

11-11-11

At 11.11 am on 11-11-11 close your eyes and visualise a doorway. As you stand before your doorway be aware that this binary activation code will release a dormant structure in your DNA. This will free you from your past and awaken a unity consciousness that will empower you as never before. Scan your memory and release past hurts and feelings of separation. Visualise light 'streaming forth' into your heart and the hearts of every being. Know that you are part of a collective process that is birthing a new phase in human evolution. Believe in miracles and the power of love. Step through your door!

This long awaited and much anticipated Portal Date is deep in the Scorpio phase of our year. Scorpio offers us the release of our lower ego driven nature, into the transformed and purified Ego. This is a very intense emotional experience so go with it and confront any old feelings of separation or disharmony and then let them go. This is a very spiritual matter as it contains the essential process to giving birth our personal Eagle who can soar free from entanglement in our 'little self' full of fear and worry. It requires a commitment to something larger than ourselves so we may use our power to 'uplift the human condition'. So that's your job for the month dear friends...becoming an Eagle!

Don't fret if you're feeling like you are in a 'waiting room' and not clear about your future just yet. Just keep letting go of all the old things, people, beliefs, concerns and fears that are part of who you used to be, and keep having faith that your Eagle will be freshly inspired as 2012 unfolds. Be kind to yourself and others. Give up trying to control.

Speaking of miracles what a truly miraculous story has unfolded over this past month. The Occupy Movement has now become a global 'thing' with protests in hundreds of cities...in under a month...wow!

True Democracy is stirring as millions of individuals are finally standing up and saying "the top 1% do not have the right to keep running your Ponzi scheme any more". Quite how this will evolve remains to be seen, but have no doubt that by mid 2012 when Uranus and Pluto form their first exact square the groundswell of popular dissatisfaction that must underpin the financial revolution to come will be up and running in a big way.

The Carl Calleman 'final Mayan Calendar date' of October 28th has dovetailed amazingly with the birth of this new Populist Movement, and with the 11-11-11 'Gateway' plus an eclipse in late November, we are set for a massive expansion of the awakening process that began when Uranus entered Aries on March 11th this year.

The 28th is the day the EU is scheduled to offer their 'solution' to the Euro debt crisis. The fact that the original Euro system implemented the last time Jupiter was in Taurus 12 years back was basically all wrong in the first place, means they actually need to re-invent the European System at a fundamental level.

And seeing as the EU financial mess is totally connected to global banking it will be amazing to see what kind of rabbit comes out of the hat. With Jupiter in Taurus exactly trine to Pluto in Capricorn on this day the stakes are huge. As basically the problem is unsolvable under the current system no doubt they will just leverage up some more debt...the word is the Chinese may get in on the act so they can develop influence in Europe.

What is actually needed is to re-enact a Gold Standard, strip merchant bankers of their power and cancel their toxic derivatives assets, and launch a new credit system that governments direct to promote the infrastructure and industries that actually produce something! This is what the Occupy Movement is really all about.

The reminder here is the last time Uranus squared Pluto in the early 1930s the Great Depression was the result. Capitalism as we know it is now a failed system, so as it destroys itself stay tuned for the new economic philosophy and system that must emerge from the rubble. Remember there is a hugely exciting set of energies at work here with wonderful opportunities if you are willing to be an original unique individual who dares to step into your power!!

The Mayan Calendar October 2011 and December 2012 dates signal the end of 'time' as we have known it and the beginning of a new order, not necessarily the end of the world. Being present in the moment right now is the key to living in the new space time...not being attached to the past or concerned about the future. So any old feelings coming up that contain 'separation' from your ability to experience inner peace and union will be 'in your face' right now...so you can release them and experience your own 'Unity Consciousness' in due course.

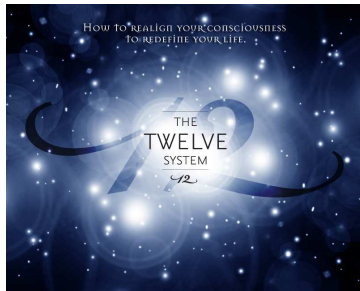

It's very cool watching the synchronization of planetary timings or 'Cosmic Order', as the November 25th Solar Eclipse is the 3rd ingredient in our current accelerated passage into a new era in human affairs. The Sun and Moon at 2 deg. Sagittarius is Trine (positive/ease/flow) Uranus, and Square (challenged to integrate) Mars in Virgo.

So this is the first eclipse to activate the new 84 year Uranus cycle. As eclipses are also 'portals' triggering collective developments, some kind of major dissemination process will be unleashed over the next 6 months. The challenge from Mars is to organise and create systems for this 'spreading of the word'. The 19 year cycle eclipses in Gemini and Sagittarius continue in 2012.

Mars enters Virgo on the 12th and will actually be in Virgo until July 2012 as he does his bi-annual retro thing from late January. Using our "will" in highly organised fashion to establish new 'systems' both physically and mentally is on offer here. The evolutionary process of Virgo accelerates our Soul growth once we understand that we are here to 'serve'.

Venus in Sagittarius for the month uplifts our vision and purpose. As she is also hanging out with Mercury be open to new ideas and philosophies that open and expand your knowledge and world view.

Mercury goes retrograde on the 24th in Sag. until December 14th and doesn't enter Capricorn until January 9th. So for this few months international geo-politics will be even more front and centre, as the reality of the failed globalisation experiment is discussed more openly than ever before. Who runs the planet? The folks who own Goldman Sachs, JPMorgan and the global industrial complex...but for how much longer?

Cheers folks – stay positive and have faith!

Aries A great new phase in your career potential opened mid 2011, with a keynote of expanding both your goals and resultant earnings by thinking and acting more abundantly than ever before. On the 11th your ruling Mars steps into an 8 month phase that requires you to curb your natural impulsiveness and really knuckle down and get organised... also in a way you have never done before. This requires thinking before you act and planning and strategizing in a systematic manner. This is all part of your evolution into a thoughtful conscious Ram and you'll be so pleased with the result by later in 2012.

Taurus The casualty of modern life is our loss of connection to nature and the mysterious workings of ecosystems...the beautiful, perfect, ordered world we have so wantonly destroyed. Your job is to heal this damaged relationship by inspiring others to nurture and protect all the kingdoms, and to teach the philosophy of interconnectedness. Financial outcomes in our new world will arise when this philosophy is grounded and centred in our business leaders. As your new 12 year cycle from Jupiter now aligns your growing confidence, with your creative expression, you are set to make it your business for this to occur.

Gemini In these times of so much news and information...and misinformation... it is so difficult to sort truth from lies and spin. As the Revolution gains momentum over the next year your job is to use your inquisitive restless spirit to go much more deeply than ever before in your quest for 'the truth', and then to dare to do your networking thing to teach and educate others. This 'gateway' contains the opportunity to begin to build a new strong foundation in your world so set fresh goals, give yourself permission to be ambitious and be taken seriously and apply yourself as never before.

Cancer Partnerships are a big agenda item for Crabs since mid 2011 as lucky Jupiter has been bringing you into contact with all sorts of folks in the larger community to expand your potential. This is a give and take situation as you are meant to be both learning and teaching, with a goal of enhancing your ability to work in teams by supporting others, as you allow others to support you. This is cool stuff kids...it's called group consciousness. Daily work areas contain lots of movement this month and you'll need to be highly organised. You're in demand as people want what you've got to offer.

Leo If it feels like springtime has been a long time coming that's because planets have been buried deep in your chart, and by later month this will change big time. Meantime keep building your inner worth and emotional safety, enjoy the home front and developing your capacity for 'simple happiness'. From mid month you enter an 8 month period leading to major outcomes from mid 2012, as career/financial zones also receive a big boost with some pretty major opportunities on the way. So attend to details and work steadily toward goals, in absolute trust that the exciting dynamic creative new life is just around the corner.

Virgo We all need to believe in 'something' as this is the source of motivating and inspiring our actions in the world. Since mid year you've begun a journey seeking knowledge and understanding of the 'big picture' of the world so you can make strategic decisions about where to direct your life from here. As Mars now arrives in your sign for the next 8 months...yep not the normal 2 months...you're off and away to really start expanding your horizons both literally and physically so hang out with good books, interesting people and places to inspire your vision and purpose from here.

Libra Financial areas have been high on the agenda of late and that's great 'cause you're meant to get things squared away by late month so you can take the pressure off. It's generally an active month with busy planets bringing great mental stimulus and lots of dropping off and picking up...also necessary to complete as much as possible by later month. Then get ready for a big slow down dear ones as planets head into the more secluded zones of your chart, offering growth on inner levels till mid 2012. You are the peacemakers who nourish and council others, so nourish yourself for a while so you can re-emerge freshly restored.

Scorpio As Birthdays roll in raise a toast to your new year and the birth of a new level of your potential power and influence. As long as you do the eagle thing and rise above your old fears and insecurities the year ahead will be a fabulous adventure, and this month brings some very significant new partners into your life. As Mars heads into your community/society sector for the next 8 months, be sure to accept social invitations and partner up with team projects where you'll be at your best as an organiser or networker. It is time to sell your product or vision for the equitable new world about to arise from the ashes of the past!

Sagittarius Archers now move into high octane career developments that require some pretty serious energy focus and direction over the next 8 months. As this involves the Virgo process of attention to detail, methodically plotting and carefully planning, you need to get beyond your Saggie aversion to this kind of practicality. Channel your will to achieve fab outcomes as 2012 opens the blossoms of renewal. Your role in the Unification process at hand is to embody the 'Grail Quest' – the quest for Consciousness – with pure motive and an open heart to offer others the 'Cup' of synthesis and wholeness.

Capricorn                    The unfolding socio/politic/economic crisis cuts right to the core of your sign as you guys are the ones who establish and maintain the systems on our planet. SO hopefully by now you're wise to the reality that both your own (and therefore the collective) dismantling and rebuilding process is afoot! So smart Goats are heading up fresh new unexplored mountains...or finding new tracks up old ones. For the next 8 months you'll be motivated and inspired to head in new directions both mentally and physically, with a goal of gathering clever original new info and models to revolutionise your world.

Aquarius                    As it was you water Carriers who 'invented' the whole revolutionary thing, enjoy the buzz of these times and allow them to feed your faith and trust that somehow this human experiment will not only survive but miraculously re-invent itself in more conscious fashion. To this end your current process involves continuing commitment over the next 8 months to empowering your 'self' and your projects. Remember...you need a cause or to be aligned with a group or idea that inspires and motivates you and goodness knows there are plenty of those around right now...and yours are all about "Conscious Evolution".

Pisces                        Be sure to keep seeking the larger visions and ideals that inspire you and if your urge is to take off and do some travelling go for it. Giving yourself a conscious education is also a great use of your current Jupiter growth and dare to pursue your dreams. From mid month a splendid team of planets bring fresh relating situations, which can range from some friction with near and dear ones because someone needs to grow, through to great PR moments. For the next 8m months you are launching yourself 'out there' with both career and partnership developments that will take you to fresh new outcomes from 2012.
