind of 'global awakening' as squillions of people are finally catching on that something's gotta give!

So my friends at last you are finally cool...lol. After what can feel like it's been a long time coming I have the wonderful news that 2017 finally offers splendid cosmic bolts that trigger your awesome potential to be a true mover and shaker in these unfolding revolutionary times!

Expanding Horizons

There's such an amazing alignment of planets kicking in to your world as January opens, so let's start with the big news that Jupiter...planet of luck and opportunity is now in your 9th house of all things fabulous to do with travel and publishing and teaching and questing for truth.

He only comes to visit every 12 years. He arrived in September 2016 and exits October 11th 2017. Last time he was here was 2005 so this would also have been an adventurous year with some or all of the above featuring.

Jupiter's heroic impulse drives us forward into new territory so be aware that you'll need to let go of existing structures...or at least radically change them...to do this. Despite what they say about Aqua loving change and invention and all that stuff, these potential radical departures from old scripts can be a tad uncomfortable!

You see Aquarius is ruled by Uranus hence the sparky clever inventive bit AND also ruled by Saturn (traditionally) so you actually like order and structure in your lives. You spend lots of energy creating safety so big shifts are just as edgy for you as they are for a Capricorn!

So it's good to say your New Year mantras lots over the first few months "It's safe for me to let go and fly in new directions" & "I am ready to be truly free". Or anything else that springs to mind and feels good for you!

OK back to the exciting stuff as Jupiter launches you out into the world to pursue and develop your networks both internally and externally. He loves being in the 9th house as he gets to travel to distant shores and hang out with inspiring people and ideas as he 'disseminates' knowledge and cutting edge info.

So now replace 'he' with 'you'! Make sure passports are up to date as you're either, off and about teaching yourself, or zapping off to groups and trainings to up-skill your knowledge. The general call here is that you are ready to expand your whole perspective of what your life can look like and step up to a whole new dimension of possibilities. Yay!

Even if you aren't physically jetting off to foreign lands you'll still be expanding your exposure to international connections both personally and in business, as you are hungry to get involved in big picture action beyond your old models.

Nothing is co-incidence right? So isn't it amazing that as you are the people who invent and plant 'dangerous ideas', you now have the planets in place at the perfect moment in time to spread them far and wide! It's time for your visionary concepts to find their audience.

This is the year for publishing your work or using communications media at a whole new level. This can be tricky as the temptation with Jupiter is to try to make things too big or take on too much, so be selective and stay in alignment with your values when choosing options and accepting invitations.

Another little word of caution involves Jupiter and his big mouth! Yep you have messages to share but must avoid being pushy or overwhelming in your quest to share them. You are also meant to be reviewing your own 'beliefs' to make sure they really reflect your ability to be the 'detached observer' you are meant to be. No knee jerk emotional reactions for you!

Jupiter & Uranus Line Up

So all this exciting horizon expanding mojo is also augmented big time as your ruler Uranus lines up with Jupiter three times this year. This provides the major impulse for 2017 that will launch our world beyond the old limited 3D reality program that runs our world.

So in your world this activates all the previously mentioned Jupiter territory with sudden bursts of action starting right through January & February and early March, and for the last time in late September and October. Uranus brings technology upgrades and opens new portals to tap into the realm of 'inventive mind', and you'll be amazed at the unexpected people and network connections that start coming on-line. Marvellous!

He also does throw up a bit of chaos along the way as this is one of his favourite means of getting us to step beyond our comfort zone. He loves surprises.

Finding Your Tribe

One of the strange features for Aqua is that you are meant to be 'group conscious' but often have lots of trouble finding your group...or being very good at playing in them. Perhaps this is because you are such an independent thinker and lone wolf.

So it's pretty significant that Saturn in Sagittarius has been helping you work this out over the past 2 years as he's been in your 11th house of 'groups and community'. His 28 year cycle underpins our major structural growth so wherever he's active we are developing that territory.

He's the Karmic Lord who confronts us with our fears and limitations so we may transcend them and achieve true liberation, and learn how to use his masterful essence to build meaningful structures...in this case how you realistically fit into society.

You're favourite limiting pattern is 'fear of rejection' right? The great lesson for Aqua is to just keep being the agent provocateur regardless of whether they reject you or not! Easy! Once you get this it becomes easier to not let the hurtful feelings wound and stop you from being who you are.

It's time to take responsibility for your role in society as a serious player in group dynamics by stepping into your power at a very practical level. Your energy can magnetize people to work together for the revolutionary changes currently unfolding as you teach and lead groups for the awakening into new levels of conscious energy manifestation!

You'll also be attracted to join progressive socially conscious groups to offer your time and energy. You guys need a cause and as you relate to the 'social outcast' archetype you're naturally going to relate to refugees and orphans and rejected people of our world. How can you do your bit this year whether it be large or small?

Your 2017 mantra is "I am free to be an individual and belong in the world."

SO you just have one more year to go with Saturn doing his thing to help you develop all of the above and then he moves into Capricorn in December.

Before then he makes a great aspect with Uranus that allow easy changes and shifts! You'll be able to work and focus toward new goals with a sense that you're really starting to break through from the past but without having to play out old rejection tapes! This begins from early January, then again in late May and for the last time in November. Great stuff.

Your Ruling Planets are Uranus

Uranus is the modern ruler as his discovery in 1781 coincided with the French and American revolutions and the birth of the technological age. He has an 84 year cycle and spends 7 years in each sign. He's been in Aries since 2011 and during 2017 connects with both Jupiter and Saturn.

and Saturn

Saturn is the traditional 'Lord' from ancient times. ...Lord of Time. He is 'the ring pass not' that keeps us limited by our fears and insecurities. Once we confront our fears he becomes our best friend, as we begin to use his diligence and commitment as essential qualities so we can express our highest purpose!

He has a 28/29 year cycle around the Sun so spends around 3 years in each sign – allowing for retrogrades. He has been in Sagittarius since 2015 and will enter Capricorn in December 2017. This will take his role into a new 28 year phase to re-structure corporate and political governance on our planet.

So he doesn't make lots of aspects in a year in the same way as Mercury and Venus and Mars. Let's check what they are in 2017.

Saturn sextile Jupiter - first time was late Dec and right through January and then late August and early September. This allows expansion and growth with care and deliberation & is a highly creative link between vision and reality.

Saturn trine Uranus - first time also late Dec and early January, then late May and finally in November. This supports constructive change linking the past and future – building form around your innovations with ease.

Pisces Horoscope 2017

Pisces Principle Psycho/Spiritual Self, intuition & imagination, compassion

☿ Ruled By ♆ Neptune

Element is WATER Quality is MUTABLE

Keyword '1 UNDERSTAND'

Symbol THE FISH

Physically Rules Auto immune & Lymphatic Systems, The Feet

Permission "I trust my Soul to guide me"

From Confusion to Clarity!

2016 will be remembered by many as a very confusing and frustrating period in time, as the collective vibration was charged with the urge for change but without a clear focus and direction for this. Are you relating? And as a fish person you are very sensitive to the unspoken energies aren't you?

So now that the change button has finally been pressed we are set for some pretty incredible shifts this year to take the freedom liberation process forward on planet earth. OK so how does all of this play out in your world and how can you put your heart and mind in the right place to get the best out of the fantabulous energies on the way?

As the year opens with Mars in your sign sitting exactly on your ruler Neptune you'll be feeling a charge of fresh inspiration and excitement with plenty of energy at your disposal.

This is great for building your confidence and feeling that yes indeed you're ready to get clear about what's next in your life. And what's next are some big breakthroughs!

Expanding Your Power Base

Apart from the fact that 2017 is 'all about Jupiter in Libra' he's also a big player in your unfolding story as he is one of your ruling planets. Jupiter is the 'lucky planet' whose job it is to open and expand our horizons as he moves through each sign over his 12-year cycle.

So as he now amps up your 8th house of 'hidden & shared resources' you are set for major opportunities both financially and spiritually. This is a money house – not necessarily how you earn it but how you invest and use it.

Traditionally Jupiter in this sector can bring legacies and inheritances, and/or we may invite investment from and with a new partner to contribute to our goals and dreams. This is great timing for seeking loans, but he can also make us a bit spendthrift and you may be tempted to over-extend yourself so take it easy with any get right schemes!

But the more significant goodies on offer here involves the growth of your power! The 'hidden resources' are to be found in your increasing understanding of how your beliefs about how 'secure' you really are have direct outcomes in your ability to feel safe.

This is not about external security and the things you own but is about your deep sense of feeling connected to your essence and your connection to faith and trust...which is after all the whole point of the Pisces evolutionary journey!

So this is a great phase for studying occult and metaphysical subjects to enrich your understanding of mind/body connection and how our beliefs create our reality. Jupiter's gift here offers deep and lasting healing so you can step out into the world again after October 11th as an empowered fish!

Jupiter here is also fab for attracting 'other people's resources' be these intellectual or all kinds of ways that we can join with others for skills we may need and sharing resources. As Libra is writ large here partnerships are a big feature, so apart from new professional colleagues this is also a yummy phase for intimacy with lovers and deepening close bonds.

Financial Innovations

The other big player this year is change agent Uranus as aligns with Jupiter to expand the freedom impulse for change and re-invention.

So as he is travelling through your other money house...how you earn it...get set for some radical reforms here. He and Jupiter line up from early January pretty well right through to March, and for the last time in September.

Uranus brings sudden lightning bolts of insight or info that free up existing conditions, but the caution here is that he can suddenly take something away if our higher self has decided we really don't need it or to bring us a lesson.

Bottom line is the innovation he offers is about freeing up any old self-worth patterns that have been blocking your 'prosperity consciousness'. So it's time to really value yourself and if you're not charging enough for your goods and services it's time to start doing so!

Also want to mention another freedom option here involving you being ready to completely give up any old 'victim consciousness' you're still dragging around with you. Be this either your need to help fix rescue and save others or any tendency to expect others to do this for you.

Yes you are the compassionate carers of our world and it's wonderful when it's part of your job description for the truly sick and needy. But not cool when you're still playing out needy helpless co-dependant stuff in your personal relationships!

Career Outcomes at Last!

Well you've been in hard work mode in your brilliant career area over the past two years haven't you? You can thank Saturn for this as he is the dude who brings the reality check that we must strive and apply ourselves to our ambitions and goals to really achieve anything.

He's the lad with the 28-year cycle and as he's now at 'the top' of the mountain (or the mid heaven of your chart) you are at a threshold between the past and the future. On the one hand you will reap what you have sown over the past 14 years so this is an achievement period, whilst it is also a 'crisis of re-orientation' as you must also start dreaming up your future.

Saturn in your career zone will certainly help you to achieve authority and results if you're willing to practice a bit of good old fashioned commitment and a bit of hard work!

By the way he hasn't been in Sagittarius and this area of your life since 1986/7/8 so if you were out and about back then hark back to your memories of how your career options changed then for clues.

Fishy careers usually involve Sagittarian options woven in with your natural artistic and mystical tendencies. So you love to teach and share knowledge and often enjoy spending time with Gurus and spiritual masters as you seek enlightenment and understanding.

So without buying into the Guru thing perhaps it's time for you to recognize that even though we are always students, it may be time to own and step into your teacher role? You are the kids who intuitively tap into the 'zeitgeist' to bring in the collective themes of the spirit of the times.

This is why photography and the film and visual arts industries are the domain of Pisces. What messages do you have to share? So after the past few years of hard work necessary to manifest your dreams and goals I have some great news!

Saturn now receives a fab connection from Uranus this year and this opens amazing prospects and/or allows the new changes to arise with great ease and cohesion. Dates here are from early January, then again in late May and for the last time in November.

The sense here is of the energies that have been blocked like water behind a dam now start spilling over the top easily and comfortably. Yes there may be some moments on the way in 2017 that require some actual dam blasting if we aren't in touch with the need for change, but if you're cool and open to your growth then it's on the way...without chaos!

Adventurous Times

On October 11th your mate Jupiter heads into Scorpio for a year as he leaps into your 9th house of all things fabulous like travel and questing and freedom to explore new horizons. So this is something to look forward to my friends as it takes you into even greater levels of your expansive future!

Your Ruling Planets are Neptune

God of the Sea. He governs and all things hidden & invisible - like our intuition and imagination. He inspires our innate urge to transcend our lower nature and enter the ecstatic 'unified field' where there is no separation.

He has a 164 year cycle around the Sun and has been in Pisces since 2012 and leaves in 2026. He only covers a few degrees each year so doesn't make or receive many triggers from other planets in a year. During 2016 he was opposed by Jupiter in Virgo, expanding our practical spiritual growth and revealing new levels of understanding mind/body health.

And Jupiter

...the King of The Gods! This big guy is also known as one of the Lords of Karma – the other being Saturn. Jupiter's vibration impels us to risk the safe and sound and he Heroic in our quest to keep growing and becoming more of who we are!

He has a 12 year cycle so spends 1 year in each sign and is currently in Libra from September 2016 until October 11th 2017. He then moves into Scorpio until November 2018. So he doesn't make lots of aspects in a year in the same way as Mercury and Venus and Mars. Let's check what they are in 2017.

Jupiter opposition Uranus - early Jan and early March and late September. This offers sudden unexpected opportunities and makes them BIG – also reflects a chaotic periods in the global story with people very polarized and holding extreme positions – stay out of conflict and strive to find harmony within conflict

Jupiter sextile Saturn - first time was late Dec and right through January and then late August and early September. This allows expansion and growth with care and deliberation and is a highly creative link between vision and reality.

Jupiter square Pluto - first time was Nov 16, the next is late March and August 2017. This combo challenges our ambition to be affective and powerful and offers achievement – also can arouse power plays with others who attempt to control or limit this so watch out for this.

A General Note to all re Mercury Retrograde Periods 2017 – put them in your diary!

Mercury retrogrades (apparently goes backward) three times each year. As this is the planet whose magnetisms affect all forms of communication and our thought processes these periods are when IT and gizmos don't work properly and messages/mail gets lost...you get the idea. So don't buy new appliances, be aware that travel plans may change, avoid signing contracts etc. as details are often incorrect. Mind you some folks don't experience these problems because of their horoscope makeup, so check your chart with a good Astrologer to work with planning your year on all levels...saves so much time and mess! So book a session or ring me 61 755 945959

2017 Mercury retro periods are in earth signs until December highlighting opportunities to re-do, re-evaluate, re-organize your goals and responsibilities (Capricorn), values & finances (Taurus), and plans and organizational systems (Virgo). Mercury retro then shifts into Air signs in December & for 2018.

- Capricorn Dec 19th 2016 to Jan 8th but not till 28th Jan for full steam ahead
- Taurus April 8th to May 3rd but not till 22nd May for full steam ahead
- Virgo Aug 12th to Sept 5th but not till 20th Sept for full steam ahead
- Sagittarius Dec 3rd to Dec 23rd but not till Jan 11th 2018 for full steam ahead

Here's astrologer Ray Merriman www.mmacycles.com "In 2016 & 2017, Mercury retrogrades are in the 3 earth signs. Earth is practical. Earth has respect for tradition, for precedence as to what worked before. Earth tries to build consensus and cooperation, as if part of a team. It does not just talk about the importance of teamwork. It actually engages in building teams of people who cooperate with one another and achieve goals that have been clearly defined. The question to ask ourselves is "What will work?" "How can we really get things done?"

As Mercury then starts transitioning into Fire signs from December 2017 and throughout 2018 the focus shifts to the creative force and aspiration to act upon ideas and information.

I extend my warmest good wishes to you all for a fabulous 2017 no matter what your 'belief system', as we know that we are all 'one' in the community of humanity and ultimately we all laugh & cry and love our kids and want the world to be a peaceful co-operative place!

Thanks a million to all my faithful friends and clients and students who have been part of my own journey through my monthly newsletters, seminars and personal sessions.

I would not bother keepin on keepin on if it wasn't for your messages of thanks and support as I am just a little lady doing my small part to help awaken us to the marvellous opportunity for evolution currently unfolding.

There are some marvellous energies on the way for substantive growth and innovation this year so make the most of them!

Blessings to you all.

Our Spiritual Revolution

Spiritual teachings from many cultures tell us we are passing through an “Initiation” toward a higher level of our human potential. The concept of an ‘end of times scenario’ where ‘the forces of darkness do battle with the forces of light’ is also a theme in epoch shifting times. This does not have to be literal but rather a metaphor for the passing of a great 26,000 year cycle as old forms become extinct and new ones arise, and we transition from a dark age to the enlightenment of a global shift in perception.

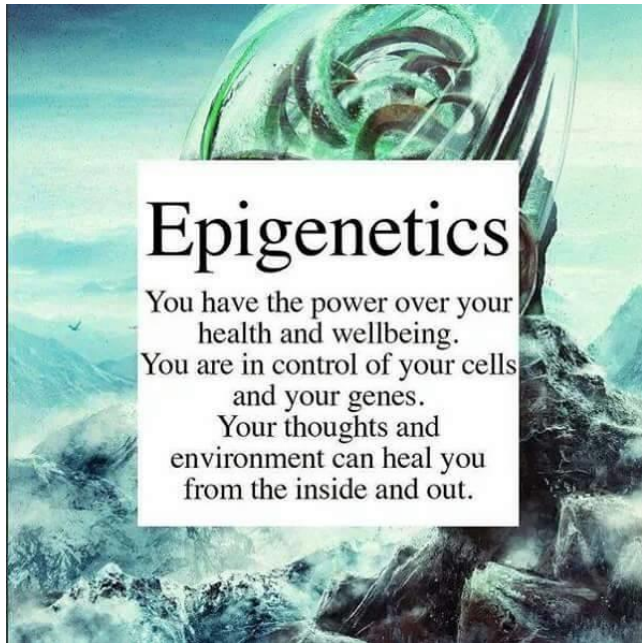

Thus the ‘shift in consciousness’ of our times requires that we completely change the old world view that was based on scarcity, separation and wanton material consumption. As soon as we embrace this our lives begin to step into a whole new magical potential.

It is no longer ok to be driven by the instinctual urge for survival, with greed and complete disregard for the natural world that is our ‘mother’ source. We live in a ‘unified field’ where all the kingdoms of nature are intricately interwoven in an etheric web and our own rational brain is unified with our intuitive nature. Ancient and tribal people knew this. The re-awakening of this reality in the western mindset is an essential feature of our current era, and will be more important than Galileo’s revelation that the Sun is the centre of our solar system and Columbus sailing west and not falling off the edge of the world.

Life is not linear...it is circular, and driven by interweaving cycles of creation! For the first time, an entire planet is shifting it's vibration into a new dimensional frequency. We are re-programming our DNA sequence as we access levels of energy systems beyond 3D reality. Some call this ‘ascension’ as we can now step up into new levels of energy systems in our mind/heart that liberate us beyond fear and insecurity. Many souls or groups of souls have experienced a shift like this in the past, but never has an entire planet shifted at once.

This shift in consciousness has demanded from us that we release old limiting fears and insecurities. Many of us carrying the seeds of change have been working our way through these insecurities over recent years, as we also manage the general repressive feature of the current system that says NO to conscious change.

Well the news is that the old system no longer has the power they used to. Everything is energy right? So when enough people combine their conscious energy the 'critical mass' begins to swing the pendulum in the opposite direction...it's just physics. And this is what's happening as multi-millions of us are now thinking and acting the new philosophy of sustainability & conscious co-operation.

Freedom, invention, liberation & change are the keynote of these years as we transition into a future where we must convert unsustainable, destructive systems to sustainable and regenerative ones. After what has felt like a harsh and grinding couple of years the brilliant news for 2017 is that the tide is starting to turn at last!

It's time to give up trudging the path and start sprinting my friends. It's time for dreams to come true as we learn to master and practice the tools for a conscious life by uniting our hearts and minds to create our lives. This is the gift on offer in the midst of the chaos & confusion that always accompanies the death of old systems my friends.

I am hearing news of so many people moving into new life phases as we head into 2017, which is totally in alignment with the new ONE year and Year of The Rooster. As you read on I will explain why this year ahead is so significant in terms of big energy shifts that will step us all up another big notch in our personal and global spiritual revolution.

Viva La Revolución my friends!!

Reviewing 2016

I'm including my post from 2016 report here as it covers the main territory quite well. As you read this be aware it was written in late 2015 and as you review your observations of what actually did unfold in 2016 I think you'll agree some of the main ideas have indeed come to pass!

January 2016 opens with the final connection between 'transformer Pluto' and 'revolutionary Uranus', the underpinning 'driver' of the past 5 years, containing the breaking down the of old systems and awakening us to the reality that we must re-invent our world...on every level.

It has been a bizarre period full of extremes as radical new technology ushers in a bio-molecular world of designer babies, underwater greenhouses, robotics, sustainable energy systems, the cashless society, and scientific proof that our heart/mind does indeed create reality through the power of our thoughts and beliefs.

Extremes too in weather & natural disasters as our solar system is impacted by alterations in our Sun's magnetisms as the result of the galactic alignment of the 26,000 year cycle currently underway. When you add the reality of the wanton overuse of fossil fuels & destruction of habitat, it feels like the 'perfect storm', which at least in terms of what we can control, has finally resulted in the ground breaking agreements just achieved at the Paris Climate talks. These must now be translated into practical outcomes, even as the old fossil fuel multinationals continue to resist the shift to sustainable energy.

Then there's the predatory capitalism agendas creating the extreme 'super-rich' bubble in the midst of truly staggering levels of global debt, currently 5 times higher than at the GFC of 2008. And it is all 'legal' in a government/industrial system that feeds and rewards profit at any cost, at the expense of human & earth rights.

These same governments have now created the 'surveillance state' under the auspices of the war on terror, which they created in the first place. And when we resist or speak out about these true crimes against humanity we may be prosecuted for telling the truth! Sounds awfully like the lead up to the French and American revolutions yes? Well Uranus & Pluto were doing their thing then also!

It is now time for people in rich developed countries to realize the 'normal' lifestyle of overconsumption has to change. We must stop the constant greed and materialism for the sake of all living beings. In other words, growth isn't an option any more – we've already grown too much. Scientists are now telling us that we're blowing past planetary boundaries at breakneck speed. And the hard truth is that this global crisis is due almost entirely to overconsumption in rich countries through exploitation of poor ones.

Then we have the rise of China onto the global stage as its economy surpasses the US, and it joins the BRICS nations to trade in currencies other than US$. China & India have been buying lots of gold in recent years and as many commentators have speculated that the western banking cartels can no longer sustain the false reality of economic recovery, 2016 will continue the increase in 'depressions' hitting many global economies.

The oil & commodities booms are over and we are already seeing wobbles in the bond/equities markets as global stock markets ride unprecedented highs based on goodness only knows what. Yep it's all a huge and complex mess based on lies and deceit. But for how much longer?

Well this is where the next pair of planetary dudes comes into play during 2016...Saturn & Neptune, and their message brings home the matter of TRUTH & BELIEF. 'Practical Saturn' square 'idealistic Neptune' becomes a central theme for 2016. December 2015 brought us the first of 3 passes of this challenging point in their 36 year cycle, with two more to come in June & September 2016. This is another fascinating cycle that began in 1989 when they met in the sign of Capricorn to begin their new cycle together, which completes in 2025.

Briefly this is the socio/economic cycle containing the ideologies & beliefs that drive our society. It is now at its $\frac{3}{4}$ point bringing maximum stress as the process of 'converting ideals into practice' or 'preventing ideals from becoming reality' is played out. As the Berlin Wall came down in 1989 a new era was born with the rise of a major new phase in capitalist globalization and the communist systems in Russia & China also morphed into new phases. The thing is that if the old 'enemy' of USSR was no longer a threat then the west needed a new enemy to keep the war machine rolling along, and our new era of terrorism was born...more details further on in this article.

So I'm christening 2016 'The Year of the Whistle blower'! The question we should all be asking ourselves is why is it that brave people who have done this over recent years are called criminals, whilst the governments & corporates that create & practice the corruption and misuse of money & resources are never brought to account?

Right now I'm loving how the film industry (Neptune) is releasing cool movies exposing lies & cover ups in a way no-one in authority (Saturn) is willing to do. The movie 'Truth' brings us the story of a cover up & misinformation re good old George Bush, and 'The Big Short' highlights the dark underbelly of the banking System. Yes we can expect lots of whistles to blow and movies to show the true nature of the way things currently work on our planet...yay!

As Saturn continues his progress through Sagittarius until late 2017 we are confronted by the extreme polarization between the major religious & political systems that are driving the conflict and suffering in our world. Why is it that the ideal of a loving tolerant God (Neptune) that inspired the various religions has been so hard to bring to reality (Saturn)?

As we are now completing the 2000 year Age of Pisces (Neptune) it's time to resolve this polarization, into the unified spirituality that transcends separate versions of God. Saturn in Sagittarius is a major ingredient in this process, & once again the film 'Belief' by Oprah Winfrey offers us the synchronicity of individuals expressing the Zeitgeist or spirit of the times.

Jupiter in Virgo since Sept 15 through to Sept 16 brings us wonderful practical developments to grow our lives and major expansion in food/diet & health industries. In terms of TRUTH & BELIEF it's time to expose the agendas of big agri & pharma versus natural sustainable food & health practices. Time also to start spreading the word that we are what we think & eat and even though this is so obvious and totally practical this knowledge is also considered revolutionary... go figure!

Jupiter heads into Libra in September 16 bringing great new partnership options and a PR marketing phase for the practical goodies we are working on until then.

As I now reflect on this overview and look back over 2016 I'm aware just what a tough year it turned out to be on so many levels. The hard aspects between all those planets sure delivered great tension with major health issues (Jupiter in Virgo) for many, and the major disillusionment and confusion as Saturn squared Neptune.

So many of us faced our 'own little Waterloos' as we individually and collectively completed the NINE year cycle! I am much more excited about the year ahead as we step into the new ONE vibration and get set to launch a brand new phase in human and planetary affairs.

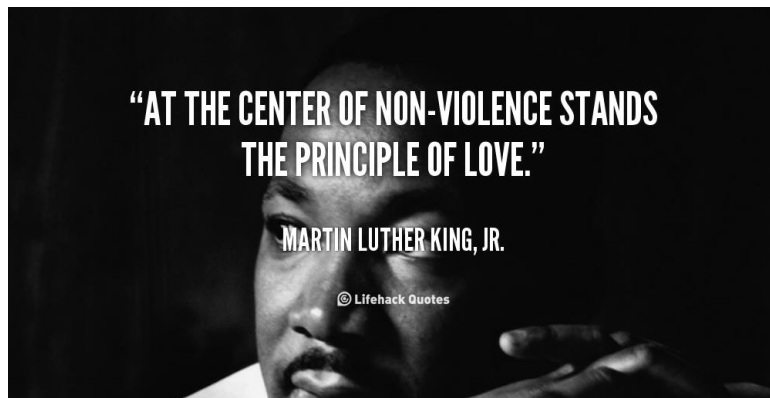

2017 Overview

So as we head into 2017 we need to remember that over the past 5 years we have been engaged in the battle between the past and the future. The deepest urge in our collective evolution has been arising as the forces of the 'dark state' have been having a grand time playing with our minds and hearts, as they seek to continue the soulless game of material mastery...at the expense of...well everything.

The awakening of the masses to 'the dark agenda' has now taken root in the individuals who comprise our humanity and they are starting to vote for change, with first Brexit and now Trump. And by the way did I mention that revolutions are messy?

The increasing variety of injustices and outrageous options for crisis are now at peak expression as we head into 2017. Fear and uncertainty are the usual expression of those who've been seduced by the masters that run the show, and right now we have it in bucket loads!

It's complicated. There are so many forces at peak expression now so please know that my small effort to make sense of them is just that, and I always attempt to not take sides. My politics is PEACE. My job as an astrologer is to simply observe the forces of the planets and their cyclic dance underpinning human progress. The biggest idea that captured my attention 45 years ago was the ideal of PEACE being the goal of the shift between the Ages of Pisces and Aquarius, and that to achieve this we must CHANGE the paradigm that is ruled by war.

Historically wars have been fought over 'religious beliefs' and who has the power over resources. Funny how they have such a knack of ending up enmeshed isn't it? So make no mistake my friends as we are in the midst of a war between the best & highest qualities of humanity and the worst.

The key to personal power right now is in our individual consciousness that has stepped beyond the 'old order' and uses our heart and mind to create the tolerance and acceptance to move beyond polarization...both inside and outside.

This then becomes a key theme of the year ahead as we step into a new ONE year to open a brand new phase in human affairs. Very exciting!!! I have been rattling on about revolutionary change for the past 5 annual reports and I can't tell you how wonderful it is to finally have some action! So we need to become wise owls now as we view the players in the unfolding reality TV show on the way. Always remember it's just a game and our power lies in not buying into being a winner or a loser! Our power lies in using our personal consciousness to contribute to the massive shift in consciousness from conflict and fear, to trust and co-operation.

- Anti-Hero
 - A non-hero, given the vocation of failure, frequently humorous
 - Example: Homer Simpson
- Defiant Anti-Hero
 - Opposer of society's definition of heroism/goodness
 - Example: Heart of Darkness

http://trumpem.com/eng/te/subscribe.com/te/ta/img/ste/43/36/0000-03436_2000100191317.jpg

Historically certain characters step onto the global stage in response to the arising forces for evolution and change. We call them 'archetypal' as they are timeless and familiar. Maverick rule breakers are an obvious choice for the revolutionary archetype...ah yes get where I am going?

So we need to see Mr Trump in this light so we can create space to allow the unfolding drama to do its' thing over the coming year, but always with an intention that something good can come from this, even though it appears to be not what you had in mind. And please excuse my humour here but the Homer Donald connection has been going around and I couldn't resist this when I found Homer as an archetype of The Anti-Hero!!!

The highest goal of the new consciousness is OBJECTIVITY so we can use our emotional energy for positive creative growth. We must not get caught up in the 'emotion of it all' or we get sucked in to the vortex and play out our patterns of fear and insecurity. I am very heartened in recent months as I learn of so many more every day folks who are stepping up in this way as they become aware of the MAYA or illusion of the prevailing conditioning.

I am working with some very cool and interesting and powerful people in my daily practice, so I have firsthand feedback that LOTS of intelligent people are on to it! People who are willing to move beyond their own security fears as they join the quiet inner revolution that uses our hearts and minds and mouths to activate the changes we need so urgently to create a peaceful world.

On that note I'm including this statement from Wes Clark Jr., the son of retired U.S. Army general and former supreme commander at NATO Wesley Clark Sr., who was part of a group of veterans at Standing Rock who joined Native American tribal elders in a ceremony celebrating the Dakota Access Pipeline easement denial.

"Many of us, me particularly, are from the units that have hurt you over the many years. We came. We fought you. We took your land. We signed treaties that we broke. We stole minerals from your sacred hills. We blasted the faces of our presidents onto your sacred mountain. When we took still more land and then we took your children and then we tried to make your language and we tried to eliminate your language that God gave you, and the Creator gave you. We didn't respect you, we polluted your Earth, we've hurt you in so many ways but we've come to say that we are sorry. We are at your service and we beg for your forgiveness." Wesley Clark Jr.

This epitomizes the best of what the 2017 energies offer us and here's to many more 'peace offerings' in the spirit of reconciliation as the year unfolds.

So please spread the word to friends & family to join "The World Healing Meditation" at midnight on Dec 31st as MILLIONS of us unite hearts & minds to focus our loving intention toward a safe and sustainable transition into the NEW ONE YEAR that is 2017. May the light of consciousness guide us as we pass through the unfolding revolution from the past toward a peaceful co-operative future!

And let's keep this going each morning at 8am in our local time zone to keep this powerful intention increasing day by day as the year progresses! This is the essence of UNITY CONSCIOUSNESS as our many minds create a power zone for PEACE.

2017 is going to be amazing! There is a fresh and audacious wind blowing away the cobwebs of the past taking us in new directions, so make sure you leave your negativity behind and get clear about how you can use these fabulous startling new ingredients to create the life you want.

This is an adventurous questing year that will offer awesome and unexpected shifts & re-directions. It is a year of 'dangerous ideas' that upset the status quo, and as revolutionary Uranus is the main mover & shaker we have absolutely no idea how things will play out!

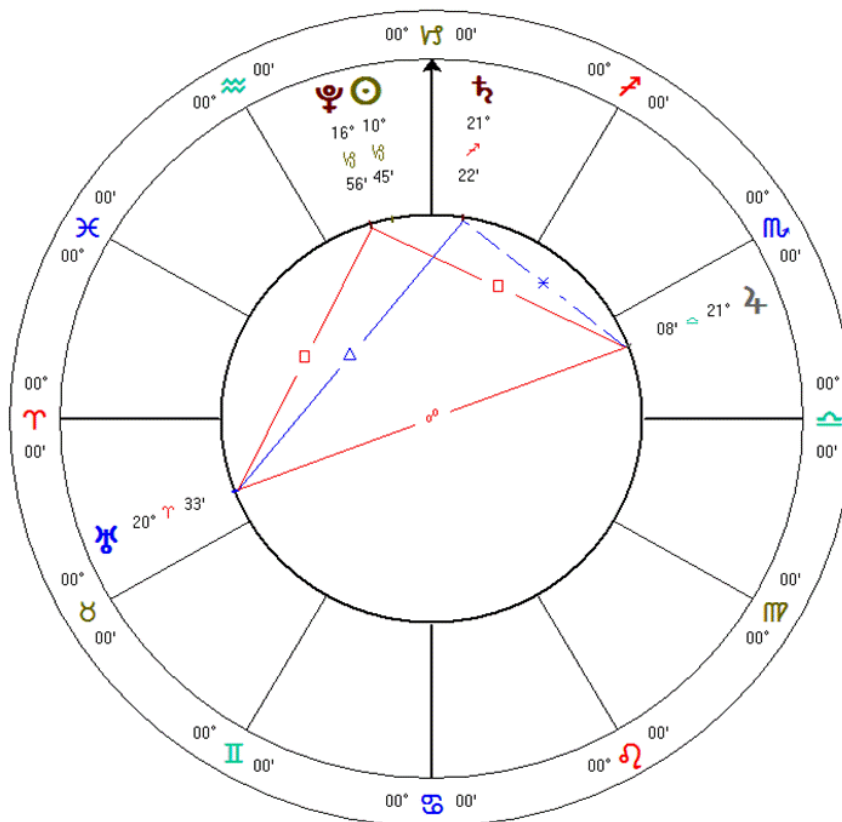

What we can do is say YES to innovation and sustainable progress and NO to conflict and confusion so we can add our little drop of consciousness into the collective Soul as a positive agent for change!

Your 2017 mantra is "I now expand and innovate my life with steady intention and actions".

Set your intentions for 2017 on Jan 1st – close your eyes & tune in to your Soul & 'receive' your inspirations/ideas/goals/dreams. Draw circles on a piece of paper and write each idea/dream in one of these 'thought form bubbles'. Visualize them regularly over the weeks/ months to empower them and magnetize the things/people/resources you need to create the outcomes.

The Gods of Change in 2017 – The Jupiter/Uranus/Saturn team

The cycles of evolution are driven by the dynamic interplay of the cosmic ordering system...the cycles of the stars and planets! The principle of all cycles contains the birth of a new impulse, which then develops and expresses its function, then dies so the next cycle can be born...and so on...ad infinitum. So let's have a look at what these cycles have been up to lately and the strategic importance of what promises to be a watershed moment in the evolutionary revolution of our times during 2017.

The main players this year are the Karmic Lords Saturn & Jupiter, and their big daddy sky god Uranus. And let's not forget the ongoing influence of Pluto continuing to underpin the unfolding 2017 story. As the year opens they are in a rare exact connection in their signs.

Here we see them as Jupiter in Libra on the right - opposite Uranus in Aries on the left. Look up to Saturn in Sagittarius in the top right sector.

Pluto in Capricorn is next to the Sun at the top of the 2017 chart. So this Jupiter/Uranus/Saturn/Pluto combo becomes the 'signature' influence during 2017 as they weave backwards and forwards forming connection right through until October when Jupiter moves into Scorpio.

- Jupiter is the planet of expansion and growth and has a 12-year cycle. His job is to open new territory and in Libra this involves personal & collective partnerships. He brings things to 'extremes' and heightens the Libran activity. I've included my in depth Jupiter article on Page 105 as there is heaps of fascinating territory that will come into play during the year ahead.

- Saturn is the planet of restriction and re-ordering with a 28/9 year cycle. He's been in Sagittarius since Dec 2014 & now moves forward to join Jupiter & Uranus at the same degree (21degs) also in January. Associations here to media & publishing industries, religion & belief, tourism & travel, international affairs, knowledge & education, and personally to our core beliefs and ideals. The highest attributes of Sagittarius are 'enlightened wisdom' and 'temperance'. Full details on Page
- Uranus has an 84 year cycle and his job is to revolutionize and free up existing conditions, which he has indeed been doing since 2011 when he entered Aries. Over this past 5 years he's been in challenging contact with transformational Pluto in Capricorn, bringing about the breakdown of our old global systems. (Full details on Page)
- Pluto has a 246 year cycle and his job is to break down and regenerate existing 'big picture' global conditions, which he has also been doing since he entered Capricorn in 2008.
- Jupiter made his first opposition to Uranus on December 23rd 2016 and this is the connection that takes us into 2017; they oppose again in late Feb/early March; and for the last time in late Sept 17. Big changes in personal & political alliances from this one as well as the sudden urge to expand and break free into new territory.
- Jupiter made his first square to Pluto on Nov 16 with more passes to come in late March & August 17. Their cycle began in Dec 2007 and was a major factor in the 2008 GFC. So we can expect more challenging plutocratic & economic activity in 2017 with the themes of power, money and resources. Personally we can set big goals.
- Saturn trines Uranus 3 times in their 45 year cycle that began in 1989 offering a supportive structure to underpin the big changes on the way, along with the 'dissemination' or spread of the new era innovations & technologies. This also takes the 'people power' movement into greater expression internationally.
- Saturn passes over the Galactic Center @ 27 degrees Sagittarius – in March & April and late November anchoring the awakening process toward the new vision of The Age of Aquarius that was triggered on 21.12.12 as the 26,000 year Mayan Calendar ticked over.
- We also have Venus retrograde starting March 4th until April 16th Venus retrograde occurs every 19 months. However, every fifth time – or every 8 years – it occurs in the same section of the zodiac. This last happened 8 years ago on 6th March 2009. This one happens at 13° Aries so we are impelled to examine what are the values (Venus) that underpin our motivation (Aries).

The combo of these influences now bring us the full expression for the 'social revolution' that began in 2011 when Uranus & Jupiter were in Aries...the beginning of a new 84 year cycle.

The last time Jupiter and Uranus met in was in 1927, a massive industrial growth phase, and the last time Jupiter opposed Uranus was in 1934 in the midst of the great depression as Nazi Germany was on the rise. SO you see these are pretty significant forces!!

Interesting history here, as the Roosevelt Administration created The "New Deal" (1934) to deal with the banking crises through the Emergency Banking Act (1933). The Federal Emergency Relief Administration provided $500 million ($9.16 billion today) for relief operations by states and cities to operate make-work projects in 1933–34.

Meanwhile Nazism and other Fascist movements were gaining power in Europe. So this history is very relevant in light of massive spending plans by the new Trump Admin AND the fact that our current global surveillance controls are indeed a form of fascist intrusion on personal privacy.

ANARCHISM: The philosophy of a new social order based on liberty unrestricted by man-made law; the theory that all forms of government rest on violence, and are therefore wrong and harmful, as well as unnecessary.

Emma Goldman

QuoteAddicts

On the up-side we have the real possibility of a whole new awakened humanity taking back control of our governments and industry, as we demand the dis-mantling of the system that has brought our world to its financial and environmental knees!

The downside potential contains a period of anarchy, with lots of uncertainty and totally unexpected ups and downs between highly polarized groups as the 'battle' between the past and the future comes onto front stage.

How Trump will perform falls into the uncertainty department, and it's indeed a sad state when the power of US policy still has such influence over global matters. On the one hand I'm amazed at the audacity of the man to come up against the global elite bankers/industry system as a one man show...and pull it off! On the other hand I'm concerned that he actually has the vision and true egalitarian intention to create a template for true and lasting healthy change. This is a classic example of the polarization between the 2 sides-2positions that many of us find ourselves playing out as the year opens!

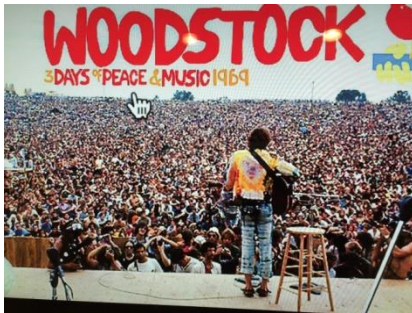

The urge for major change is huge for many of us as we know we need to re-invent and innovate to move forward in our lives (Uranus), and we may have a number of possibilities brewing for this (Jupiter). This can feel like a see saw ride as we examine our options and build the courage to let go of the past and move forward (Jupiter opposite Uranus).

Jupiter/Uranus combos bring us the archetype of the heroic explorer who bravely goes where no wo/man has gone before, so this is highly exciting stuff...but a tad unstable as we don't have a map!! We are in uncharted territory in every sense of the word my friends as the possibility of radical departure from the broken systems of the past must be managed with our calm certainty that our spiritual practices will keep us steady, and with our own ability to nurture our own fears and insecurities!

This is where our own conscious intention holds the key to navigating our way through this fabulous uncertain period by using Jupiter's positive optimistic mindset! When we add clever inventive Uranus PLUS our commitment to fresh purpose (Saturn in Sag) we have the formula for 2017 success. This is real 'step out of the box' stuff my friends as we dare to reach forward beyond our comfort zone, set BIG goals and believe we are in our power to achieve them!

So back to the possibilities for 2017 in terms of the global stage. We can expect much social unrest in many countries as these peak energies amplify the extreme issues coming to a head. And we can also expect massive new waves of people power arising to say NO to the old systems based on greed and corruption!

I am reminded of the amazing period of 1969 when Jupiter & Uranus met in Libra to trigger a massive social rebellion with the penultimate expression of the Woodstock Music Festival in August 1969. So I'm calling for a massive peace rally/music festival by the best and brightest in our current culture!! Where shall we have it and who wants to organize it?

But this period also brought us the Kent State Massacre in May 1970 by the National Guard of students protesting for peace, and the US invasion of Cambodia. This is why it's so important to aim our heart/mind at PEACE, so we may collectively limit violence and damage!!

So as January opens with the 'Year of the Rooster' announcing the dawn of a brand new era we have all the ingredients we need to launch our brand new life phase. Just be aware that Mercury is retrograde until after Jan 8th so ideally it's good to leave your own launch plans until after Jan 13th when the God of all things verbal and commercial steps into Capricorn. Indeed when Mercury connects with Uranus and Jupiter in early February all sorts of bells and whistles announce new beginnings.

Think in terms of the first 3 months of 2017 as major on many levels...both personally and collectively, as Jupiter/Uranus/Saturn/Pluto open the renaissance zone between the past and the future.

When we add activator Mars entering pioneering Aries also in late Jan right through Feb until March 10th the bells and whistles get louder! This is pioneering adventurous to the extreme, especially when Mars gets in on the act with Jupiter in early March. Once again I'm going to do my eternal optimist thing here and call for this period to offer the best of the progressive inventive new goodies, as Mars in Aries is notoriously aggressive and confrontational...but we're not going to do that are we? NO!!

The Jupiter/Uranus/Saturn mix is actually incredibly creative as we head into new directions with a view to the future. The old mantra “expect the unexpected” is writ big time in the story so this is not a period for rigid OTT positions or views. We are free to form fab new partnerships to grow our lives with WIN WIN outcomes on offer if we don't seek to control or limit others along the way.

As the collective urge for freedom is so intense you will find any old limiting relationships and situations will feel like dead wood, so if someone/thing is holding you back through guilt or obligation you'll be feeling it big time. Bless them and let them go if they really have outlived their purpose and gifts in your life. The caution is to make sure you don't throw out the baby with the bathwater or make knee jerk reactive decisions.

The other big word for Jupiter in Libra is compromise as we seek a fair deal for all and back down from extreme positions. I offer an in-depth rundown of the history of Jupiter in Libra and global alliances in the Jupiter section on Page 105 so for now just a brief mention that we are in for major re-alignments and treaties between countries & political systems & economic partners from Jan through Sept 2017. Thus there will be extreme reactions and frustration for many as they are up against governments changing their positions suddenly or unexpectedly and apparently without due diligence.

Saturn's positive connection with Jupiter offers major opportunities for your vision and commitment to manifest the 'big break' you may have been working toward for ages! Saturn offers a stabilizing force to counter the extremes of the other guys and helps us stay grounded and real. Remaining independent in the midst of opposing camps & extreme positions is wise!

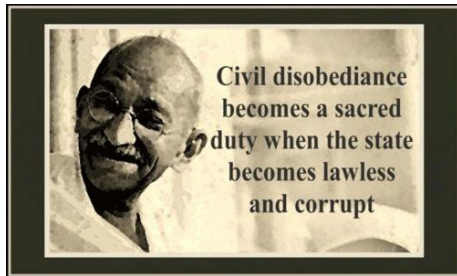

Remember the big theme of 2017 is political, financial, social and environmental activism.

2017 marks the final year of Uranus in fiery Aries, Saturn in fiery Sagittarius and Jupiter in airy Libra. By December Saturn moves into Capricorn, Jupiter into Scorpio and Uranus into Taurus in 2018. This new earth/water signature from 2018 is a very different vibe beyond the revolutionary awakening, toward the practical implementation of the new ideas and systems and technologies coming forward this year.

Thus it's totally appropriate for each of us to embrace our cause or whatever makes us angry about an injustice and get on with doing something about this PEACEFULLY. Whether your passion is animals, or food, or the land, or people's rights it's time to get off our proverbial arse and start making a difference!

I'm remembering a bit I wrote in 2012 that feels relevant now about "the American philosopher Henry Thoreau who went to jail for not paying his taxes even though he had been living quietly in the woods for years. He wrote a book "On the Duty of Civil Disobedience" and had several hundred copies made and these were stored in his attic until his death.

When his family found them after his death they gave them away. One of the recipients was Mahatma Gandhi when he was a lawyer in South Africa in the early part of the 20th Century. And in turn Martin Luther King was inspired by this book, which led to his populist movement for civil rights...also in the mid 1960's revolutionary phase.

The art of civil disobedience... peaceful resistance...this is the key to our current global impasse. It worked for Gandhi and his movement brought independence for India from Britain. It worked for King and his movement brought the beginnings of liberation for black America...with such profound metaphors for civil liberty in every aspect of humanity." MK Dec 2012

The key idea here is peaceful resistance in the face of injustice so there's plenty of territory for us in current time! How the new government in the USA with the massive polarized reaction, plus the ongoing unrest in Europe from so many seeking to dismantle the European Union will unfold, now remains to be seen!

And within all the fluff and noise our quest is to find everyday happiness!

So now let's examine the implications of these revolutionary forces in the main areas of global activity! Remembering that our highest goal in this process is HARMONY IN ACTION!

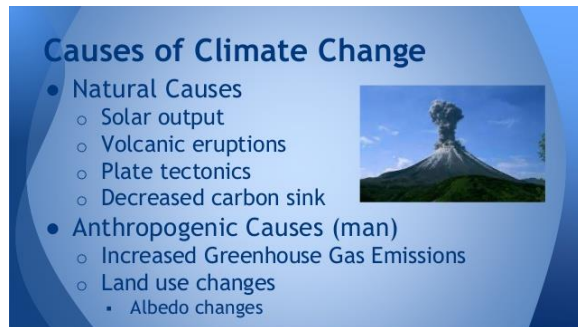

Earth Changes

The day Uranus entered Aries in March 2011 Japan experienced the earthquake and tsunami with on-going radiation from the Fukushima Nuclear plant still contaminating the Pacific Ocean. Uranus is known as "earth shaker" and we have countless examples of his shaking and volcanic (Pluto) activity over the past 6 years now. As Jupiter is famous for bringing things to extreme and making them BIG it will not be a surprise when and if we experience some major shaking in Jan, early March or September.

19 year Eclipse cycles also correlate with earth shifting action and we have these in Feb and August this year. As they are in Leo forming strong connection to Jupiter/Saturn/Uranus this adds to the likelihood of something pretty major on the way this year. I'm not trying to freak anyone out here...just doing my job reporting planetary cycles and historical precedents.

Regarding climate change generally I'm of the view that we currently have a convergence of man-made impacts AND long term cosmic cycles over these 'tipping point' years. The Sun continues to behave 'abnormally' which may have much to do with where we are travelling through space, so solar magnetism is having considerable effect on the planets and Earth. Thus increased storms are likely across the world as is the potential for volcanic eruption.

“Regardless of the debate raging as to whether climate change is the result of industrial activity over the past century, or if it is the result of natural long term weather cycles; the call is ‘Houston we have a problem’. Somewhere between five and ten thousand years ago the sea rose rapidly in response to the disappearance of global ice sheets. Then it slowed considerably.

Currently they estimate that the sea level is rising by as much as two mm per annum. The melting of mountain glaciers may account for some of the current rise in sea levels. The point is that the ‘naturally occurring large weather cycles’ believers are now beginning to actively debate the global warming models.” The 12 System Pg 141 by Me! 2011

There is concern that the new Trump administration will actively dismantle the hard won gains of recent years toward the reduction of toxins in our world, as he claims to be a non-believer in ‘climate change’. I truly hope that as his new team examine positive progressive options to re-start the US industrial machine he is smart enough to get that passive energy and food production technologies will create masses of jobs!

BTW I'm amazed by stats that say we could radically reduce CO2 in the atmosphere by massively reducing the number of animals we grow to eat! In our affluent western world we have such a huge range of meat products in our supermarkets...way too much.

Despite the incredible advances in healthy alternate power options now available the vested interests of the old oil/gas industry continue to lobby and ‘pay off’ political decisions in many nations including the USA and Australia.

There is currently massive public opposition in Oz to the 4B$ Adani Coal Mine here in the Galilee Basin Queensland with its massive environmental impact to ground water and the Great Barrier Reef, but our Govt is committing 1B$ of tax payers’ money to build them a rail line!!!

And of course we have the ‘Standing Rock’ Protests in the USA representing more than just a protest, but rather a symbol of people power resistance to the broken old models! So the question becomes WHEN will they ever give up? Is this the year when the tide will begin to turn as people start demanding sustainable industry?

The good news is we already have wonderful examples in Europe of fab alternate power & re-cycling systems as the public receives cash incentives to do this. I have a client who is head of a NFP Org here in Oz who is developing a public housing program using old containers, where the skills to fit them are taught to the disadvantaged and unemployed. He is in discussion with colleagues in India and Africa to implement this program to begin to use the 3Mill discarded containers globally!!!

Politics

Well things are very hot in politics as 2017 opens aren't they? It's now an open secret that our world is really run by 'the deep state' a group of politicians & corporations behind the public persona of democratically elected governments. This extract from Appendix at the end and I encourage you to read it!

“The Deep State, to be clear, describes the way the US government really works, rather than the way it's supposed to work. In the popular myth, we have a government that responds — clumsily but eventually — to the will of the people. It is supposed to be 'by, for, and of' the people. So we are tempted to believe that what it does is ultimately for our own good. We can trust it, in other words, to look out for us. We do not have to fear it. After all, as Hillary Clinton said, 'The government is all of us.'

But the Deep State is not all of us. It is only some of us. The Deep State is a curious group, comprised of foreign governments, billionaire political donors, lobbyists, international corporations, global organisations, and supra-government agencies. Together, they — along with domestic-favoured industries, the bureaucracy itself, special interests, and cronies of various stripes and persuasions — run the US government and control the police, the armed forces, the financial industry, the medical industry, the educational industry, and other major parts of the economy.”

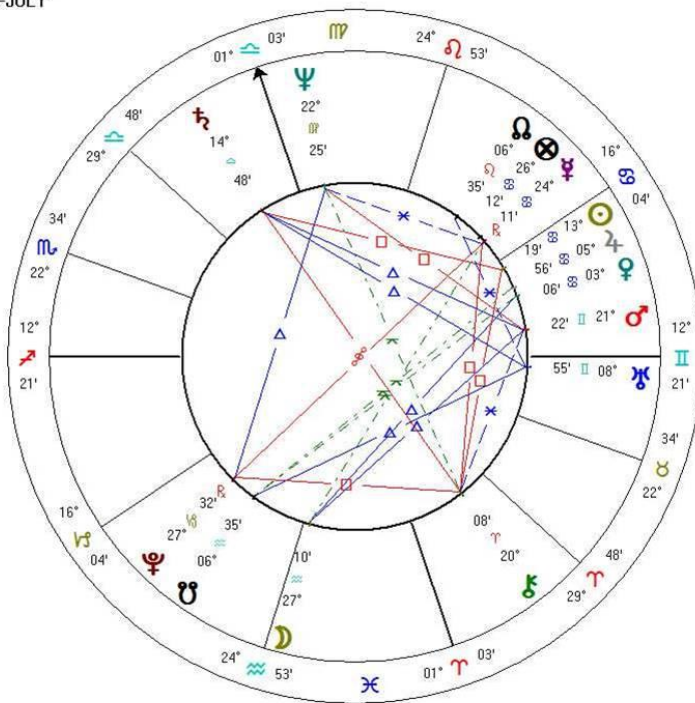

So is this what Trump decided to confront? Or is he a sheep in wolf’s clothing? Who knows? Right now I sure don’t but I’m open to miracles!! What I do know is that we are witnessing the beginning of the break-down of political systems that were designed hundreds of years ago with an enlightened ideal to create just and fair societies.

“There is increasingly little difference between major political parties these days. They are custodians of a system where bankrupt governments are depending on the central banks which exist to finance governments as a matter of last resort.

Besides, all incumbent and mainstream politicians have one thing in common: they seek power and self-preservation. That means defending the current monetary system, despite its obvious flaws and irreparability. It also explains the rise of fringe and radical political parties. Indeed history shows that we pass through organic phases in human society. We go from chaos to theocracy to aristocracy to democracy. Then, when republics begin to lose the plot and become imperial and tyrannous, we go right back to chaos and the wheel begins to roll over again. We are currently in this phase!” “The 12 System” Pg 138 by Me 2011

The Jupiter/Uranus/Saturn combo of forces is loaded with radical departure from existing systems, especially in countries with Horoscopes that are specifically activated by them...such as the USA!

On the right is Mars in red @ 21 degrees Gemini. This natal placement goes a long way to explaining why the US has played such an active role in global networks.

The connection with the Moon in Aquarius down on the bottom left reveals the ‘humanitarian ideals’ that drove the war of independence from Britain and underpinned the founding of the nation. It also reflects the US involvement and impact on global systems and networks.

Saturn in Sagittarius now opposes 'this Mars' from January and in comes Mr Trump, whose Sun in Gemini sits exactly on 'this Mars' – and whose Moon in Sagittarius sits exactly oppose 'this Mars'!

Now let's add Jupiter in Libra travelling through the top of the chart and triggering the USA natal Saturn in Libra. Yep Donald is in on this one too as he has Jupiter in Libra! So Jupiter in Libra also triggers 'this Mars' from January.

But there's more! Uranus in Aries also aspects 'this Mars' from January! So all three of the big players in the unfolding 'drama of it all' are activating 'this Mars'. And it sure looks like Trump is about to play the role of agent provocateur.

BTW this connection between Trump's chart and 'this Mars' was why I wasn't at all surprised when he won. As I write this we are days away from the Electoral College announcement to endorse his presidency, even though he didn't win the popular vote and rumours are flying about all sorts of things including "will he make it the White House or be assassinated before he gets there". This harks back to both JFK and Nixon who both ruffled the feathers of the global elite and were quickly dealt with. Wow it's all going on and I'm fascinated to see what's on the way!

We also see Trump's connection to 'this Mars' as his trigger happy fingers pumping out tweets that can impact the share price of major corporations within hours! So we have to hope that either he gets a whole lot wiser and more aware of his responsibility to unify with his words rather than inflame, or that his minders lock up his gold plated phone.

The logo for HEALING VOICES is displayed on a black rectangular background. The word "HEALING" is in white, and "VOICES" is in red.

So yes there are many angry words and reactions about to be unleashed in the USA. One of my clients on Colorado just yesterday shared that "lots of folks are scared, pissed & anxiety & PTSD is at its highest."

I know it's easy for me sitting over here in Oz at a safe distance saying 'hey everyone stay cool and don't buy into the rage'. But it is imperative that cool heads and the spirit of non-violence be the order of these times.

I've always seen 'this Mars' as an interesting contradiction in the US psyche, as it is a defence mechanism as much an assertive feature. Why else would the average American consider it totally normal and necessary to own a gun! 'This Mars' energy has been building up over many years now as the economic management in the USA had consistently eroded outcomes for the 99% masses, as the top end 1% have become massively wealthy. So is it Trump they are angry with or the old guard system that is so desperately in need of change?

“The Divided States of America” ran the headline of a recent Time Magazine and yes this sure echoes the split between Jupiter opposite Uranus as we step into 2017. So may we all use our conversations to encourage reconciliation and finding common ground, and use our voices to heal...wherever we live on this beautiful planet!

I can't resist a mention of the Trump/Putin connection. Vladimir Putin (7th Oct 1952 9.30am St Petersburg) has Sun & Saturn & Neptune & Mercury all in Libra and Mars in Sagittarius, all of which line up with 'this Mars' and Trump's Sun and Moon. So there is very good 'synastry' or connections between their charts. The western global elite media has been working hard to paint Putin as an evil agent for ages now, and indeed I'm not saying he's an angel of light, but I also get that they don't like him because he won't play the western cartel economic system game so they can't control him.

Whilst the standard of living has decreased in western countries Putin has actually created significant improvements & gains over a similar period. Anyway I have this fantasy that Trump will just hop on his plane and pop in to visit Putin without any permissions and State Dept. hoo-hah and just say "hey lets sort a few things out". Yep I'm dreaming but hey anything is possible this year right?

Anyway I'm going to buy out of this big can of worms now and simply say that as much as the 2017 planets are about to activate and expand us into a brand new phase, there is also a steadying influence from Saturn suggesting constructive change perhaps in ways that may surprise us!

I encourage you to see Trump as an activator disruptor energy to stir up the hornet's nest this year, with deeper changes coming into play from 2018 when the planetary signatures morph into a whole new setup with Saturn moving into Capricorn, and Uranus into Taurus, and Jupiter into Scorpio.

2020 is also a very significant year as Saturn & Pluto begin a new 36 year cycle in Capricorn (previous cycles are 1982 in Libra and 1947 in Leo). AND Jupiter & Saturn begin their new 20 year cycle in Aquarius. So really this next three years are the precursor to much larger events and re-structuring processes in the 2020s.

So even though Trump is going to upset the apple carts this year I don't see him as an enlightened leader with long term implications. I'm putting out that one or more new 'sparks' will also arise this year as true new visionary leaders who will step onto the global stage to represent and manifest the shifting world view beyond the greed and corruption of our current system toward our sustainable future.

Meanwhile in Europe and the rest of the world... the Jupiter/Uranus/Saturn energies will bring similar features into play as mounting civil unrest, and calls for more countries to leave the EU model. I've covered this in some depth in my full Jupiter in Libra article on Page 105.

The Global Economy

In a nutshell it is well and truly stuffed! Once again I have been on about this for years as I've observed the mounting debt reaching extraordinary levels to the point where our grandchildren will be paying it back!

The global banking system is very fragile right now as the secret derivatives debt that no-one ever mentions, plus the on-going bail outs of sovereign nations and their banks has reached epic proportions. Mind you they have set it up to simply create money digitally and print it so maybe they can just keep this going? There are several ideas here worthy of a mention.

Some observers think we are in for another big financial meltdown that will make the 2008 GFC look like a picnic. Will this be orchestrated by 'the deep state powers that be' to enable the implementation of the cashless society? Then they can blame Trump and boot him out and get back to business as usual!

Next is the rumour that a whole new model/system has been cooking behind the scenes to replace our current debt slavery model, and this will arise or be announced...magically ...sometime soon! Ummm we shall see.

Whatever the events of 2017 transpire to offer it will not be until 2018 that any significant reforms or new structures begin to arrive, as once again this is when Saturn in Capricorn, Uranus in Taurus and Jupiter in Scorpio open the territory for major economic reforms over the following 7 years as alternate options like Cryptocurrencies will come onto the scene.

Collectively the global political/economic chess game is morphing us into a whole new level between the old guard western financial petro dollar system and the emerging new alliances seeking to break the control of the US$ as the global reserve currency. This won't happen overnight but it will happen as the Chinese Yuan is now recognized in the basket of currencies and China further divests its US$ bonds.

A fascinating feature of this era is the new cold war between Russia (and the BRICS nations - Brazil, Russia, India, China, South Africa) and the western imperial banking mob. These countries are now trading in currencies other than the US$ with implications as to how much longer the US$ will remain the global reserve currency.

Meanwhile western governments have been passing new laws to allow banks to use personal savings for bailouts of the ‘banks that are too big to fail’ ...think Cypress 2 years ago. The really big question is: Is there a force in the world that is strong and powerful enough to check-mate and transcend the global domination agenda of the global banking cabal? Is Trump the Messiah?

Well he is already promising to stimulate the US economy to create jobs and infra-structure ...think 1934 and the ‘New Deal’. And he is already chatting to the Japanese firm ‘Softbank’ to invest $50B to this end and who knows who else he’s talking business with...after all he is a business man. Could this be a viable solution to invite corporate investment rather than rack up billions more in public debt? Once again we shall see...

Glass-Steagall Banking Reform Act, 1933*

- Created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)
- Insured individual deposits
- Practically eliminated bank failures
- Separated investment banking from commercial banking to stop use of depositors' funds for speculation

Trump has also expressed interest in re-instating the “Glass Steagall” policy that separates personal and global banking. The Glass-Steagall Act was passed by Congress in 1933 to prohibit commercial banks from engaging in the investment business. It was enacted as an emergency response to the failure of nearly 5,000 banks during the Great Depression. It was repealed in 1999 by the Clinton administration and since then we’ve seen the global debt system soar!

Trump has promised to ‘drain the swamp’ of the vested interests of corporate lobbyists who influence government policy and decisions. Well so far it looks like he’s adding a few more creatures to the swamp with postings of big hitters from ‘Big Oil’ and ‘climate deniers coming onto the team. The thing is that if he doesn’t actually come through with some ‘swamp draining’ I’m wondering how long it will be before he’s called to account?

Technology

I’ve already mentioned that the last time Jupiter in Libra opposed Uranus was in 1934, a period of rapid advances in technology and business innovation with the arrival of international air travel and massive building of rail and freeway systems.

So yes we are set for a massive new wave of technological inventions and innovations in 2017. The question we need to ask right now is how much technology is too much? As robots come onto the scene in ever greater diversity to do the jobs of people this gives rise to further economic stress as 'people' and their jobs become redundant. Indeed where technology takes us in the near future will be the fulfilment of many a sci-fi thriller! I cover this in some depth in my '12 System' book Page 132 "One 'futurist' who captured my imagination is Juan Enriquez who discusses the three areas of science that will synthesize in the coming decade; microbes, tissues and robots.¹

1. Microbes: We now have first fully programmable cell.
2. Tissue: We are now moving from bacterial to tissue engineering and no longer need the animal itself to re-generate thus we can re-grow teeth, ears, bladders, hearts etc. Stem cells have a natural 'intelligence' or consciousness to reorganize themselves. This technology is happening very quickly.
3. Robots: Machine generations have now brought us to a defining moment in robot technology.

There is anthropological evidence that there have been overlapping versions of Homo sapiens through the last several hundred thousand years, and Enriquez speculates that science will bring together these three different trends and create the evolution into the next generation of Homo sapiens. He calls it 'Homo Evolutis', a being who is capable of taking responsibility for the ongoing creation of the human species. So as we step through the 'shift' of this 26,000 year evolutionary leap are we indeed ready to create a new version of ourselves?

I've also been inspired in recent years by a very cool scientist by the name of Nassim Hamein and his "Resonance Science Foundation" He is a mathematician who has spent the last 25 years researching the fundamental geometry of the structure of space and time resulting in a new, comprehensive 'Unification Theory' with huge implications in a variety of fields including theoretical physics, cosmology, quantum mechanics, biology, chemistry, chemistry, and anthropology. He is the Newton of our time whose work promises to radically alter our disconnected world view and I'm looking forward to him stepping onto centre stage this year!!

Here's the link to his amazing new movie "The Connected Universe" I thoroughly recommend watching it for perception altering info and inspiration for the fab new world view on the way!

Tesla was a remarkable scientist who was a contemporary of Edison during the late 1800s. He was a true genius whose work with electricity actually gave birth to power & light as we now know and use it. He also declared that energy should be free as the source is limitless! This part of his work was repressed by General Electric and Westinghouse in those times and ever since as they couldn't make money from it!

¹ Juan Enriquez 'As the Future Catches You'—an analysis of the impact of genomics on business and society.

So here's to this material also finally coming onto the front burner during this remarkable year ahead. Here's a link to the Thrive Movement article on the subject of free energy solutions.

There are so many examples of fab new sustainable technologies revolutionizing our times and I've included some more links in the Appendix.

Our Personal Energy Systems

The other idea here that also involves energy is our personal use of our psychic energy for mind body and planetary healing. Here's some info from my 'Adventures in Consciousness' Program about Heart Intelligence. I will be releasing the AIC Program during 2017 so stay tuned!

- Historically the heart was regarded as a source of wisdom, spiritual insight, thought, and emotion. Intriguingly, scientific research over the past decades has begun to provide evidence that this is more than metaphorical. Science has had to revise and expand its understanding of the heart and the role of this amazing organ. They have discovered the heart possesses its own intrinsic nervous system—a network of nerves so sophisticated as to earn the description of a “heart brain.”
- Our heart has the ability to independently sense, process information, make decisions, and even to demonstrate a type of learning and memory. In essence, it appears that the heart is truly an intelligent system. Research has also revealed that the heart is a hormonal gland, manufacturing and secreting numerous hormones and neurotransmitters that profoundly affect brain and body function. Among the hormones the heart produces is oxytocin—well known as the “love” or “bonding hormone.” Science has only begun to understand the effects of the electromagnetic fields produced by the heart, but there is evidence that the information contained in the heart's powerful field may play a vital synchronizing role in the human body—and that it may affect others around us as well.
- The heart is a key component of the emotional system. Scientists now understand that the heart not only responds to emotion, but that the signals generated by its rhythmic activity actually play a major part in determining the quality of our emotional experience from moment to moment. These heart signals also profoundly impact perception and cognitive function by virtue of the heart's extensive communication network with the brain. Finally, rigorous electrophysiological studies conducted at the Institute of Heart-Math have even indicated that the heart appears to play a key role in intuition. It appears that the age-old associations of the heart with thought, feeling, and insight may indeed have a basis in science.

So LOVE is the key!!!

I'd also like to share a little formula that 'popped out' during a wonderful session with a student Martin Annette only a few days ago. He's a cool Naturopath & I think he may be a reincarnation of Paracelsus or some other amazing alchemist and we have the most wonderful conversations!

We were talking about the stress involved in holding steady in the 'transformational process' as we go through our 'personal alchemical firing' to refine the 'base substance of our lower nature' in our quest for 'alchemical gold'. We were also pondering how to create 'space' to live in the uncertainty as we seek to liberate and release ourselves into our highest potential.

I wonder if you may relate to this in light of the very testing 2016 we've just lived and the promise of the breakthroughs into the new phase of 2017.

So here is our "Alchemical Process of Liberation"

1. Sensing the need and the urge arising
2. Destruction and break-down of the old forms
3. Time in the 'wilderness' – 40 days and nights metaphor
4. Awaiting 'The Oracle' – inspiration
5. Confronting doubt of the "true Self" as temptation of the shadow-self wants to take the easy path.
6. Staying true to the Principle of Virtue and keeping constant orientation to goals
7. Standing on 'The Threshold' in union with our Soul
8. Birth of the new seed to build upon

Are you standing on the threshold?

In my daily counselling practice I find often people just need to be validated that their confusion or lack of direction isn't because they are 'not OK', but because we are not given general guidance in our daily material world about the deeper processes of life!

So a lot of my work is 'educational' as I teach my clients how to think 'metaphysically' (everything is energy) and make sense of their personal evolutionary journey toward their true and authentic Self. Once we understand that we are personally and collectively in a wondrous evolutionary phase right now, and then gather tools and models to support this process we begin to step into our power to be co-creators and begin to find the "Harmony in the Chaos" of these times! I send blessings and love to you all for your process!

Please read on for more info and insights for the 2017 ingredients.

The Chinese 2017

Red Fire Rooster Year

heralds the dawn of a new day!

In the Chinese zodiac 2017 is the year of the Rooster (Fire Rooster) starting from January 28, 2017 (called the Lunar Chinese New Year or Chinese Spring Festival) and lasting to February 15, 2018.

The Rooster is tenth in the Chinese zodiac. Rooster years include 1921, 1933, 1945, 1957, 1969, 1981, 1993, 2005, 2017, and 2029. Lucky Colours: gold, brown, yellow.

This coincides with our fresh ONE year in the numerology cycle for ONE to NINE...

Rooster people are very observant, hardworking, resourceful, courageous, talented, and very confident about themselves. They are always active, amusing and popular. They enjoy the spotlight and like to appear attractive and beautiful. Roosters are talkative, outspoken, frank, open, honest, and loyal individuals but sometimes don't know when to be silent or listen to others effectively.

The Year of the Rooster will be a powerful one, with no middle of the road when it comes to moving forward. This year, impressions count and we need to have clear intentions concerning love, money, and business. Stick to practical and well-proven paths to ensure success, rather than risky ventures.

A Rooster year is often marked by brilliant success for those who have patiently worked to build a business project, whilst others may wish to change their professional environment. Either way we must manage the stress of this highly creative phase with a commitment to activate and organize our goals.

2016 Eclipses

Eclipses are an incredibly important feature of each year as these alignments between moon & sun & earth activate links between soul & creative ego & worldly expression in 19 year groups. So every solar or lunar eclipse is actually part of a 'family' that only repeats every 19 years.

Destiny calls on these cycles as we release the past and welcome the new. Check your chart and see if you have planets close to these degrees. If so then you will experience the beginning of a new 19 year cycle in the affairs of this house and sign. Check back to what happened last time for clues and themes for this one.

It's wise to avoid big decisions or announcements for a few weeks after eclipses, although events can bring 'wild card' shifts that propel you forward anyway! They bring big news or sudden changes in fortune. Eclipses have a 'path' over earth and it's clear that historically earthquakes and weather events occur in countries under these paths.

This year the eclipses move into Leo & Aquarius for the first time in 19 years, with one final Solar Eclipse in Pisces to complete that cycle in February.

11th February Annular Lunar (Full Moon) 22 deg Leo/Aqua

26th February Annular Solar (New Moon) 8 deg Pisces

The first pair is Saros Cycle 19 South. "This is a family of eclipses that brings with it the element of the pleasant surprise. Sudden happiness, a joyful event, the lucky break, the lucky win. The events which will be occurring can be believed and can positively change the person's life".

We can feel the effect of Eclipses for a month or so proceeding then they are affective for 6 months until the second set in August 2017.

7th August Partial Lunar (Full Moon) 15 Aqua/Leo

21st August Annular Lunar (Total Solar) 29 Leo The second pair Saros Cycle 1 North. "Unexpected events involving friends or groups place pressure on personal relationships. Issues may loom large if the eclipse affects the personal chart. It's wise not to make hasty decisions as information may be distorted or false. There may also be an essence of tiredness or health problems". Bernadette Brady 'The Eagle & the Lark'

Mercury Retrograde Periods 2017

Mercury retrogrades (apparently goes backward) three times each year. As this is the planet whose magnetisms affect all forms of communication and our thought processes these periods are when IT and gizmos don't work properly and messages/mail gets lost...you get the idea. So don't buy new appliances, be aware that travel plans may change, avoid signing contracts etc. as details are often incorrect. Mind you some folks don't experience these problems because of their horoscope makeup, so check your chart with a good Astrologer to work with planning your year on all levels...saves so much time and mess! So book a session or ring me 61 755 945959

2017 Mercury retro periods are in earth signs until December highlighting opportunities to re-do, re-evaluate, re-organize your goals and responsibilities (Capricorn), values & finances (Taurus), and plans and organizational systems (Virgo). Mercury retro then shifts into Air signs in December & for 2018.

Capricorn	Dec 19th 2016 to Jan 8th	but not till 28 th Jan for full steam ahead
Taurus	April 8th to May 3rd	but not till 22 nd May for full steam ahead
Virgo	Aug 12th to Sept 5th	but not till 20 th Sept for full steam ahead
Sagittarius	Dec 3rd to Dec 23rd	but not till Jan 11 th 2018 for full steam ahead

Here's astrologer Ray Merriman www.mmacycles.com "In 2016 & 2017, Mercury retrogrades are in the 3 earth signs. Earth is practical. Earth has respect for tradition, for precedence as to what worked before. Earth tries to build consensus and cooperation, as if part of a team. It does not just talk about the importance of teamwork. It actually engages in building teams of people who cooperate with one another and achieve goals that have been clearly defined. The question to ask ourselves is "What will work?" "How can we really get things done?"

As Mercury then starts transitioning into Fire signs from December 2017 and throughout 2018 the focus shifts to the creative force and aspiration to act upon ideas and information.

New & Full Moons in 2017

Timeline of the major 'activations' in our evolutionary journey over the past 9 years...

- It started when transformer Pluto entered Capricorn in 2008 for the first time in 250 years to bring about a massive regeneration of models and systems that run our world...and we experienced the first global financial meltdown. Since then global debt has increased x 5 as our financial system is being kept alive with false stimulus so the rich can keep getting richer & the poor poorer.
- Then revolutionary Uranus entered Aries in 2011 for the first time since 1927, and brought us the Arab Spring, Occupy Movement, Fukushima meltdown, and the biological & genetic & techno innovations that are the theme of the 7 year period he will spend in Aries. (He enters Taurus in 2018 which is when the financial systems will be up for revolution.)
- From 2011 Uranus & Pluto began to form a square or challenging aspect in their 127 year cycle. Historically these boys have brought us the French Revolution and Great Depression...just so you get the idea of the massive social implications of their interaction.
- Next comes Saturn entering Scorpio for 2 years in 2012. Saturn rules Capricorn, and Scorpio is ruled by Pluto, and during 2012-14 the current corporate/government control systems went into overdrive to prevent the liberation movement attempting to break through via Uranus/Pluto. This also brought us the rise of the surveillance state on every level – 'The Drone State'.
- Also in 2012 we had the 2012 Mayan Calendar completing a 26,000 year cycle as our Solar System aligned with the plane of our Galaxy. Yes it was a big deal at the time and still is, as this process actually takes 72 years. More info on this in the appendix as we need to keep this knowledge fresh as it is so important!
- 2012 also ushered in a brilliant new ingredient in this great planetary symphony as Neptune entered the sign of Pisces for the first time in 165 years. Its last timing here was in 1840/50/60s. Spirituality & mind/body power is now becoming main stream fashionable (as opposed to separative religions).
- During 2012/3/4/5 Uranus and Pluto have danced past each other 6 times, with one more pass to come in Jan/Feb 2016. It takes many years for the longer term outcomes to emerge from these big boys so we need to remember that the chaotic and dramatic events of our times are actually giving birth to a whole new age and it is up to each of us to be the midwives!
- In 2015 Saturn stepped into Sagittarius where he will reside until late 2017. This brings the theme of religious beliefs based on separation onto the front burner, and we're already seeing the results.

- In 2016 Saturn in Sagittarius spent the year dancing in hard aspect with Neptune in Pisces bringing us the themes of truth & lies & belief I have already mentioned.
- In 2017 Jupiter in Libra opposes Uranus in Aries & Saturn in Sagittarius trines Uranus opening and expanding our urge for progress, change and re-invention

So all of these planetary and cosmic cycles underpin collective social developments...in fact they cause them! And during these huge new levels of evolution they also stimulate us personally to re-define our deepest values and core beliefs about the purpose and meaning of our lives.

So now for the good news! As the 'old order' is in crisis we have a splendid list of positive new developments in response to the need for inventive solutions and civil resistance to their nasty broken controlling system! There is much waiting in the wings once the controls are taken away.

- 'new science' and free energy inventions in break through technologies in all areas of life
- a new financial paradigm is being demanded by massive numbers of people
- 55 countries have banned or restricted GMOs as organics movement grows quickly
- attempts to suppress the internet are not working
- more than a dozen countries have released their UFO files
- people are saying no to smart meters and Wi-Fi radiation exposure
- 'chemtrails' or toxic areal sprays coming into people's attention
- non pharma controlled immune system breakthrough www.GCMAF.eu
- big banks beginning to be fined for market rigging
- consciousness and activist movements are coming together and sharing resources
- more people starting to question accuracy of images we are being fed about material systems
- changing role of US in global affairs
- climate change agendas being exposed as for profit making, rather than really dealing with the old polluting industries
- people are questioning the ramifications of the USA and other countries being 'corporations'
- people demanding true vision from political systems to develop a roadmap for transformation with specific implantable solutions so we may begin transition to true freedom and prosperity
- over 60% of people now believe that what were once called 'conspiracy theories' are real!

Jupiter in Libra Sept 2016 through to Oct 2017 - written in August 2016

As Jupiter enters Libra in September for his once in 12-year visit, the global scene has rarely been in such a state of 'high tension'! Brexit has revealed a new level of anti-establishment sentiment fuelling the revolutionary urge for change, the force underpinning the 2010's, as the USA heads toward elections in the midst of anger, confusion & disillusionment, and global terror events are escalating.

So it is with great interest I consider the implications of the year ahead from September 2016, as Jupiter's 'job' is to expand & enlarge the theme of which ever sign he triggers, & Libra is all about relationships personally & collectively. And right now there are a whole lot of international relationships that are about to morph & change. Typically Jupiter is considered a 'good guy' as he opens and expands new territory for growth in our lives. But he also has a tricky feature as his expansion urge highlights extreme positions and amplifies issues. So hang onto your hats people we're in for some big global shifts between Sept 16 & Oct 17.

We've been in the build-up to this with Jupiter in Virgo since Sept 2015. Virgo rules systems...physical health & the systems that run our planet. We've seen revelation of toxic food...poisonous fertilizers etc...bees & oceans dying...medical issues for so many...the list is endless. And just how broken our global system is on every level...greed & corruption...the deep state agendas that run our economies with blatant disregard for the needs of the planet and us! Gotta love Jupiter. Yep he's the dude who often brings growth as "opportunity disguised as loss". On the plus side we are meant to have spent this past year cleaning up our act, and to make informed health & food choices. I'm sure you can relate to cleaning out & up on so many levels, as we have also been building the practical systems & plans we need to take us forward from here.

So get excited my friends as Jupiter in Libra bring the next vital step in our process, as in Libra we are set to open a whole new phase in PR & marketing of our business goals, as Libra is one of the business signs. We will also welcome fab new partners who are aligned with our consciousness, and in some cases the opportunity will be to let go of some old ones that aren't! One thing is for sure...'optimistic Jupiter' in 'sociable Libra' is going to be a whole lot more fun than the past 12 months!!

Libra brings us the themes of diplomacy & deal making and Jupiter makes these deals big. Historically Jupiter in Libra brings us classic developments on the timeline of personal & global social change...fascinating stuff & really sets the tone for just how significant this next phase will be. There are many associations for the socialisation process of Libra, all of which are up for expansion over the next year including: 'style' in fashion and design - social networking - PR & marketing - treaties & deals – social justice & the law - business & commerce - Aerospace techno advances. Lots of goodies on offer here!

Libra's highest ideal is PEACE by seeking the BALANCE between polarized energies to achieve HARMONY & resolution to the inner & outer conflicts that arise from fear & insecurity. CO-OPERATION is the key!

From a position of Balance everything develops in a balanced way. One of the goals of self-mastery is the achievement of “inner equilibrium” allowing concentration & focus from “our still centre”. Then we have the power to put our ideas into action with wisdom, and intention that our creativity will inspire not only ourselves but others!

Jupiter in Libra offers us the opportunity to take a big step forward in this conscious process, and this may arise as he tests our ability to “hold our centre” between extremely polarized energies both within & without. So the caution here is to avoid extremes despite his urge to do exactly that!

Libra's opposite sign is Aries ruled by warrior Mars, so here we have the shadow containing how we use our “Will” to take action. Thus our lesson here is we can only direct our will toward our goals when we are in harmony with the “will of the whole”, and that our purpose must serve more than selfish objectives.

The Aries Libra axis also brings us the reality that we need others to help us aspire to & reach our goals. Thus the gentle arts of diplomacy and co-operative interaction with others hold the key to real progress over the coming year. Stay open and receptive to incoming ideas & solutions as you happily share yours!

Aries offers healthy independence and courage to engage with others confidently and Libra opens us to the social interactions to do this. So there are plenty of reasons to get excited about Jupiter in Libra, as he opens a world of limitless possibilities to attract and join with fascinating new folks to take us forward in our lives, from a state of deep inner balance and poise!

Before we get to the Libran ingredients let's take a minute to review the current Jupiter cycle since he entered Aries back in 2010, so we can understand the power of his purpose in our lives in his 12-year cycle.

Astrology is such a cool model once you really start working with the development process on offer!

- This current Jupiter cycle began in mid-2010 when he entered Aries for a brand new cycle personally & collectively. Uranus also entered Aries for the first time in 84 years & Jupiter ignited this new revolutionary phase in technology & individual expression!
- Then mid-2011 when he was in Taurus we dealt with our core issues re our values & prosperity and added steady building to our initial seed of 2010.
- In mid-2012 he charged into Gemini and we experienced the arrival of a whole new set of technology and expanded our knowledge & connections to grow our lives.
- Then mid-2013 he took us into Cancer so we could heal our emotional safety and do the hard yards required to build safe foundations to underpin further progress.
- Mid-2014 as he powered into Leo he gave us the opportunity to step into our true individuality and 'be free to be me' and grow our creative confidence and courage.
- Between Aug 15 & Sept 16 we've dealt with practical plans & strategies we need to take our new creative goodies forward.
- He enters Libra in September 2016. This will be when we step up and out into PR and marketing our projects and goals as Libra is the sign of social connections.

Eh viola. See how easy it is to use this model consciously?!

The Personal Implications of Jupiter in Libra - Sept 16 to Oct 17 are of course all about relationships, both intimate and business partnerships. Traditionally Jupiter in Libra is prosperous for marriage & alliances so no surprise when love & romance TV shows and movies feature in the coming year. There is also a traditional warning here of 'marry in haste & repent at leisure'...lol. Jupiter can be impulsive & over the top, so if love comes calling take a minute (at least a few months!) to let the romantic fog clear before proceeding!

One of the downside features of Libra can be the tendency to co-dependence, by surrendering our independence & personal needs for the sake of 'getting loved and our needs met by others'. As Jupiter will be making big aspects with Uranus the freedom theme is huge, so be they old or new partnerships the key here is to 'let the winds of heaven dance between you' and hold your independent space. As Libra brings us 'The Law of Attraction' principle be aware that we attract or 'magnetize' people in direct reflection of our own consciousness. So if you're looking for a fab conscious partner who is in their power & has dealt with their emotional baggage then...yep you have to be this to attract it...ok? The new relating on offer requires two autonomous individuals loving and working toward their own goals, supporting each other, and being self-responsible. There will no longer be room to project blame onto others for what is not working in our lives. This is called living consciously.

All of the above also apply to business alliances, also set for fresh developments. This is a great phase to invite partnerships to bring in those with skills to advance your goals. Again, the caution is to make sure new people aren't just full of promises they can't really deliver. If you don't have PR & marketing skills now's the time to 'outsource' these to the cool people you will 'magnetize' into your life, by setting your intentions for this!

Libra also brings us the style kings & queens, so take advantage of this wonderful fresh urge to your own 'style'. You'll be inspired to smarten up your wardrobe & hair, have a play with new colour schemes at home, and be out & about to galleries & concerts 'cause there's going to be lots of fresh new options. Sounds like fun...bring it on!!

You have Jupiter in Libra if you are born in 1933-4, 1945-6, 1957-8, 1969-70, 1980-81, 1992-3, 2004-5. Thus you will be experiencing your 'Jupiter Return' as he comes back to its natal position in your horoscope. So when we are 12, 24, 26, 48, 60, 72, 84 we all experience a Jupiter Return. These are incredibly significant age points in life when we expand into fresh territory, often involving travel or higher learning to trigger fresh meaning & purpose for the next 12 year cycle. All three Air signs; Gemini/Libra/Aquarius will receive Jupiter's expansion and opportunities for growth over the next 12 months.

The Big Picture...or how is all this going to play out on the global stage?

The underpinning forces driving the dramatic crescendo in human affairs over of the past 5 years are the cycles of revolutionary Uranus in Aries, challenging transformer Pluto in Capricorn, to break down old forms and make way for new ones. And there's also the little matter of the completion of a Great 26,000 year cycle and the beginning of a new one in 2012. We are birthing a new collective consciousness as we 'remember' we exist in a 'unified field' of energies where we must all be responsible for our individual freedom, PLUS being part of the radical changes needed for our planet, regardless of apparent external restrictions & controls. There isn't room in this little chat for the deeper story here so check my 2016 Astro Report for more.

2016 has already been a show stopping drama courtesy of: Jupiter in Virgo forming challenging square with Saturn in Sagittarius in their 20 year cycle, AND Saturn squaring Neptune in Pisces in their 36 year cycle. These both activate big social and business cycles from 1989 & 2000, with some major chickens coming home to roost as we now 'reap' the outcomes from the globalization agenda from 1989/90. This saw the 'fall of the Berlin Wall' as plans were being laid for the Euro currency, the emerging Chinese & Russian economies, & the credit expansion Ponzi scheme of the global elite.

Never have share/currency markets been so extreme & bizarre, as even experienced traders have absolutely no idea what's going on. Thankyou Neptune for your 'dissolving' process of the old Saturn structures!! Fear & confusion reign as the global chess masters have lost control of the game. In my 2016 Report I suggest this will be the year when the old system would become so obvious in their lies & manipulations that squillions of people would finally start scratching their heads and asking some questions!

And this they did in late June when Britain voted to exit the European Union. Regardless of 'apparent agendas' on both sides, I see Brexit as the first major crack in the wall between the old 3D reality fear/consumption/bankster model, & the first evidence of the awakening masses now emerging from the Uranus/Pluto Zap Zone. So many people are totally disillusioned with the 2 party corporate driven systems because they all just jump to the whip of corporate masters...and not us. Yep we're in for a wild ride over the next few years as this process continues. Vive La Révolution. By the way one of the previous Uranus/Pluto cycles brought us the French Revolution!

The key is to remain objective & to know that our personal consciousness actually holds the key to the revolution in time & space that is birthing our new era. Yes The EU can be seen as an exercise in unity consciousness – we are all one & must work together et al, but the underpinning agenda was driven by corporate greed.

Jupiter in Libra Cycles

1909/10 1921/2 1933/4 1945/6 1957/8 1969/70 1980/81 1992/3 2004/5

1. International treaties & events The history of Jupiter in Libra offers us some key moments in our current story with the formation of the EEC in 1957, which then morphed into the EU in 1993 with the Euro currency - (also first World Trade Centre bombing). Then 2004 saw the enlargement of NATO as the EU incorporated most of former Eastern Bloc. During the past 12 years we've had the first GFC in 2008, with subsequent controls from central banks who offered massive loans to lesser EU members with debt they could never repay.

Many members of the UE are very unhappy. By voting out of the European Union, Britain regained its sovereignty. Now eight more countries want to hold referendums to exit the EU. France, Holland, Italy, Austria, Finland, Hungary, Portugal, and Slovakia could all leave, leading to major reformation in Europe while Jupiter is in Libra Sept 16 to Oct 17.

1957 – Treaty of Rome

- Established a common market in Europe
- Set up a European Social fund to improve living standards in Europe
- Allowed free movement of workers in Europe
- Developed a Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) to promote a fair standard of living for farmers

- This treaty created the European Economic Community (EEC) which later became the European Union (EU)

There is also high tension in the South China Sea as China ignores the ruling from UN arbitration tribunal saying China had violated the Philippines' sovereign rights. The US says it does not take sides in territorial disputes, but has sent military ships and planes near disputed islands, calling them "freedom of navigation" operations to ensure access to key shipping and air routes. Both sides have accused each other of "militarising" the South China Sea. There are fears that the area is becoming a flashpoint, with potentially serious global consequences.

And let's not forget the ongoing 'cold war' between USA & Russia currently in play via the war in Syria, with the resulting refugee crisis in Europe dividing nations and escalating fears of fundamentalist Islam. Oh wow it is all such an awful mess right now on our beautiful planet, so here's to Jupiter in Libra bringing sensible diplomatic solutions to de-escalate the conflict & confusion!

There are currently a number of important Trade agreements pending including the Trans-Pacific Partnership \(TPP\) a massive free trade agreement involving Australia, the US and ten other countries, which reduces our democratic rights while increasing the rights of global corporations. It was signed in late 2015 & is yet to be ratified, and if it goes ahead on this next Jupiter in Libra watch there are serious implications for us all from corporate controls into the future. Expect a whole new round of these "free trade" agreements to be negotiated over the next year, especially since the impact of Brexit on the EU.

2. Political Movements 1909/10 gave us the Mexican Revolution, Union of South Africa created & Imperial Japan annexed Korea. In 1921/2 Adolf Hitler became Führer of the Nazi Party, Benito Mussolini came to power in Italy, the Irish Civil War began, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), the world's first officially Communist state formed and the Chinese Communist Party was founded! Quite an impressive list! Then in 1933/4 Hitler became Chancellor of Germany & the rest as they say is history. 1945/6 saw the creation of the “Iron Curtain” USSR Eastern Bloc, as they were carving up Europe & the Middle East into the modern states we now know, and China’s civil war between the Communists & Republicans paved the way for Mao. In 1957 The Civil Rights Act was introduced in Eisenhower’s presidency kick-starting the political movement.

We continue to live in a world where the power of the few controls the good of the many. Call me an optimist but I’m creating a scenario where this Jupiter in Libra phase will bring us ‘enlightened’ growth of a whole new ‘civil rights movement’ to continue the ideals of the 1957 period, that includes people of every colour and political persuasion. The continuance of the ideals from 1921 & 1933 does not bear thinking about! The previous cycles of Jupiter in Libra hold the genesis of both communist systems plus our current western globalization system. So how all of these may morph into new revolutionary phases will be so very interesting to observe.

2. Business & Commerce The big one here involves the need for radical reform of the global financial banking Ponzi credit system. Since the 2008 GFC when ‘markets’ attempted to correct the damage created by credit excesses, things have now skyrocketed out of control as central banks print money (illegal for the rest of us!) feeding the system with false credit that bailed out banks, & lined the pockets of the 1% who created the game. It’s all too bizarre!*

The story escalated from the 1957 Treaty of Rome, in 1980-1 when Ronald Reagan became President of USA and joined Margaret Thatcher to create the ‘Globalization’ model, with next upscale kicking in in 1992-3 when Bill Clinton became President. In 1999 Clinton repealed the ‘Glass-Steagall Act’ created in 1933, to separate traditional retail and commercial banking from the higher risk investment and trading activities undertaken by investment banks. This paved the way for mega mergers in the industry creating financial behemoths that were ‘too big to fail’. It’s one of the key problems in the current-day financial industry. That is, bankers know they can take big risks and take all the spoils if things work out. But if it all goes pear shaped, they’ll get a taxpayer funded bailout, meaning their downside is protected.

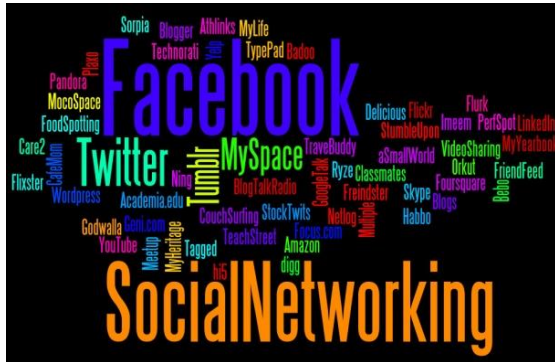

Both Bernie Saunders & Donald Trump are proposing the re-instatement of the Glass-Steagall Act, one of the few sensible propositions from Trump thus far. It will be interesting to see if Hilary can overcome the rising sentiment in her party to fulfil this, as she is a Wall Street gal through and through. P.S. so is 'wolf in sheep's clothing' Obama, hence the ongoing escalation of the fraudulent credit model since 2008. The bottom line is that pressure is mounting to call the old guard to account by millions of people globally.

Jupiter in Libra is beneficial to Trump more so than Clinton, as Trump has maverick Uranus on his Gemini Sun opposite Moon in Sagittarius. There's an old saying that 'Sag never lets the truth get in the way of a good story' and Trump sure fulfils this one! The other mad idea here involves Trump praising his 4 bankruptcies as 'good business sense' so maybe he will just name the game and declare America bankrupt & start again...lol. I'm not calling the outcome of the US elections here, just shooting the breeze with some ideas that are very relevant right now.

The Reasons Why the Globalists Are Destined To Lose

Look at dear little Iceland Failing banks, winning economy: the truth about Iceland's recovery now experiencing a renaissance since declaring bankruptcy & prosecuting bankers in 2011. I see this as a microcosm for healthy global possibilities. The current central bank model punishes those who attempt to change or innovate the model, so here's to further 'awakening from the false dream' by squillions more people to revolutionize the corrupt system, and get real about healthy products & services beyond credit fuelled materialism!

3. Justice & the law 1933 Hitler passed a law to purge Jews, Gays, & Gypsies as undesirable, thus creating the gradual process by which the Nazi leadership, with support or acquiescence from the majority of German people, including judges, moved the nation from a democracy to a dictatorship, with a series of legal steps that left millions vulnerable to the racist and anti-Semitic ideology of the Nazi state. In 1946 the post war Nuremberg trials attempted to bring individuals responsible for the Holocaust to account. The analogy for current times is obvious!! The rising wave of anti-Islamic rhetoric creates further divides in the old 'good guys/bad guys we all need an enemy to blame' scenario of the separative reality mindset, that feeds on fear to justify ever increasing laws to control the population. It does nothing to deal with the real issue, namely the iniquitous system that rewards the privileged and punishes the working class...globally!

4. Social networking The rise of Facebook, Twitter, Instagram et al is the most major development on social influence in history, in the 12 short years since 2004 when Mark Zuckerberg created Facebook. On the upside we have real time exposure of global events that otherwise are concealed by authoritarian systems, and the remarkable gifts of instant access to people & information via the www. But the downsides include cyber bullying & the serious consequences of ‘privacy’, now a major concern on these platforms since being infiltrated by elite global surveillance systems & their target marketing algorithms. There are now masses of alternatives coming on-line in response to this, so perhaps this next Jupiter in Libra year will bring a new phase of ‘secure’ options shared through a distributed, encrypted network of devices. Whichever way we look at it one thing is for sure as all forms of will take big strides forward under this influence over the next 12 years.

5. Style in fashion and design In 1922 Howard Carter discovered the tomb of King Tut launching a huge new wave of art deco style – 1933 Greta Garbo in the new “man’s” evening suit – 1957 Christian Dior ushered in the shift – 1969 gave us Woodstock & the term “unisex” was coined for fashion styles that both men and women could enjoy equally – 1981 began the big hair and shoulder pad rage – 1993 the World Wide Web was born at Cern, as Madonna gave us the pointy bra! – 2004 Paris & Nicole Hilton set the trend for mindless excess, plus weird & wonderful shapes in architectural design. Not enough room here for more examples but I’m sure you get the idea that we’re in for a whole new phase in fashion & design over the next 12 months.

6. Aerospace advances The 1957 launch of Sputnik 1 announced the beginning of the Space Age with Jupiter in Libra. I’ve included the chart at the end of article as it’s great to observe its activation every time Jupiter is in Libra! NASA was created 29th July 1958 also with Jupiter in Libra. The 1969 Moon landing has Jupiter exactly conjunct Uranus @ zero degrees of Libra. 1981 brought us the first orbital flight of the Space Shuttle. 1993 USA & Russia signed an agreement that would join the U.S. and Russian space station programs. The release of the Airbus 380 in 2004 brought us the biggest passenger airliner ever!

It is fascinating that the NASA Juno mission will be studying the origin & evolution of Jupiter during this next pass of Jupiter in Libra! Juno enters orbit around Jupiter

Here's the horoscope for Jupiter in Libra telling the story for the next year between Sept 16 & Oct 17.

We see a creative sextile between Jupiter's ruler Venus (also in Libra) from three planets (Saturn Moon Mars) in Sagittarius. These same 3 planets also form a challenging T-Square with the Sun & ruler Mercury in Virgo opposite Neptune & Chiron in Pisces. This continues the theme of disillusionment & dissolving of the current international trade/banking systems that are bringing our planet to her knees, with an upside potential for creative diplomatic stimulus for the re-formatting of global systems. The Moon in a collective chart describes 'the emotional mood of the people', who in this case feel constrained (Saturn) and angry (Mars).

Before we look at Jupiter transits it's good to review the 4 signs that make up the 'Cardinal Cross', because the big news is that Jupiter in Libra will trigger this axis & these are the signs that 'make things happen' globally!

The Cardinal Signs March 21st is the beginning of the true natural year when the Sun is directly over the Equator @ 0 degrees Aries...known as the "Solstice" point & "World Degree".

Aries and its opposite sign Libra... plus Cancer and its opposite sign Capricorn are known as "Cardinal Signs", and as these signs create global activity in government & corporate developments. These four signs 'make things happen' and are the primary essence of the social order of our planet and in our personal lives. Aries initiates, motivates and opens new territory – Cancer nurtures and cultivates so firm foundations can be laid – Libra brings about the social interaction and relationships to further the process – and Capricorn is the result of the process plus the underpinning global systems.

So when a planet enters any of these four signs all features of the personal + society are triggered as the synthetic feedback system of...

- SELF - Aries opposite RELATIONSHIPS – Libra
- FOUNDATIONS – Cancer opposite RESULTS – Capricorn

Jupiter in Libra transits to other planets between Sept 2016 & Oct 2017

There are three primary cycle points to note:

1. As Jupiter passes through Libra he triggers Uranus in Aries in hard aspect with Pluto in Capricorn three times. These guys have been responsible for the revolutionary impulse of the past 5 years and their challenging alignment is affectionately known as the Zap Zone!
 - Jupiter will oppose Uranus in late Dec 16, early March & late September 17. Watch these dates for major changes (in some cases unexpected) to current global relationships and the rise of populist people's 'liberty movements'. Jupiter/Uranus combos bring us brave new explorer archetypes & large scale revolutionary activity, so these are great timings for expanding & initiating new territory in your world, or having a 'freedom outbreak'!! Innovation is the key.
 - Jupiter will square Pluto in late Nov 16, late March & early August 17. Watch these dates for new power structures, deals and alliances. The first pass in November fits the bill for major shifts after the US election. In previous elections with Jupiter in Libra in 1980 Ronald Regan defeated Jimmy Carter – 1992 Bill Clinton defeated George H. Bush - & in 2004 George W. Bush defeated John Kerry. However, in no previous recent elections have we had game changing Uranus in Aries & Pluto in Capricorn. The last time was in 1928 when Republican Herbert Hoover defeated Democrat Alfred E. Smith.

"This will bring back themes that were present when these two planets were in conjunction in December 2007, which was the first month of the official Great Recession. It pertains to the four D's: debt, deficits, default, and downgrades, plus taxes. These themes are apt to be present through all three passages, which will last until August 2017. Along the way, this square will be part of a cardinal T-square with Uranus, which will be at its strongest in March 2017 +/- 2 months. This type of cardinal T-square is often in effect when sudden financial crises, or stock market selloffs, occur.” Ray Merriman. Personally this brings opportunities to unite with influential people to empower your goals.

2. Jupiter in Libra also forms a ‘creative sextile’ with Saturn in Sagittarius early Dec 16 through to late Jan 17 and late August/early Sept 17. This adds the international nature of contracts & deals with a more positive slant on the otherwise tense configurations. Personally great timings for careful expansion & promoting your business goals as you stay realistic & don’t overextend yourself.
3. The other very important ingredient in this story of global social shifting will be from Saturn in Sagittarius making a supportive trine with Uranus in Aries in late December, May & November 17. The last time this happened was in June 1927 when Uranus had just entered Aries on his last cycle! Events included celebrations in NY for Charles Lindbergh after his first Atlantic crossing - the formation of Pan American World Airways by Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney - The Indonesian National Party was founded by Sukarno - Aristide Briand from France presented his proposed treaty to outlaw war “The Kellogg–Briand Pact”, signed in 1928 by many of the world's superpowers – Japan held the "Far Eastern Conference" in Tokyo to discuss long range strategy for the conquest of China, and possibly the world. Interesting historical precedents here with more to come very soon! Personally this offers constructive change as you transition from the past to the future in your life without chaos or the need to be too radical. These are times to implement progressive ideas & believe they will succeed!

Jupiter retrogrades between February 5th and June 9th 2017

So he opens the year activating both Saturn & Uranus as previously discussed in the 2017 overview section. He reaches 23 degrees Libra and begins his retro phase right up until June 9th when he stations at 13 degrees Libra. It won’t be until early September that he reaches 23 degrees and zaps through the rest of Libra by October 11th when he enters Scorpio.

Thus the territory opened in just the first 6 weeks of 2017 will then have eight months of development before the ‘release’ of significant outcomes.

Jupiter enters Scorpio

Jupiter then wizzes into Scorpio on October 11th for the first time since 2006. This is the sign of money and resources, and if we think back to 2006 this was a major period of expansion of toxic debt systems that directly led to the GFC meltdown of 2008.

There are lots of implications here for this next cycle, including the 'cashless society' agenda, and the rise of alternate financial institutions and currency models. This also coincides with revolutionary Uranus entering Taurus for the first time since June 1934.

He spends 7 years in a sign so will be doing his innovative thing up until 2026!

More on all of this in my 2018 report...

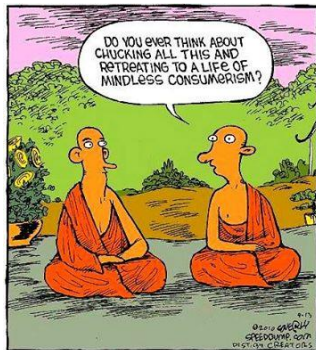

Saturn enters Sagittarius in 2015 for the first time since 1985 - written in September 2015

The next very important ingredient to add to the web of interlocking forces is dear old Saturn now entering Sagittarius to renovate and restore our 'Quest for Truth'...as I have named this process! Before I develop this it's important to see what Saturn has been up to during 2012/14 while he has been in Scorpio. In a nutshell we have experienced a whole new level of political and corporate control...now known as 'corptocracy'!

As Scorpio rules money, resources, power & deep hidden behind the scenes activities we now have the new multi-billion $ growth industry...surveillance; banking systems with more control than ever as 'Derivatives' debt continues to escalate; Monsanto & other agri-business controlling food production; secret trade deals for corporate profit; loss of property rights to fracking & energy producers; more manipulated wars for profits to armaments producers and to generate fear so they can further control us; massive erosion of civil liberties on many levels including hijacking social media; big pharmas making squillions from enforced vaccination programs and dispensing anti-depressants to our dumbed down population (doing more harm than good)...the list is endless and generally awful in terms of healthy freedom for us all.

Personally it hasn't been a lot of fun as we have been forced to look at how emotionally safe and therefore powerful we are, as we struggle to make sense of the deepening global crisis. The positive process here offered us the release of old limiting fears. Meanwhile most people continue to borrow $ to keep afloat in the massive material consumption machine we are told we need. Yikes! Sorry for that dark reading of current affairs but Saturn demands we get real...and that is our current reality.

Saturn operates through limitation and restriction so we may re-structure the areas he highlights as needing an overhaul. He causes tightening of belts to allow for reality checks. Ultimately when we look back after he has done his thing we see a positive result but often it is quite painful to get there. He is known as 'The Great Karmic Lord' who brings tests and limitations and his gift is strengthening our commitment and a maturing process.

The Sagittarian principle inspires our lives with meaning and purpose.

Saggie territory includes: higher learning/teaching & education; philosophy & beliefs thus religion & spirituality; dissemination of ideas thus journalism & social media; the travel industry; philanthropy; sport; 'the big picture'; international activity thus the web of global affairs in these epoch changing times.

Saggie qualities include: luck, good fortune, vision, gambling, expansion, growth, opportunity, fresh physical & mental horizons, tolerance/ intolerance, extremism, heroic deeds, ideals, exploration, seeking, searching, questing, restless, energetic, grandiosity, larger than life, preaching, promising more than we can deliver, all or nothing!

When we put all these bits together a picture begins to emerge of life areas that will be focalized and where we may experience personal and global constraint in the following areas:

- crises in international tourism and the airline industries
- major re-structure in media and publishing
- governments seeking to further control via social media surveillance
- expansion of global extremism, terrorism & fundamentalism
- crisis in Roman Catholic and other major religions
- impact of international trade treaties that have been set up while Saturn in Scorpio
- expansion of toxic gambling systems – casinos etc.
- deepening control of educational systems to 'program' compliance + costs of education
- seek to further limit main stream media & people's right to free speech
- people adopting non-rational hardline dogma positions
- exposure & spreading the truth regarding true crisis of global banking systems
- previous cycles have brought us stock market crises & meltdowns

On the positive side we can use Saturn in Sagittarius to:

- apply ourselves to learn, teach, write, publish our knowledge and ideas
- embrace the moral codes central to all religions, namely peace, love and co-operation
- review our purpose & meaning for life and re-frame to contain fresh vision
- expand our activities internationally
- speak the TRUTH and ask others to do the same
- plan our travels to contain a purpose or quest...not just tourism
- become a committed philanthropist/activist in whatever area is important to you
- become more tolerant of other people's beliefs
- make the transition from surface knowledge to depth knowledge
- seek alternate news sources beyond mainstream media control
- give up promising more than you can cope with & extreme behavior of all kinds

There's no doubt we are in for a very interesting ride in the global story as Saturn does his thing to contribute to re-ordering and re-aligning the existing fears and limitations of Sagittarius, into the positive outcomes of tolerance, justice and truth. All the mutable signs Gemini, Sagittarius, Virgo & Pisces will be up for re-ordering their life during 2015/16.

Here's a list of his movement through Sagittarius during 2015-17

2015 – reaches 4 deg Sag & retro 14th March – back to 28 Scorp direct 2nd Aug – up to 11 Sag

2016 – from 11 to 16 degrees & retro 25th March – back to 9 deg direct 13th Aug – up to 21 Sag

2017 – from 21 to 27 degrees & retro 5th April – back to 21 deg direct 25th Aug – enters Cap 21st Dec

Saturn enters Capricorn in December 2017

As Saturn rules Capricorn he is in the most powerful position he can be. This is known as 'dignity' as his natural inclination to build form is totally at home in the sign of form building!

He begins this next process on December 21st 2017 and will be in Capricorn until December 2020. Previous cycles were:

Feb 1988 to Feb 1991 which offered us the fall of the Berlin Wall and launched a new era in corporate power Jan 1959 to Jan 1962 Dec 1929 to Nov 1932

As Capricorn rules all things to do with corporate and political governance this is the territory where he will begin to reveal current re-restrictions and commence the process toward re-structuring and re-ordering.

There's lots of implications here, which I will cover in depth in my 2018 Global Report.

The Uranus Pluto 'Zap Zone' Story

Here's my full article from 2012

Uranus

God of Change & Revolution...

invention, freedom, liberation

Pluto

God of Death/Re-birth...

transformation, renewal

The primary 'backdrop' for our planetary drama between 2012 and 2016 is provided by these guys forming a 90 degree challenging connection...now known as the 'zap zone'.

The 127 year Uranus/Pluto cycle is responsible for the progressive revolutionary forces unleashed when the seed of the new arises as a regenerative imperative. Unfortunately every culture contains the seeds of its own destruction. Progress (Uranus) and decay (Pluto) co-exist. History shows that all societies eventually develop the means of their own downfall. They always do it to themselves. It's a cyclical process. Progress, war, devastation then re-awakening.

This cycle ushered in the industrial revolution and has been advancing techno revolutions, and the power that arises from technology ever since they were 'discovered' (1782 & 1930 respectively). Edison, Bell, Tesla did Einstein their thing under this influence. So yep fabulous stuff on offer here and we will continue to see techno advances at an accelerated rate over the next 3 years. The other thing they are famous for is violent revolution if necessary to step beyond the old restrictive authoritarian forces that traditionally believe they have the right to run society...and all of us. Think French revolution, as this cycle also instinctively drives our evolution for human rights and the freedom of the individual. This is the key upgrade of the 'Unity Consciousness' of this current cycle.

Pluto's job is to break down and then transform the old order. As Pluto stepped into Capricorn in 2008 for the first time in 250 years the GFC meltdown began and the old Capricorn governance machine went into overdrive to prop up the failing banking system. They also began to ramp up their control mechanisms via 'police state' fascism and media propaganda to keep people believing they could still be trusted. But the decay process is irrevocable once it reaches 'critical mass', which it has.

Uranus brings us freedom, innovation, liberation and change. As he entered Aries in 2011 for the first time in 84 years the Occupy Movement and the Arab Spring offered us the first glimpse of the revolutionary forces that would begin to transpire with Pluto's transforming process.

The battle between the dark and light forces began in earnest. A new wave of inventions and technologies began the next great industrial revolution – the bio-molecular revolution.

Uranus and Pluto began their new 127 year cycle in Virgo in the mid 1960's.

We still call the 60's revolutionary as a general description, and indeed large numbers of radical shifts occurred during this time such as: Rock and roll culture – Women's Lib Movement demands equality as The Pill offers freedom – Civil Rights Movement in USA - Eastern philosophies and mystic ideas/practices brought to the west - Flowering of the drug culture as hallucinogens arrive courtesy of the chemists! Timothy Leary heads a group of Harvard professors who openly experimented with LSD and reported on the positive mind and behaviour altering effects. The Government illegalized these mind altering substances but a whole generation of youth embraced them - New era in hard line US politics after the death of Kennedy and the suppression of his reforms leading to the Vietnam War and resultant moratorium against war and youth culture revolt against existing values - Development of depth psychology and psychotherapy creates a new paradigm leading to the opening of holistic medicine during the 1970s - World Health organization implements a 10 year program for the eradication of polio/typhoid/ diphtheria – achievement of this increases world population exponentially in subsequent decades - Kennedy announces US goal to have man on the Moon by 1970 and this is achieved in 1969 symbolizing a further quantum leap similar to the discovery of the telescope - Technology escalates quickly as computer technology opens the commercial potential globally as never before - End of the post Victorian era with opening of taboos around sexuality - 'Science versus God' becomes the essence of scientific development reflecting the split off feminine part of our nature - Cold War between Russia and the US escalates as the two world polarized positions antagonize and escalate the Nuclear Arms Race - very Uranus/Pluto! Quite the list isn't it.

Since then the 'old order' regime have done their best to keep us trapped in rigid fear/attack belief systems. This is the hallmark of the unconscious control of resources paradigm. Since the 1980's courtesy of the 'globalization' agenda, our world has become a corporate megalopolis where the boundaries between government services and the private sector have disappeared, and we are now run by massive conglomerates of complex interweaving 'sectors' with material consumption the matrix that overlays everything. Every aspect of our world is now 'owned' including our human genomes.

So is it any surprise that during the period whilst Uranus has been forming the 90degree challenging aspect with Pluto that we have seen so many of these themes re-emerge, as the demand for the next phase of these reforms toward a more equitable society? And isn't it absolutely amazing that this timing coincides so perfectly with the 26,000 year larger evolutionary cycle? But never before have all the classic features of the death/re-birth sequence occurred to the whole global system at once!

Here are the dates of the 127 (approx.) year Uranus Pluto cycle for you history buffs...

Conjunctions	1456	1597	1710	1850	1966
Waxing		1498	1624	1757	1877 2012
Oppositions	1540	1648	1792	1901
Waning		1566	1679	1821	1932

We are now in a 90degree 'waxing' or development cycle offering breakthroughs and new discoveries. The last time this happened was the late 1870's, the era of the birth of big business through power and technology i.e. oil and electricity. Thus we can view this current period as the next 'Business Technology Revolution' = Brave New World

Exact Passes: June & Sept 2012 May & Sept 2013 April & Dec 2014
 Jan/Feb/Mar 2015 Jan/Feb 2016

Since the 1970s the United States has advocated a type of capitalism called "predatory capitalism;" it is an aberration and an abject failure. When governmental policies cleared the way for major businesses to carve out monopolies and to avoid regulation, the notion of a "free market" became an illusion. Many people think that our current form of capitalism, which emphasizes huge corporations that are driven by the single goal of maximizing profits regardless of social and environmental costs, is the only model. That simply is not true.

There is another way, and we're seeing it in practice all over the world. Local markets throughout parts of Latin America, Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, the Middle East, and increasingly in farmers' markets in Australia, Europe and the US demonstrate vibrant alternatives to the predatory form. They emphasize local goods and services and, although some of the trading is done through bartering, they are an ancient time-tested form of capitalism where community is valued over materialistic excess.

This alternative creates space for members of the community to each produce and create something the rest of the community wants; as needs are fulfilled reasonable profits are also generated. In addition, a great deal of community interaction takes place; people exchange information and have fun communicating with each other. Increasingly, people in the United States and Europe and the rest the world are coming to understand the eloquence and efficiency of such markets.

As we join the Consciousness Revolution, we can shift away from practices that no longer work for the majority to other economic structures that will provide a future our grandchildren will want to inherit. Current prevalent forms of politics and economics must shift. We need to insist, through our power as consumers, that corporations set a goal of serving the public interest, instead of maximizing profits for a handful of extremely wealthy people. To begin with, you and I can change the way our communities conduct business; we can encourage truly “free market” local systems.

Big corporations and governments out to make the largest profits possible oppose such grass roots capitalism because it takes money out of their pockets and puts it back into local communities. Our message will be heard loud and clear when we speak with our purchasing power. Even Big Business and Big Government will have to change – or go the way of the dinosaurs. Let’s change the predatory capitalism of our current system by following the compassionate and community-oriented economic systems of indigenous people throughout the world.

It is now up to us to create the interface between new corporate systems that put people and planet alongside profit. It is the power of united individuals who will turn the tide over these years as we can no longer wait for or trust our political leaders to do this! Richard Branson and his B-team are a great example of the new movement toward this goal – check out <http://bteam.org/about/vision> to get inspired!

Beneath the turbulence, hidden behind the clouds of turmoil and the din of public debate, good things are happening. We must not allow ourselves to be so overwhelmed by the stress of these changes that we lose sight of the good stuff – the reasons for hope and confidence in the future.

Neptune has been in Pisces since 2012 for the first time in 164 years!

Neptune in Pisces is deepening the psycho/spiritual growth that offers the beautiful counterpoint to all the Uranus/Pluto mayhem of these times. His influence is deep and pervasive...way above the threshold of daily consciousness. So be grateful that our evolutionary planetary forces have everything covered despite outward appearances. Our spiritual evolution will occur in leaps and bounds over the 14 years he is in Pisces.

Neptune's part in our current global story involves the spread of a new wave of spiritual awareness and inspiration through the collective emotional field as he infuses us with the new imprint or DNA program. Neptune's entry into Pisces in 2012 coincided with the Mayan Calendar cycle shift. He is a huge ingredient in these times opening a new phase in our spiritual evolution as he also brings us the 'spiritual crisis' of these times where material values appear to have replaced loving compassion, tolerance and faith in our higher nature and purpose.

Historically Neptune's 14 year passage through a sign influences the fashion/style/image of the time...the Zeitgeist...along with films and media that reflect this. Physical science is now 'proving' the power of our mind to influence our outer world and many breakthroughs are occurring in the understanding of the causal link between our emotional/mental and physical health. By connecting with our intuitive nature we can step into 'the stream of consciousness' and invite synchronicity into our creative flow! It is time to get past our own ego needs and see what we can do for others. The many global religions are all underpinned with core spiritual values and truths. It is only when they become dogmatic about their version of God that they can be used as political tools to control and limit people and create 'separation' rather than inclusiveness.

Neptune enters Pisces – April 2011 to 2025 – Here's the full article I wrote in 2011

On April 4th Neptune slides gracefully into Pisces for the first time in 164 years! So here comes another of the big evolutionary guns who will participate in the shift in the decades ahead. He will be in Pisces until 2025, when he enters a new phase commencing in Aries. This accompanies transformer Pluto entering Aquarius...when the stage will be set for the true revolution of our times.

Transcendental Neptune has been in Aquarius for the past 14 years – between 1998 and 2011/12. So he has been in the sign ruled by Uranus... whilst Uranus has been in Pisces...the sign ruled by Neptune. Not really confusing!! This is called a Mutual Reception where the energies of each planet mutually support each other in their process of linking evolutionary forces. Go to www.universalastrology.com.au/articles for a big article I wrote on this back in 2003 where I offer the historical level of this rare phenomenon.

So Neptune in Aquarius for the past 14 years has also been underpinning the collective spread of the next 'great idea' or enlightenment thought...that we are all part of a collective intelligence that contains the reality of other planes of existence, and our awakening the centres in the brain that are responsible for intuitive connection to these other planes. The gifted Medium John Edwards has done great work to teach his large audiences of the nature of our relationship to the other side during this period. He and other brave way-showers have often been vilified for their trouble...but hey that's always been what happens when progressive people try to bring reform and change to existing redundant systems. That's called being an Aquarian!!

Psychic matters of all types have become a new industry as the reality of our emotional/mind/body health has revolutionized the mainstream health industry. Mind you the pharmaceutical companies are pulling no punches in their efforts to deprive us as individuals to make our own choices about quite what food and medicine we put into our bodies. This then is the downside of Pluto in Capricorn since 2008 as corporate commercial interests gain the power to control our human rights to freedom of thought, information, speech and action.

Neptune's associations always involve the sensitive creative field where dreams arise as we tap into the collective "mind of God". In our physical systems he rules the Auto Immune system...our invisible filtering system that keeps out the virus and bacteria that can infect us...if we carry the unconscious emotional patterns that pre-dispose us to a certain disease. So Global Pandemics have been quite the rage lately...once again a major attempt by business interests to sell vast quantities of vaccine for an epidemic that never happened...classic stuff! Mind you we all know how infuriating our on-line lives can become when a virus makes its way through the invisible ethers and takes out our hard drive. Yes we now have worldwide connectivity...and we are all more exposed and vulnerable than we have ever been. Big Brother is having a fab time keeping check on us all via our i-pads and i-phones.

Earth's Immune System is the Ozone Layer, the protective sheath that filters the sun's rays and protects us from the solar forces that would burn us to a crisp. So is it any surprise that our collective Immune System is so unwell now that we have damaged the protective veil? So strengthening our Immune System is vital to maintain our health...both physically and emotionally.

The 14 year period of Neptune in any sign also permeates the collective unconscious at a cultural level, as the art and style that develops to reflect the prevailing Zeitgeist...or Spirit of the Time. The synthesis between art and technology has been the result with virtual reality a primary theme...think 'The Matrix' with all its' associated revelations. As Neptune is the primary agent of God in its' many expressions, it is no surprise that the Aquarian phase has represented a new level of religious tolerance and intolerance, as conflicting theologies have also spread in a viral fashion. For many this has created the search for the next level of Spiritual Evolution beyond separatist doctrines toward a unified philosophy that supersedes the old models.

So How Can We Empower Ourselves This Time? The keyword for this one is Inspiration with a capital I. When we put this together with Uranus Aries we get Inspiration for Innovation! Our realities are already starting to shift into new levels of our human potential, so once Mr Neptune gathers strength in Pisces it will be all systems go. As with all big outer planets they enter the new sign briefly then retrograde back into the previous sign for a last blast/completion. Thus Neptune enters Pisces fully from 4th February 2012 offering his vital ingredients to the mix as we enter the transformational tunnel on our evolutionary rollercoaster ride with Uranus square Pluto.

There are so many phrases and images that arise from these 2 simple symbols Ψ Υ — of veils lifting to reveal what lies behind our current reality on so many levels; romantic heroes and heroines emerging from magical places on their quests from the Gods to save and redeem. Then there are the transcendent and ecstatic emotions that evoke connection with sublime and wondrous awareness, happiness and contentment – at one ment = atonement. The Divine Lover Eros come to re-enchant our world...a world that has lost meaning and connection with Mother Nature. Yes the Divine is set for quite a reappearance in the many guises of inspiration over the next 14 years.

When a ruler is in his dominion he is at his most powerful. Thus Neptune moving through his Pisces will delight at coming home to his sign to weave the new etheric fabric for humanities future. Not since the mid 1800s have we seen the profound level of his expression, as the Romantic Movement brought us the artists, poets and composers who inspired the imagination of their time with echoes to this day. For this is also the domain of Neptune, as we open our Crown Chakra and receive the down-pouring of ideas and their expression of the beautiful and creative in humanity. God at Work!!

Neptune was only discovered in 1846...when he was in Aquarius. So he has just had his first 164 year cycle in our terms, so it is only during the previous Ψ in X cycle between Feb 1847 to Oct 1861 that we have been 'conscious' of him, and although he has always opened pathways in spiritual and religious matters through history, his alliance with the other modern planets...Uranus and Pluto...has been at work in this 200 short years of evolutionary awakening. In the 1530s phase Henry VIII broke with the Catholic Church as Luther's Reformation took hold in Europe. The Knights Templar and Crusader armies reclaimed the Holy Land for Christ in the 1190s, whilst Eleanor of Aquitaine nurtured the troubadour romantic poets in the Age of Chivalry...all very Neptunian.

Empires rise and fall on this cycle as the dreams of conquerors and their culture infect the conquered. In the 1530s the Spaniards brought their Catholicism as they decimated the Aztec, Maya and Inca as the Spanish Inquisition was in full swing. In the 370s the Roman Empire adopted Christianity as state religion and heathen cults were prohibited. In the 1850s' the British Empire expanded the world and missionary zealots transformed native cultures yet again. The Opium Wars brought back the narcotics from China that would fan the imagination of a generation of artists and poets. From photography to anaesthesia, 'blessed virgins' appearing at Lourdes, Darwin's "On the "Origin of Species", to an ideological humanitarian civil war in the USA, the themes of Neptune ring loud and clear as we take a quick look back through time.

This visit between 2011/2 and 2024/5 will be impressive and profound as this is only the second time since his discovery, and accompanies the Uranus square Pluto 'Cardinal Climax' and Uranus entering Aries. However, as usual we do not know what will happen. I can only 'sense it' in conjunction with my job as an Astrologer to try to make sense of what the Gods have in store as we move through our evolutionary journey. So we can only postulate by calling upon our images in context with the complexities of our current world scenarios.

As we have seen, for the past 14 years we've opened our collective field in new and vibrant ways through techno marvels that connect us as never before. We've also re-connected our intuitive brain so we can become the balanced beings we must be to become powerful as 'whole' people – left and right brain...together at last! So now we get to experiment!! What fun. How cool will it be when we are completely in synch with creating a thought-form, magnetising the people and resources we need, and then manifesting marvellous realities? This is what is on offer as the Science of Mind or Noetics, bursts forth into daily life. The only thing is...you must have 'pure intention' and your idea must serve more than just your own selfish egoic outcomes. That's the point kids. We've spent 14 years being shown that 'we are all one...we live in a unified field' etc. etc. So if our intention is not about serving the collective in some fashion it may indeed work for a brief moment and fulfil our ego aggrandisement, but sure as sunshine it will not last.

As the veils lift from our old 3D Reality we are free to begin to see at last what is ahead as we take on our 'light bodies'. It has felt cloudy and uncertain for so long now with hints and glimpses of what the parallel dimension has to offer, but it just ain't been time yet my friends. The Gods control the timing, while men seek to assert control yet are completely clueless...up until now. So bring on Ψ in ☿.

Leonardo Di Caprio's latest role in "Inception" offers wonderful images of the warp in the space/time continuum that allows stepping between realities. The movies and all artistic image making tools have always been Neptune's tool for expression. Now that the Gods and Goddesses of ancient time are long gone it falls to Hollywood to be modern Neptune's vehicle for the birth of new archetypes. Both our current and future Zeitgeists are on the big screen, and the clothes we wear, art we enjoy, houses we live in are all conditioned by the prevailing Neptunian influence...or "Glamour"

Quite what it will feel like to actually live in this new reality is yet to be seen and experienced. Once again I have glimpses. It is a calm and accepting place and there is little drama. One accepts the day and works with whatever people and situations it throws at you. It is a very deeply aware and feeling place yet it is a very objective place. It's kind of like being at the top of Jupiter's mountain after the hard climb, surveying the panorama of options in a state of calm expectation. Without controlling 'things' you can allow 'things' to come to you, knowing that what will come is perfect for your lessons in that moment.

Over the next 14 years those who understand the Spiritual evolution on offer will have much responsibility, but no longer a sense of burden. We are the privileged group of humanity who have food and love and aspiration. So it is incumbent on us that we inspire others to be inspired by Ψ in ☿ to step up our consciousness to a place of loving inclusiveness.

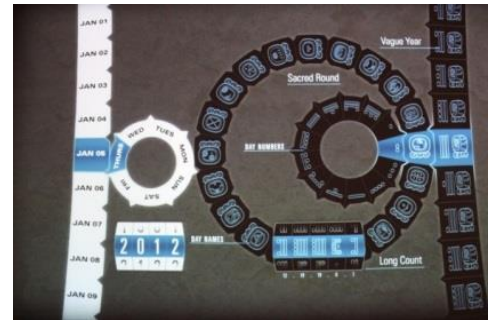

On a collective level the themes of mental and psycho-spiritual health will come onto the front burner, as more people than ever are diagnosed with various 'disorders' that result from 'breaking with reality' in response to various pressures in the outer world. So Pharmaceutical companies can make some more drugs to keep folks trapped in their confusion and depression. That is why it is so essential to empower the masses with simple information that supports their emotional healing. So expect new developments in psychological/therapy territory, advancing the revolution of psychotherapy in the mid 1960s. Be your own healer!!

♃ in ♈ opens new fabulous options for our 'entrepreneur self' and offers freedom and liberation as ♃ in ♋ opens the door for us to transcend our old limited selves.

- However there is again a caveat, as we cannot bring our old fear and anger and confusion with us. That's part of the old matrix and will keep you firmly stuck in 3D reality under the control of our current old, sick unconscious system.
- So it is essential to give up your last dregs of victim nonsense and create healthy boundaries around yourself, emotionally and physically.
- Give up the belief in suffering and replace it with a healthy relationship to sacrifice when necessary; i.e. to take care of a sick child or whatever.
- Give up fret and worry...it keeps you stuck in fear...be an optimist
- Surrender to intimacy by honestly facing your fear of loss and hurt...and then you can merge safely.
- Listen to your intuitive self and be always open to the 'phenomenal universe' by noticing the signs and signals coming at you via strange and synchronistic means. It's fun when you live like this...incredibly interesting and creative.
- Create a sacred space in your home or garden where you connect with your 'higher dudes and gals' every day, if only for a few minutes. Remember to say thank you and be in gratitude before you ask for help and guidance. And when you don't need help say thank you anyway.
- Give yourself permission to believe that it is possible to achieve 'Heaven on Earth', the core idea in Christianity that was such a revolutionary idea...we don't have to wait for 'eternity'
- Beware 'Spiritual Glamour'...your own and other people's – we are all on the same level playing field so question ideas and information before aligning yourself with groups and organisations
- Be artistic and creative. Many great artists and composers will emerge in the years ahead to convey their messages...perhaps you are one of them!
- Be at peace. Avoid conflict as you also assert yourself in healthy ways when you need to.
- Be kind. Kindness is the greatest and most powerful tool you have at your disposal.
- Give yourself permission to be clear and inspired no matter what negative stories the power elite and their media cohorts are spinning.
- Step into "the Stream of Consciousness" where right action is rewarded with growth and prosperity.
- Dare to dream...our dreams are the incubus of our "magician self" creating our future limitless realities.
- Be the change you want

The 26,000 year Mayan Calendar cycle

There are a number of interconnected calendars in the Mayan system, considered to be a 'Cosmic Timing System' that reflect their deep understanding of long-term cycles of creation, following a pattern of phases of dark and light. So these calendars are not just a fluffy new age phenomena to capture our imagination. The 26,000 year calendar gained popular attention due to an 'end date' of December 21 2012 and became perfect fodder for the doomsday gang at the time.

The celestial mechanics of this date are actually remarkable as only occur every 26,000 years – a 'Great Cycle'. This is when the December solstice sun aligns with the galactic equator as a result of the 'precession of the equinoxes' and this occurred on 21.12.12. This date not only links in with the 26,000 cycle, but also with another Mayan Cycle or 'Tun' of 5,210 years. It is also the 'final date' of their Galactic Cycle of 16 Billion years...whoosh! So in terms of a major evolutionary moment they don't get much bigger than this.

The implications in terms of species morphing into new forms are similar to 26,000 years ago when homo sapiens first began to make their impression felt. At subsequent 5,210 year phases we have seen the major developments in our global story as it was around 3000BCE that our current western and eastern civilization phases began.

We are now poised for the next 'shift' in the underlying consciousness that generates our individual and therefore group outcomes. In recent history i.e. the last 500 years we had Galileo and Newton in their time channelling their visions to click humanity forwards another notch in our learning of 'who we really are'. We are Gods! But to step into our Godhood requires stepping beyond the old world view that says we are merely slaves to the powerful, and that our duty is to them not to ourselves and our true purpose. This is of course to serve humanity and have a wonderful time on the way becoming 'who we really are'!

Here I am at the Chichen Itza pyramid in Mexico where I attended the dawn ceremony for the new 26,000 year cycle on 21.12.12! It was a fabulous moment in my life!!

Planet Debt By Bill Bonner in Baltimore, Maryland, US Daily Reckoner July 4th 2016

‘She is a low-interest-rate person. She has always been a low-interest-rate person. And I must be honest. I am a low-interest-rate person. If we raise interest rates, and if the dollar starts getting too strong, we’re going to have some very major problems.’ — Donald Trump With startling clarity, the presumptive Republican presidential nominee described himself...and Fed chief Janet Yellen. But he could have just as easily been talking about his rival in this year’s presidential elections, Hillary Clinton.

Planet debt Donald Trump had already gone broke — twice — by the time Bill Clinton took office. But then, the combination of lower interest rates and rising asset prices saved him. And extraordinary abundance and prosperity of the Clinton years owes little to Mr and Mrs Clinton, and much to the fact that Alan Greenspan had inaugurated his famous ‘Greenspan Put’ in 1987. Greenspan reassured investors that he had their backs with a rate cut whenever the stock market took a turn for the worse. This led to an ‘illusion of prosperity’, as stock prices rose, helping Bill get re-elected...and gaining national prominence for Hillary as the aggrieved wife in the Monica Lewinsky affair. Stock prices filled with hot air...until the bubble in the NASDAQ blew up in Clinton’s face last year in office. Both of this year’s presumptive candidates are ‘low interest rate’ people, all right. Their adult lives were marked by the credit cycle, and their careers shaped by ballooning debt. And now almost the entire world economy depends on low rates. We live on Planet Debt.

Subzero yields. The amount of government debt trading below zero yield rose to $11 trillion last week. In Japan, negative yields run out the yield curve until 2051. Overall, interest rates are said to be lower than they’ve been in 5,000 years. (This is a fanciful but entertaining factoid; you can’t compare the apples of Sargon the Great to those of Donald the Tremendous.) ‘How cometh it to be that interest rates ride so low...while the hack and the hustler ride so high?’ you might wonder. We are glad you asked...

We have been connecting dots. These are dots that others do not want to connect. Because they connect to too many reputations, too many fortunes, and too many opinions. We are talking about the line that runs from the post-1971 money system to the Deep State, passing through the spectacular rise of China...the spectacular fall of the US (where the average man has made no financial progress in the last 40 years)...to the remarkable luck of the 1% (who got richer and richer, as most people around them lost ground). Yes, the line ties together the great kvetches of our time: inequality...stagnation...alienation...globalisation...debt...the failure of the economy...the failure of democracy...and the failure of our own culture. According to political scientist Charles Murray, white middle and lower-middle class Americans now suffer from the ills that were once confined to ghettos — broken homes, drug addiction, unemployment, and violence. Surely we're not going to try to pin that on the Deep State, too? Yes...we are.

Deep State money 'Our' money system is not 'ours'. It is the money system created by, for, and of the financial insiders. It is the Deep State's money system! But wait...we sense an objection: 'Isn't it the money system set up by our elected representatives...serving us all?' Oh, dear reader, sometimes you make us laugh. Really, where have you been? The US money system is largely under the control of one organization — the Fed. And the Fed was set up at a secret meeting of plutocrats and bankers. (No kidding; they rode down to Georgia in 1913 in a private train, using phony names so they wouldn't be identified.) It is not owed by the people...nor by their government. It is owned by private banks. And it is controlled by a small group of unelected insiders — mostly bankers and their economists. It has never been audited. And no member of Congress really knows what it is up to.

Miracle-Gro On 15 August, 1971, President Nixon made the fateful announcement that the world's reserve currency, the US dollar, would no longer be directly convertible to gold. But do you think Mr Nixon came up with that on his own? Do you think he was advised by our elected representatives? No chance. Instead, the insiders, the bankers, and the deepest of the Deep State elite had his ear. The president — and probably almost everyone else — had no real idea of what was going on...or why. But that was 45 years ago. A lot has happened since. The new money was a Sahara for the common American; his income growth dried up...his wealth ceased growing. But it was Miracle-Gro for the Deep State.

The insiders sank their roots deeper and deeper into the US economy, sucking out more and more wealth and power. Whether the insiders fully realised what they were doing in August 1971, we don't know. But as the system developed, they liked it. More than that, they became dependent on it. And now, almost the entire world — its stocks, bonds, real estate, and collectibles...along with its businesses, retailers, factories, investors, bonused-up executives, papered-up speculators, PhD economists, and politicians — almost everybody with wealth or power depends on the insiders' cheap money.

'Government can have no more than two legitimate purposes,' wrote the 18th-century English political philosopher William Godwin, 'the suppression of injustice against individuals within the community and the common defence against external invasion.' But now it has another purpose...a goal it is desperate to achieve — keeping the low interest rate planet spinning.

Identifying the Deep State By Bill Bonner in Maryland, US Daily Reckoner Nov 14th 2016

The Deep State, to be clear, describes the way the US government really works, rather than the way it's supposed to work. In the popular myth, we have a government that responds — clumsily but eventually — to the will of the people. It is supposed to be 'by, for, and of' the people. So we are tempted to believe that what it does is ultimately for our own good. We can trust it, in other words, to look out for us. We do not have to fear it. After all, as Hillary Clinton said, 'The government is all of us.'

But the Deep State is not all of us. It is only some of us. The Deep State is a curious group, comprised of foreign governments, billionaire political donors, lobbyists, international corporations, global organisations, and supra-government agencies. Together, they — along with domestic-favoured industries, the bureaucracy itself, special interests, and cronies of various stripes and persuasions — run the US government and control the police, the armed forces, the financial industry, the medical industry, the educational industry, and other major parts of the economy.

How the Deep State works Yes, this may sound like a conspiracy. And it is, in a sense. But not the sort on which you could get a conviction. It is just the natural evolution of a political system. In the beginning, government started out small. But, as time goes by, more and more people — usually in loosely-organised groups — find ways to 'game the system'. They exploit the 'government' to gain an advantage or privilege. As this happens, the system retains its outward appearance, but it is corrupted from the inside out so that it gradually ceases to serve the common interest that made it so successful in the first place; instead, it begins to serve, primarily, the interests of those who actually control it.

Today, while we do still have the same apparent structure of government in the US that we had 200 years ago, it's not what it used to be. The words are the same. The form is the same. But, under the hood, the motor is completely different. The Deep State doesn't care what you want, or who you voted for. And it definitely doesn't care about the nation's safety. It cares only about its own safety.

The Deep State and its 'enemies' In 1989, the Deep State faced its biggest challenge. The Soviet Union renounced its goal of world domination. The Cold War was over. This left the security industry with nothing to provide security against. Huge budget cuts loomed. Early retirements beckoned. But, by then, the Deep State was already largely in control of the federal budget. After a pause, 'defence' spending began to rise again.

That is the beauty...or perhaps the ferocious power...of the Deep State system. It doesn't require a plan or a brain. It doesn't need a smoke-filled room, or a meeting of the minds. It just develops on its own, as people use the government for their own purposes. This is an important point in the context of today's war on terror. More people probably die from peanut butter allergies than from terrorist attacks. But, when people are killed by terrorists, it occupies a big and sensitive spot in the collective imagination. Terrorists pose no dangers to the Deep State system; they strengthen it.

The threat of terrorism, then, helps scare citizens into transferring more of their money to the security industry. Soldiers risk their lives, but the Deep State wants to see terrorists flourish, not eliminated. Terrorists pose no dangers to the Deep State system; they strengthen it. But you or I, however, might threaten it. If anyone gets on the government's 'enemies lists,' the stored information will be used to target them. It is unlikely, but a strong candidate may still be able to revive enough of the old atrophied organs — and dust off enough of Americans' old sense of pride, independence, and solvency — so as to menace the Deep State.

There might be enough kindred spirits appalled by the theft, disgusted by endless senseless wars, and shocked by the debts, to make possible a march on Washington, and maybe even a real insurrection. Like the Spartacus slave uprising in 72 BC, an 'end the Fed' chant coming from the National Mall...a 'stop the wars' banner flying over the Lincoln Memorial...might be enough to deeply unsettle the Deep State. That is why the Deep State so desperately wants to keep tabs on everyone.

Everybody's a target Built at a cost of $1.5–2 billion — plus another $2 billion for electronic components — the NSA's massive data centre in Bluffdale, Utah, came online in May 2014. It consumes about $40 million worth of electricity each year, and uses 1.7 million gallons of water each day. You don't put that kind of hardware in place just to snoop on a handful of terrorists. Instead, the idea is to keep records on everyone so that, at any time, the Deep State can find out what it needs to know about anyone.

Bill Binney worked for the NSA for 32 years before blowing the whistle in 2002. He was the one who created the agency's mass surveillance program. That program now collects 100 billion emails per day...and 20 trillion communications all together. If anyone gets on the government's 'enemies lists,' the stored information will be used to target them. Specifically, [Binney] notes that, if the government decides it doesn't like someone, it analyses all of the data it has collected on that person and their associates over the last 10 years to build a case against them.

All of the information gained by the NSA through spying is then shared with federal, state and local agencies, and they are using that information to prosecute petty crimes such as drugs and taxes. The agencies are instructed to intentionally 'launder' the information gained through spying, i.e., to pretend that they got the information in a more legitimate way...and to hide that from defence attorneys and judges. Lavrenti Beria headed Stalin's secret police. He had no access to an NSA-style database. Still, even with his limited resources, 'Show me the man, and I will find the crime,' he said. Today, the secret police never had it so good.

And it could get a lot better for them. With the coming 'cashless' economy, all transactions, no matter how small, may have to pass through the Deep State's information technologies. With the flip of a switch, your secrets could be revealed, and your money could be turned off — a 21st-century assassination. How does the Deep State really affect us? There is no way to know for sure. But what we have found is that it is not at all bound by the rules, goals, or financial restrictions that limit the rest of the society.
