

So off we go into Stage 3 of our natural Year as the Sun heads into Gemini, and loads of planets in Taurus continue doing their thing building and consolidating our new beginnings from March. Mercury Venus and Mars then also start moving into Gemini to get us all moving for the first time in several months. Hoorah!

Gemini is the sign of all things mental and verbal – the first of the Air signs... opening our fields of activity into ideas and connection mode. June opens with Sun and Moon joining in a great big Solar Eclipse at 11 degrees of Gemini on the 1st heralding the second half of our calendar year.

Eclipses are potent connections of Sol and Luna that infuse the signs involved with major new karmic doorways toward the future six months. So if you have Sun or Moon or planets around 11 degrees of Gemini, Sagittarius, Virgo or Pisces get ready for some action. Sun and Moon in Gemini triggers both verbal and physical movement, so as Mercury joins in the fun as he enters his own sign Gemini on the 3rd – followed by Venus into Gemini on the 10th - and finally Mars into Gemini on the 22nd – we have plenty of opportunity to get our projects moving along through our world wide web of connectivity.

Remember revolutionary Uranus has only just hit the go button for this new 84 year cycle in March. Then came Mercury, Venus, Mars, and Jupiter triggering this new beginning in May as they also moved through Aries. Remember the fab group of ‘stars’ in the eastern dawn just recently? A splendid planetary show to inspire us!

So in early June we must put the finishing touches to the hard work organisational phase to build the structures for our new beginnings. So you’ll be heartily pleased to hear that feelings of ‘yes I’m ready to go but why the hell aren’t things moving yet’ are about to be replaced with ‘whoah Nellie let me off the rollercoaster courtesy of so much Gemini action.

However, the really big and much more exciting news is the ‘big boy’ himself heads into his next 1 year cycle as he enters Taurus on June 4th. Yes Jupiter is on the move into the 2nd stage of his new 12 year cycle begun last year. He’s done his Aries thing and stirred up all sorts of new action personally and collectively, and now he will help us start to construct the projects we’ve initialised and consolidate our position over the next 12 months as he moves through Taurus..

There’s a copy of the “Ingress” chart at the end of the article if you are that way inclined. The Ingress chart also has Mars and Venus in Taurus so he has some helpers to energies this process, and as Saturn is such a big feature...yet again... we continue to have to align our individual goals with the needs of others. Indeed our future expansion via Jupiter requires significant partner situations that are mutually supportive on all levels. With Moon Cancer in the 10th we must commit our emotional energy toward our goals and release relationships that are restricting us.

From mid month the Lunar Eclipse in this series... at 24 Degrees Gemini/Sagittarius... sparks fusion between our ideas and ideals and fuels up cars and planes for journeys near and far. Remember with both the Solar Eclipse on June 1st and this Lunar Eclipse to think back 18/19 years for the cycle theme. This will be the territory that is being triggered anew for further karmic development in your life.

Also from mid June our old mate Saturn finally prepares to start moving forward after these 4 long months in retrograde, which has offered us the reordering and reworking of our primary relationships and doing the hard slog preparation required to set up our new foundations... no longer driven by old fears and limitations...yes please!! He doesn't really get up any speed again until into September, when the brakes will really come off and major developments are in the pipeline...heralding a much more active 2nd half of 2011.

So here's a look at Jupiter in Taurus for each sign...and remember to look at your Ascendant and Moon sign also. Aries Jupiter spends the next 12 months in your resources sector triggering growth in all manner of areas to do with expanding your 'worth' on inner and outer levels. The thing to remember with this dude is his 'tricky' modus operandi so don't just buy into "oh here comes easy dollars and I'm going to win lotto". Yes for some there can be windfalls, but sometimes we have to spend money investing in our goals and projects, and either way it can be 'lots in and lots out' as he opens up new territory for us to grow into our prosperity potential. By all means think big...as you also keep your feet on the ground and deal with reality. Remember the real point of the process here involves increasing your true belief in yourself as a valuable worthwhile person...and then in can come all the good fortune life has to offer.

Taurus So kids this is your once in 12 year new cycle from the expansionary principle in your life with Jupiter in your sign. There is usually a very positive feeling begins to permeate your life as he charges you up with increased confidence and positivity. Suddenly life gets interesting again and you feel inspired to make forward moves and enjoy some of his positive Karma. After all we have tests and then rewards and it's now your turn of the wheel. It's great to expand yourself with some kind of learning process during the next 12 months and sometimes its' about teaching and passing on the 'wisdom' of your lessons thus learnt. Whichever way it goes it's important to remain non-judgemental of other people's positions and ideas and be a cool wise person...smart arse moments are a hazard... with egg on your face the result!

Gemini Jupiter now heads into your 'psycho behind the scenes interior zone' for a welcome dose of inner learning and expansion. The 12th house of our natural chart corresponds with isolation, seclusion and down time respite from major action over a 12 month period. So get those mediation/yoga classes all planned and buy some books on psycho anything and off you go. All cycles have birth, growth, fulfilment and then closing phases so a major period of your life is drawing to a close. So it is so important to release the past, forgive yourself and others where necessary, practice compassion and kindness and "cook the baby' for your new cycle that will begin mid 2012. Our higher self lives in this 12th house sector so this is all about Soul connection and nurturing your spiritual nature to invite alignment and support...with yourself!

Cancer Crabby worlds are about to get a big dose of social interaction...the likes of which have not been seen in 12 years! So think back 12 years and what's the theme? Jupiter in your groups and community zone will bring you into contact with wider, larger themes of experience as you respond to your psychological growth urge to know more about the big bad world, and find ways to get involved to make it better. This can be a life shifting phase where your personal goals and results can be directly influenced by your commitment to community causes or groups that operate on team levels. Apart from career/family interests crab people can be a little insular, so be aware that there are heaps of goodies on offer when you accept invitations to go play with new and interesting people, ideas and humanitarian value systems.

Leo Your growth spurt is now set to kick into career and worldly goals and aspirations over the next 12 months, and for many lions you'll be overjoyed to know that things are about to start heading into reaping phase. Mind you big spurts of a lot of hard work with new and influential people and situations is also part of this opportunistic phase. Jupiter's connectivity is often international in scope and involves either teaching or learning new ways of 'spreading your word', so for some you'll be broadening your horizons in your existing field...having worked your buns off to be in the right place at the right time. For others you may be inspired to start your own business and/or generally step up out of old ruts. Whichever way it swings for you it's time to get ready to roar and have a splendid time on the way.

Virgo Jupiter in Taurus is a very happy state of affairs for our highly efficient systems people of the Zodiac...after all Taurus is another earth sign so Jupiter resonates comfortably for you over the next 12 months. The thing is he will pass through your higher learning and meaning/purpose sector so study and teaching phases are indicated, along with fab trips to far away places that inspire you to get excited about future possibilities. Every human needs a strong sense of purpose and meaning to fuel their actions, so if this has been lacking in your life be aware that you can find fresh meaning during this phase, and yes sometimes this entails letting go of outmoded concepts and ideas you've held until now. So read wise books, sit with gurus and masters...whatever it takes to infuse your life with knowledge and wisdom from here.

Libra Lovely Libra now gets to dive into the deep waters of your 8th house unconscious nature over these next 12 months, and release old features that have in any way limited you as a truly powerful being. It's transformation time kids, so get set for adventures of the deep and meaningful variety. Birth and death are twin components of this sojourn, along with how we share ourselves with others...both emotionally and in terms of physical resources. So pregnancies and funerals may feature as you plumb your emotional depths and release old feelings of grief, anger...and all those so called bad bits that we're not supposed to have, but indeed all really do have! Once these are 'up and out' then healing and wholeness can occur as you learn to trust your own nature and share your intimate self with others. This is true power!!

Scorpio As Taurus is your opposite sign it comes as no surprise that expansionary times are on the way courtesy of opposites...others. Yes it's time to revamp and grow in all areas to do with relationships...both personally and professionally. This can be great fun for eagles if you're aware that sometimes this growth may occur as your 'others' are ready to fly the coop into their own possibilities. So whatever you do it's not about getting all clingy and insecure if the people you've thought would always stay the same are not in the mood to do that one little bit! They are indeed your mirrors, thus sometimes their actions are actually showing you what you need to do for yourself. The fun part comes when you join them in mutual growth and expansion, and learn how to use their resources without attempting to control.

Sagittarius Archers now move into a substantial growth phase in your 'daily work and service' areas, which may not sound very exciting to you freedom loving dudes, but it actually is! The next 12 months contain the positive accomplishment of really connecting to your 'service path', feeling effective on a daily level and cleaning up body and mind along the way. Yes health areas can be taken care of, diet and exercise programs initiated and enjoyed and in a year's time you'll be feeling like a million bucks. This is a highly organisational phase providing the context for setting up your work systems and knowing that the growth on offer can happen relatively easily if you apply yourself. Workplace situations will be positive and may contain learning/training opportunities...so don't miss them.

Capricorn Jupiter in Taurus triggers a new 12 year creative phase for our esteemed goats, with great possibilities for fun and some frivolity, a little bit of a gamble here and there, and excellent growth with and through your kids. Hard working folks that you are, you often forget about the fun parts of life, and for you these are found through the arts, music and the natural world so maybe it's time to buy that opera subscription or indulge yourself in the next Sting concert...you get the idea. It is essential to find the 'child' in your own nature and let the pressure off your responsible bits, so you can connect with your joy and passion and excitement. Financial creativity is another option here so if you're still thinking in terms of old systems...which are actually broken...then get innovative! New love affairs are also flying in the breeze.

Aquarius

Jupiter now comes to play at the very foundation of your world...the bottom of your natural chart...home and family and all things to do with emotional security. So for the first time in 12 years you are truly set to open yourself to expand this territory...with a big grin on your face. So what are our options here? Well there's heading off to live overseas for a while. Or how about interesting folks from foreign climes coming to stay in your house, bringing fresh ideas and excitement into your living room? Then there's selling and/or building a new home or welcoming new members to the family. Which ever way your cookie crumbles the thing to remember is it's about growth...no looking back...only forward. And yes did I mention daring and courage and all that stuff? Or how about inner emotional growth and getting happy!!

Pisces

Your Taurus sector is the realm of 'mind and mouth', so get set for expansion of both, with a warning to your mates that you'll be doing a lot of talking over the next 12 months! It is imperative that we all grow our ideas from time to time and to this end we have a mind that needs to be in good working order. So obviously books, classes, teachers, training are features here. Intuitive and imaginative by nature it is time to develop and synthesize your ability to use your mind as the powerful tool it is meant to be. Here's the formula. Set your intentions, project your thought forms through visualisation, have faith in your ability to magnetize the people and situations you need, and think and say only positive thoughts and words. Welcome to "The Science of Mind". Go fishy people!!
